CLASS PICNIC.

The Sunday School classes of Miss Franse and Mrs. C. H. Marsh enjoyed a picnic at First Addition Friday. It was really a strawberry fete and most delightful, despite the showers. Among those present were Pernice Piche, Helen Gulovsen, Mabel McLaughlin, Genevieve Gansy, Clemence Wright, Edith Ayre, Fay Preston, Vesta McMahon and Elsie Thomas, with Mrs. Ora McCarty as a special guest.

RUBBER SOCIAL.

There was a good attendance at the "rubber social" given Friday evening at Taylor's Hall by the North Bend Episcopal Altar Guild. J. G. Horn and Miss Margaret Smith won the prizes at cards. Refreshments were served and a neat sum was netted for the treasury.

SURPRISE PARTY.

One of the delightful events of the week at Eastside was a surprise party and shower tendered Mrs. R. J. Whitty Wednesday afternoon. Sewing and conversation were followed by the shower. Mrs. M. A. McLaggan and Mrs. Percy Peet aiding in serving. Those present were Mrs. Perry Radford, Mrs. John Olson, Mrs. Sarah Whitty, Mrs. J. D. McKay, Mrs. B. F. Prey, Mrs. McLain, Mrs. M. A. Thurston, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Fred Brooks, Mrs. Cyrus Steckle, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Percy Peet, Mrs. W. F. Byerly, Mrs. McLaggan and Mrs. Rooke.

ENGAGEMENT.

Friends of Miss Mildred Coke, a charming Marshfield young woman and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coke, have been apprised of her engagement to a California young man. The nuptials will take place in the fall.

FAREWELL PARTY.

Mrs. O. W. Briggs was hostess at sewing Friday afternoon as a farewell for Mrs. Mary Thompson, who will leave soon to visit her daughter in British Columbia. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the afternoon. Among those invited were Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. C. W. Davis, Mrs. E. A. Harris and Mrs. H. C. Noble.

AUTO DAMAGED IN COLLISION

Ed Sprague's Machine Crashes Into Joe Winsor's Car on South Slough Hill

A narrow escape from a bad auto accident is reported from Empire. As it was, the car of C. S. Winsor was slightly damaged and car driven by Ed Sprague was considerably damaged. Joe Winsor, Tom Hage and a couple of friends were en route to the beach in the Winsor auto. On the hill near the Jake Evans place, they met Ed Sprague, who had five men in his car. Sprague either turned on the brake too abruptly or got frightened on the hill and his car began zig-zagging across the road. Winsor tried to avoid a collision, but Sprague's machine swerved as it neared him and struck. The momentum of the car caused it to skid around and roll over on its side down the hill. Luckily no one was injured.

Joe Winsor said today that his car was practically undamaged, but he said that Sprague's car was pretty badly broken up. He attributed the accident to Sprague's careless driving.
