Grand Theater TONIGHT

SIX REELS, ALL NEW
Vitagraph Night:
Four reels of these beautiful films and two other reels will make up an extra long program tonight.
An Officer and a Gentleman—Special three-reel Vitagraph that is a real feature in itself—One of the best photoplays for some time—a picture that our patrons can bank on being just as advertised. "The very best that money and brains can produce."
Doc Yak and the Poultry Man—This is one of the famous animated cartoon drawings by Sidney Smith. Funny? I should say yes. All the kids will be delighted with this picture.
Millions for Defense—He is willing to spend a fortune to get rid of her, and she would do the same. They turn around and marry each other, and are glad they did. A Vitagraph rib-tickler.
The Puritan—A splendid Lubin drama with an all-star cast.
Children 5c; adults, 10c.
Tomorrow night: "The Lion and the Mouse," in six reels.

SQUEEGEE
This name means a lot to anyone looking for inexpensive, pleasurable tire mileage.
Any Squeegie tire user will tell you it's the tread that stands for SURE TRACTION, and so far as the actual wearing ability of the rubber is concerned, IT CAN'T BE BEAT.
