June 10.—The one thing for which there is a considerable demand which is somewhat scarce is Chinook salmon. It has been gradually increasing in quantity and is expected to reach a marked increase in a few days. Dealers are advised to buy early, as there is a possibility of a shortage of Chinook on the coast. The Rose River is open again, hunters took advantage of the opening and secured a few fish, and it is expected that there will be a fair supply of Chinook in here from Grants Pass, in the Columbia and Willamette Rivers is still far from what has been expected, and now and then, before the reopening of the Rogue River, wholesalers were obliged to send to Sacramento for supplies to care for their trade.

Halibut is the opposite of salmon in so far as quantity is concerned. There is an abundance of it on hand and more is coming in every day. Up a few weeks ago practically every one of halibut sold in the local markets came from the Sound. Now it is getting some strictly from the coast, and is being caught by men in the boats who own a few boats and are operating out of here. Concern already has been expressed over the fact that the halibut ever seen here is of a smaller size than those sold in the Sound. Fresh halibut is all the way from 5 to 8 cents, according to size. Roe shad is 8 cents, shad roe, 20 cents and dressed shad 5 cents a pound. Razor clams are very scarce. There are a few in the market but not many. The price is unchanged. Salmon trout are supposed to retail at 15 cents a pound, but more places are asking from 20 to 25 cents a pound.

In the fruit line very little that is new has come in this week. Peaches are not plentiful but are to be had at 15 cents a dozen for the small size, while the best are 60 cents. Apples are 35 cents a basket; and raspberries, 15 cents a basket, two for a quarter; gooseberries are more abundant than ever, selling at 5 cents a basket; cantaloupes, 10 and 15 cents and getting better all the time; from 15 to 30 cents a dozen; mel oranges 15 to 50 cents a dozen. Apples are still to be had in large numbers, but before another week has gone they will be scarce. This is the longest orange raised, and is just as good as the navel, with the single difference that it is not entirely seedless. Plums are to be had at a basket. These are excellent, but the price is high. In another week or ten days the price will decline. There is no change in either the butter markets, and there is only to be for a brief time, one is made it will be upwards, upwards.

Beef holds the same with rib roast, 10 cents a pound; beef, 8 cents; sirloin and round, 16 cents; veal loin and leg, 17 1/2 cents; shoulder veal roast, 15 cents; shoulder pork chops, 15 cents; loin pork roast, 20 cents; loin pork chops, 20 cents.

ROAMER READY FOR FIRST TRIP

New Gasoline Schooner Ready to Ply Between Coos Bay and Siuslaw Points

The gasoline schooner Roamer, which was completed recently was inspected yesterday at the Arrow Line dock by U. S. Inspectors Joseph J. Meany and George Q. Weldon. She was found to be in excellent trim and ready for service.

The Roamer will make a trial trip about the bay this afternoon and will make her first scheduled trip between Marshfield and Florence next Saturday. She will be operated in the freight service between Coos Bay and points on the Siuslaw exclusively. She is captained by Edward Skog, one of the owners.

The Roamer was built at the Kruse & Banks shipyard at North Bend. She is sixty-four feet in length and has a capacity considerably greater than the Rustler, her sister ship. Tom James, agent for the Arrow Line steamers Paraiso and Yellowstone, will also serve in that capacity for the schooner Roamer.

COAST BAR SURVEY TO START

Coos Bay, Siuslaw and Alesia to Be Visited by New Crew.

A Portland paper says: "On the departure of the steamer Breakwater for Coos Bay, she will carry a survey party from the United States engineering staff under orders to survey the Coos Bay, Siuslaw and Alesia bars. The work will be under way for fully a month.

Another party is engaged in surveying the Nehalem and Tillamook bars, and data obtained by all will be incorporated in the annual report of the operations of the first district. As projects are under way at most Oregon coast ports having to do with bar and channel improvements, the Government engineers want complete information on existing depths so when surveys are conducted during the summer of 1915 an accurate comparison will be available of results attained through jetty construction and dredging."

OLD MAN WILL GO TO ASYLUM

Fred Warren, Aged 70, Said to Be Mentally Unbalanced—Keeps Many Cats

Fred Warren, aged 70, who has been living in the vicinity of the Libby coal bunkers for several years was taken in charge by Constable Cox yesterday and brought before Judge Hall and a medical examiner, who judged him to be mentally unbalanced.

The old man was taken on an information filed by R. O. Graves, representing a number of people in the neighborhood where Warren has been living. They say the old man has a number of cats and that he threatens anyone who makes fun of him or his pets.

Judge Hall has notified the attendants at the state insane asylum and the old man will be removed to the institution in a few days.

Warren receives a government pension, being an old veteran, but it is said that he spent most of the money in caring for the cats, etc. His clothing was in a fearful shape. He had many hallucinations about neighbors bothering him. He has no relatives here, so far as known.

AN OLD RECEIPT TO DARKEN HAIR

Common Garden Sage and Sulphur Makes Strucked, Faded or Gray Hair Dark and Glossy at Once

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays, we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.
