"Because you like a thing is your reason for going back after it again and again"

The real test of merit in the Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes we sell is the number of men who "come back." It's pretty safe to say that once you get a taste of these qualities, you'll never be satisfied with less.

Here in these clothes that are made better than "just to sell"—every man and young man who likes to save money and dress more carefully will find just what he's looking for.

Wed in Gardiner.—Maitland Smiley and Miss Maude Pratt, a well-known Gardiner young couple, were married there by the Rev. R. E. Browning of Marshfield.

Summer Celebration.—E. O. Hall was in from Summer today and reports that they are arranging for a celebration there. They plan for a picnic and sports, including a ball game and a big time in the evening.

Boat Men Coming.—C. F. McGeorge has received word that E. B. Fryer, traveling passenger agent of the North Pacific Steamship Co., and E. G. McMickin, general passenger agent of the company, will come here on the Geo. W. Elder on their first trip here next Monday.

Farewell Services.—Rev. J. V. Benson, the retiring pastor of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran Church will hold his farewell services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock instead of 8 o'clock Sunday evening. The change was made because he and his family will leave on the Nann Smith and it is possible that she may sail Sunday afternoon or evening.

On Long Trip.—C. A. Smith will leave Sunday on the Breakwater for a two-months' trip. He is planning to arrange his affairs so that after this trip he will spend the greater portion of his time on the Bay. He has been anxious to do this for some time, saying that the buzz of the saws and mills was the sweetest music to his ears.

Lumbermen Here.—Messrs. R. H. Swayne and Lloyd Swayne, of the Swayne & Hoyt Company, owners of the North Bend Mill & Lumber Company, arrived here today to confer with Paul Dimmick, their local manager. They have recently taken over part of the Boutin tract and are now arranging to start logging near Beaver Hill. They have enough timber there to supply the mill for seven or eight years.

Was Vocalist.—J. A. Luse recalls that Fred Warner, the veteran living on Coal Bank Inlet, who was ordered committed to the asylum this week, was formerly a member of a California opera troupe which made a couple of trips to Australia. Warner was a star in the company, receiving $50 per week. He served in the early 50s at Fort Umpqua in the regular army and was educated at Benecia, California.

Runaway in North Bend.—A team of horses drawing a wagonload of wood ran away on Sherman avenue in North Bend yesterday afternoon. Owing to the skillful work of the driver, John Coffelt, in handling the team, no one was injured. Two small boys were in the wagon from the
