PARTY POSTPONED
Mrs. Rebecca Luse Stump, who was to have entertained Tuesday has had to postpone her party until next Wednesday as her little daughter Catharine has been ill with measles.

CHRISTIAN SISTERHOOD
At sewing and chat Tuesday the Christian Sisterhood spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. R. A. Coppel. The meeting was wholly social with no business outside of the arrangement to meet only once a month throughout the summer. Refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Reid, Mrs. McCarty and Mrs. Immel.

Three special guests, Mrs. H. G. Hoy, Mrs. Dan Keating and Mrs. Harry Nasburg, were present. During the afternoon Mrs. John Motley gave several piano selections.

BAPTIST AID
Mrs. C. H. Mears entertained the ladies of the Baptist Aid at a business and social meeting Wednesday. The attendance was good, including Mrs. Nell Sutherland, Mrs. John Nagle, Mrs. J. C. Doane, Mrs. F. H. Storey, Mrs. E. H. Dresser, Mrs. Phillips, Rev. Bassford, Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Dow, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Renier and Mrs. McMahon. The principal business taken up was the planning for a picnic for Thursday, June 25, when the North Bend Aid will be guests of the Marshfield society.

NORTH BEND AUCTION BRIDGE CLUB
At the home of Mrs. J. G. Horn Wednesday, the North Bend Auction Bridge Club was organized and played its first game with six of its nine initial members present. The membership includes Mrs. Horn, Mrs. M. E. Everett, Mrs. Paul Dimmick, Mrs. Geo. Stephenson, Mrs. L. F. Falkenstein, Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Mrs. H. E. Burmester, Mrs. I. B. Bartle, and Mrs. C. M. Byler. Mrs. Stephenson won the card trophy for high score. A dainty lunch was served after the game. The new club plans to meet twice a month. Mrs. Byler to be hostess again in two weeks.

MAGAZINE EXCHANGE CLUB
The old Newly Wed Club, now known as the Magazine Exchange Club met with Mrs. Carl West Wednesday. The afternoon was spent at sewing, followed by refreshments Mrs. Elmer Vineyard, Mrs. Ruben Cavanaugh, Miss Thora Lund, Miss Nellie Olsen and Miss Hildur West, were present. The club plans to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Vineyard.

L. T. L.
The L. T. L. Society of the Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the church hall and enjoyed quite a program of music and games following a business session.

Frank Howe and G. A. Williamson gave a guitar and harmonica duet and a whistling trio with Lee Byerly, and Misses Bessie Planagan and Grace Fulton gave readings. The program ended with a song by the club, and games combined the evening's fun. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bargett, Misses Lillian Cook, Grace Fulton, Helen McLaughlin, Bessie Planagan and Carrie, Rilla and Velma Ross, and Messrs Allen Merser, Lee Byerly, G. A. Williamson, Roy Fulton and Frank Howe. The second Tuesday in July is the date of the next meeting.

JOLLY DOZEN
The Jolly Dozen were most effectively prevented from meeting this week by the epidemic of measles and whooping cough that have been raging among the families of Bunker Hill and Bay Park. Mrs. Brockmuller was to have been hostess. It was not decided when nor where to hold the next meeting.

TENDERS LUNCHEON
Miss Lydia Dodge entertained with a delightful three-course luncheon on Wednesday evening. Roses, ferns and burnt orange crepe paper combined in making a most attractive decoration scheme for the parlor and dining room. Music, including solos by Miss Dodge and Miss Bessie Ayre, and games, added greatly to the entertainment. Her guests were Misses Eliza Ayre, Bessie Ayre, Myrtle Miller, Ruth Matthews, Elizabeth Arlandson, Essie Cameron, Gladys Roddy and Nellie Holland, Mrs. Anna Fisher, Mrs. Geo. Chatterton, Misses Jeanette Escott and Harriet Collins and Melville Chatterton.

SOCIAL EVENING
Mrs. R. A. Taylor and sister, Miss Hallie Ellis, gave a delightful party Saturday in honor of their mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burns, of North Bend. Dancing and games were enjoyed until midnight and then a most beautiful supper was served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Rucker, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Budell, Mrs. Angles, Mrs. W. Thompson and sons, Clyde and Lloyd, Miss Dora Thompkins, Mrs. O. Martin, Seth Johnson, Mrs. Warren Wetherly, Eddie Kuntson, Ruben Swanson, Walter McLeod, Miss Emily Kane, Miss Hallie Ellis, Mrs. C. E. Burns, Mr. C. E. Burns, Ray Taylor, Mrs. Myrtle Taylor.

EASTSIDE SEWING CLUB
The club this week spent a very profitable and pleasant afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Foster, of Bay City. Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Prey and Mrs. Byerly were members from Eastside attending, with Mrs. Fred Brooks as additional guest, while as special guests from Bay City Mrs. Foster had invited Mrs. J. P. Maloney, Mrs. Bunch, Mrs. Wm. Smith and Miss Rose Maloney, who entertained with music during the afternoon. Mrs. Brinkley aided the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Prey in two weeks.

EASTSIDE DANCING PARTY
The Eastside Sewing Circle were hostesses to about sixty guests at a delightful dancing party at the club rooms Saturday evening. The rooms were gayly decorated with ferns and flowers. Supper was served at a late hour. Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Prey composed the committee in charge.

PLAN FOR PICNIC
The A. N. W. Club members are planning for the picnic and outing June 25 when Mrs. C. H. Dungan will be hostess at her home on South Coos River.

LADIES' ART CLUB
The Ladies' Art Club enjoyed a delightful afternoon Friday with Mrs. Chas. LaChapelle at her home in First Addition. Needle work and conversation were followed by refreshments.
