Among Our Churches

ONE COMFORTER
Friends do what they can to comfort the forlorn, but after all there is but one Comforter. God help those who have not Him to lean upon in the hour of bitter need! Only the saint can rise supreme above bereavement, but when faith is strong, the habit of a lifetime, it comes forth at the crisis as a consolation, whose place nothing else can take. This is often the blessing of the poor. Their daily misery makes them live near to God. Death levels all distinctions, but they who have no friend but God all their lives feel His friendship at the time of death.—Selected.
