Elks' Meeting.—Last evening Frank and Wallace Ackley were initiated by the Marshfield Elks' Lodge. The balance of the session was turned into a farewell for C. W. Montgomery, who has been promoted to the Eureka agency of the Standard Oil company.

Off to Port Orford.—A quartette of Marshfield men, S. J. Lyons, Geo. Smith, J. W. Motley and E. W. Steele left this morning for Port Orford on a business and pleasure trip. George Smith promised to have a collection of the famous Port Orford agates on his return.

Chosen Chairman.—Mrs. Vernon A. Smith has been chosen as chairman of the Fourth of July rest room committee and she will select her assistants soon. The idea is to fix up rooms in the O'Connell block where mothers and children can rest and secure necessary accommodations during the celebration.

Wedding at Coaledo.—John R. Martin, of Coquille, and Miss Violet Means, of Coaledo, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. Witschey at Coaledo at noon yesterday. Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, of the chapel cruiser Life-Line, performed the ceremony. Mr. Martin is an engineer at the Crane Camp.

Wed Yesterday.—Engle Pederson and Miss Hattie McKay, a well-known Eastside young couple, were married yesterday afternoon at the Marshfield Presbyterian Manse, the Rev. J. E. Burkhardt officiating. The witnesses were Miss Pederson, sister of the groom, and Mr. McKay, brother of the bride. The young couple will reside at Bunker Hill.

Asks Pensions.—Mrs. Flossie Ferrari, whose husband was convicted of killing J. Kelly at Henryville last spring, has made application to the county court for a mother's pension. She has three children, the youngest of whom was born June 4, a few days after the father's conviction. She says she has only about $80 in funds and owes $50. She will be entitled to $25 per month.

Got to Portland.—Yesterday Geo. Rourke, Ben Mathison and F. H. Dresser received a hurry-up call to go to Portland as witnesses in a Federal court case. They engaged Lynn Lambeth to take them through in his car and if they did not catch the 11 o'clock train at Roseburg last night it was proposed to drive through to Portland in the auto. They left here at noon yesterday and it was the first car to attempt to go through the canyon this season.

Burns Sane.—J. J. Burns, formerly of North Bend and Marshfield, but now a resident of Myrtle Point, was found to be suffering from a nervous breakdown instead of insanity when examined at Coquille, and was released. Burns is a hard worker and has been meeting with reverses. Recently Mr. Barker, of Fairview, notified him that because Burns was too slow in clearing a tract for another piece of land that the contract was cancelled and this caused Burns to break down. Burns has a wife and seven children, the eldest child being twelve years old. The family has many friends on the Bay who will hope for his rapid recovery.
