Will Build.—Andrew Storgard is clearing a lot on Nob Hill which he recently purchased and plans to erect a bungalow there this summer.

Baby Dead.—Word has been received here of the death of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Greene at their home in San Francisco after a short illness. Mrs. Greene was formerly Miss Mary Minot, of Marshfield, a niece of Mrs. Eugene O'Connell, and Mr. Greene was slightly known here, having made a few trips to the Bay for a candy company for which he traveled.

Meeting Postponed.—Owing to the absence of Dr. Mings from the city, the lecture on Social Hygiene to have been delivered by him this evening at Central School, has been postponed.

Father Ill.—Mrs. W. T. Stoll left this week for Rochester, Minn., in response to a telegram announcing that her father had been brought there from Wisconsin to undergo an operation.

Wed in Portland.—Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Miss Rose Florence Beringer to Sherman W. Brainard at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna Beringer, in Portland, June 8. The bride was well known on Coos Bay, having been identified with the Hub Dry Goods Company for a couple of years. They will be at home at 134 East 54th street, Portland after July 8, and the many friends of the bride here will unite in wishing them all the joys and success that time can bring.

Play Sunday.—The Libby baseball team is planning to play the Smith mill team near the Libby bunkers here Sunday. The Smith mill team is a real classy bunch and Libby claims to have some big league timber.

Bring Body Home.—The body of Len Younce, of Prosper, who was drowned while at work on the Siuslaw jetty last week, has been recovered and will be taken to the family home for burial. Younce's brother went to Florence to aid in recovering it.

To Bring Boxer.—J. W. Joseph, the manager who introduced Lupie Carranza in the boxing game here, is now managing Jack Burns, a 145-pound glove artist with headquarters at Los Banos, and writes that he would like to arrange a bout here on the Fourth of July. Nothing definite has been done about it.

Good Service.—D. L. Foote's auto line is enjoying good business between here and Drain and last evening brought in about a dozen passengers. They arrived about 8 o'clock. The road is a little heavy and rough in places but does not impede them. A little later they will be able to make much better time.

Enter House.—Cal Wright is planning to give some prowlers who have been molesting his place a warm reception. Mrs. Wright is now in San Francisco and the house is vacant during the day time, and several articles have been stolen from there. Mr. Wright has his shotgun loaded and says that he will make someone make a hasty exit if they don't stay away.

Must Use Rock.—Capt. Macgenn of the Breakwater stated today that a year ago he told the Port Commissioners that they would have to use rock to hold the bulkhead along North Front street, where it has started to slide into the Bay. He says it was a mistake to cut the deep channel so close in to the bulkhead and declares that rock will still have to be used to retain the dirt there.

Case Tried.—C. R. Peck has returned from Portland where the case of F. B. Waite vs. the C. A. Smith company to establish his claim to a part of the tract lying west of the C. A. Smith Mills was tried before Judge Morrow, to whom the case was referred by Judge Coke as Mr. Peck had been attorney for the company prior to taking a place on the bench. Mr. Peck was ill of inflammatory rheumatism most of the time that he was in Portland.

Married Today.—Miss Olive Wanda Hibarger and Claude F. Gleason were married this morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Hibarger, on Market avenue. The Rev. R. E. Browning officiating. The bride has been a teacher in the Coquille schools the past year and is a graduate of the Ellensburg Normal School. Mr. Gleason is an engineer employed on the irrigation projects in Okanogan County, Wash., where they will make their home. They left on the Breakwater. A few close friends besides members of the family were present.
