JUNE WEDDING.

Friday, June 9, 1914, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Hilarger of this city, occurred the wedding of Miss Olive Wanda Hilarger and Mr. Claude F. Gleason, of Washington. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses and carnations. The bride wore a tango colored travelling gown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. E. Browning and witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Mel Duncan and Miss Dubuque, after which the young couple left on the Breakwater for Okanogan county, Washington, where the groom is employed on an irrigation project. The best wishes of a host of friends follow them.

WED AT COALEDO.

On Wednesday of this week at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Witchey in Coaledo, the marriage of Miss Violet Means and John R. Martin was solemnized. The ring ceremony was used, the Rev. G. Leroy Hall officiating. The bride wore a charming dress of pale blue messaline ornamented with gold lace and was attended by Miss Frances Martin, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, while Mr. Martin was attended by W. R. Bell as best man. The couple stood under a wedding bell formed of roses and pansies which was suspended from an arch of ferns and bridal wreath. After the ceremony Mrs. Witchey served a delicious wedding dinner and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Chas. Stallard, Mrs. Geddis, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Williams.

The guests present were Mrs. Martin and daughter Frances of Coquille, Mrs. Hetherington and daughter Thelma, Mrs. C. B. Stallard, Mrs. J. Gutbladen and son Jack, J. Lenos, Ward Williams, Theo. Williams, Harvey Williams, Mrs. F. Grant and daughter Helen, Mrs. Myrtle Jones and son Roland, Mrs. T. H. Williams and daughter Gertrude, W. R. Bell, Frances Rousch, Mrs. William Grow, Mrs. Gemmill, Mrs. D. A. Correll, Mrs. J. T. Parks and son Daniel, Mrs. L. Tibbets, Mr. and Mrs. Geddis, Cecil Witchey and Rev. G. Leroy Hall. The couple will be home next week at their new residence at Crane Camp.

CARD PARTY.

Mrs. Claude Nasburg was hostess at one of a series of parties Thursday afternoon, complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Doble of Eugene, who is spending the summer here. Another of the series will be given next week. Pink snap dragons and Scotch broom were used in the decorations. During the afternoon Mrs. Nasburg was assisted by Misses Doris and Genevieve Sengstacken and Mrs. Blake. At cards Mrs. L. J. Simpson won first prize and Mrs. W. F. McElldowney received the consolation. Mrs. Nasburg's guests were Mrs. Arnold of Portland, Mrs. Doble, Mrs. W. S. Turpen, Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Mrs. C. M. Byler, Mrs. Ward M. Blake, Miss Genevieve Sengstacken, Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, Mrs. E. G. Perham, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. W. F. McElldowney and Miss Mamie Mahoney.

ELKS' BALL.

The Marshfield lodge of Elks will hold their fifth annual birthday party and ball next Wednesday evening at the Simpson pavilion in North Bend. In addition to the members of the lodge, each member is entitled to invite one couple so that a large attendance is anticipated. The affair promises to be one of the finest of the season.

LIBRARY MEETING.

The ways and means committee of the North Bend Library Association will hold a special meeting in the library room on Tuesday at four o'clock. Several of the ladies are out of the city, which makes it very important that everyone come, who can possibly do so. Several matters of importance are to be discussed.

among these that of buying a private library which has been offered the committee at an attractive price. The library is now open only two afternoons a week, Tuesday and Friday, with a growing demand that it be kept open every afternoon in the week. The advisability and possibility of doing this will be decided at Tuesday's meeting.

Thirty new books were added to the library the past week, a large number of these being fiction. Eleven came from Mrs. L. J. Simpson and four from Mrs. R. E. Burns. City Engineer R. J. Andrews presented the library with a handsome set of civil engineering encyclopaedia.

The "Magazine Exchange" is attracting large attention, but the library is still in need of some of the popular magazines for exchange. Persons having these magazines current in their homes will confer a great favor to library patrons by exchanging at the library for other magazines.

The ways and means committee consists of the following persons: Mesdames Frank Frame, chairman, L. J. Simpson, Geo. Mandigo, C. M. Byler, Virgil Watters, C. F. McCollum, C. S. Kaiser, L. C. Reynolds, L. A. Woodberry, R. A. Wernick, Geo. Hazer, C. S. Winsor, F. W. Wood and H. Armstrong.

CLUB ADJOURNS.

The Ladies' Art Club did not meet this week, it being decided to adjourn until the first Friday in October, when Mrs. E. D. McArthur will be hostess to the club. About fifty participated in the annual picnic of the club on Coos River last Sunday, which proved to be one of the most delightful affairs.

GIVE SHOWER.

Mrs. Ward M. Blake will entertain at a kitchen shower next Saturday for Miss Mamie Mahoney, who will soon become the bride of Mair Dano. The date of the nuptials has not been announced.

ISSUES INVITATIONS.

Mrs. T. S. Harvey has issued invitations for next Tuesday afternoon.

WED JUNE 24

The marriage of Mr. Carl Davis and Miss Helen Rush will be solemnized next Wednesday, June 24, at the home of the bride's parents near South Bend, Ind. After a short honeymoon trip, they will come to Coos Bay to make their home. They will be warmly welcomed by the many friends that the popular young couple has here.

BAPTIST WOMEN

The North Bend Baptist Women will hold a cafeteria session at the Myers building next Thursday.

ANNUAL PICNIC

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Marshfield Baptist Church will have their annual picnic up Coos River next Friday. They invite their friends to accompany them on the trip.

PLAN OUTING.

Next Thursday Mrs. C. H. Dungan will entertain the members of the A. N. W. Club and a few friends at a strawberry picnic at her home on South Coos River.

SILVER TEA

The Presbyterian Ladies Auxiliary enjoyed a delightful silver tea at the home of Mrs. Eva Gemmill last Wednesday. Mrs. Howard, Mrs. J. Cox and Mrs. W. F. Squires and Mrs. Gemmill were the hostesses and they were assisted by Misses Edith Ayre and Merl Cox. At the business session it was arranged to hold a cooked food sale Saturday, June 27. Those present this week were

Mrs. A. E. Diment, Mrs. Arthur Blanchard, Mrs. H. J. Mohr, Mrs. A. L. Butz, Mrs. L. L. Thomas, Mrs. Jake Proctor, Mrs. Rowen, Mrs. A. T. Haines, Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. H. C. Noble, Mrs. F. M. CONTEST VOTES ARE COUNTED

Miss Elma MacDonald is Still in the Lead—Miss Flanagan is Second

The count made in the Goddess of Liberty contest today shows that Miss Elma MacDonald, the traveling salesmen's candidate, is still in the lead with 27,500 votes. Miss Bessie Flanagan, the Eagles' candidate, is second. According to the count, the candidates stand as follows:
 Miss MacDonald, traveling salesmen 27,500
 Miss Bessie Flanagan, Eagles 20,000
 Miss Emma Erickson, Elks 19,600
 Miss Gertrude Scaife, Moose 13,300
 Miss Gladys Roddy, telephone exchange 8,500
 The contest will close next Saturday and much interest in the race will be manifested next week.

Balloons Soar.
 Faces were turned skyward last evening about 8 o'clock when two paper balloons sailed over the city in the direction of Bunker Hill. They were released by Harry Kimball, general manager of the Fourth of July Committees, and each of the balloons carried a ticket providing transportation to and from Marshfield for the party finding the balloons when they descend.

One of them may be going yet, but the other caught fire and burned before it started. Kimball is anxiously awaiting word from the finder of the other balloon containing the note.

Two balloons will be sent up each evening about 8 o'clock from the wireless station or therabouts. Each will contain a note which will entitle the finder to free transportation to and from Marshfield during the celebration.

PORT ORFORD WHARF

The tug Klyhiam started from Bandon last Friday evening with five rafts of piling in tow for use on the Port Orford wharf. When off Blacklock Point the raft that the tow line was fastened to went to pieces. It was then after dark, and all five rafts were lost. Contractor Webb will start immediately getting out piling at Port Orford, which will be hauled by team to the wharf.—Port Orford Tribune.

FISHING TROUBLE

Jacob Johns and C. A. Woodruff were arrested by Fish Warden Powell for violations of the fish law. They were given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Stafford, and after a plea of guilty was entered, the judge assessed the minimum fine of one hundred dollars and costs—Gold Beach Globe.

MYRTLE POINT ELECTION

At the annual meeting of School District No. 41, at the High School last Monday afternoon the electors voted to levy a 12 mill tax—ten mills for general school purposes and 2 mills to pay interest on the district's indebtedness.
 M. R. Lee was chosen director to take the place of J. S. Whitaker whose term expired. L. A. Roberts was re-elected clerk.
 A resolution was passed authorizing the directors to sell the district's property in Dixon Grove as well as the property on Railroad avenue where the small frame school building is located.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

THREE GAMES ARE SCHEDULED
LUMBER TRADE OF COOS BAY
 Coos Bay Nine and Team From Valley to Meet—Mill Teams Will Also Play
 There will be a baseball game at North Bend tomorrow afternoon between a team organized by Tamp Osborne and a team organized by H. R. Eiland, of Coquille. Thomas, Horn or Marks will catch for the Coos Bay team, and Osborne or Krause will pitch. Tuttle or McDonald will pitch for the Coquille Valley team and Collier or Clinton will occupy the mound.
 Collier recently returned from California, where he was pitching for San Jose in the State League, which went to pieces. Other players in the Valley team were picked up at Bandon, Norway and Coquille.
Mill Teams to Play.
 The Libby baseball team will play the Smith mill team tomorrow morning near the Libby coal bunkers. Both teams are composed of good players and a big crowd is expected to see the game.
 There will also be a game at Justrum's ranch on Coos River between Sumner and Coos River teams. This will be the first game of the season on Coos River.

Only a Few Good Corner Lots Left in Bay Park
 Bay Park is selling. Most property is NOT selling. Could there be more powerful proof that Bay Park lots are genuinely desirable? What shows that an investment is safe better than a real demand for that investment? The day is past when real estate is sold on talk. Today you must have offerings of real, positive merit. Then you don't have to talk in seductive terms. The property sells itself, and all you have to do is to show it to people who know. Let us show you Bay Park, and explain our easy purchase plan.
