STAGE ILLUSIONS.

Not the Least of These Are the Banquets on the Boards.

Nothing is so deceptive as the stage meal, although the art of the property man makes such repasts appear deliciously appetizing.

A favorite stage substitute for meat is sponge cake, which cut into the shape of cutlets or steaks and judiciously browned with sauce, presents a most genuine appearance. The advantage of such material is that it is easy for the actors to consume and does not present any difficulties to the carver.

Cutlets composed of soft toast are also popular in stage culinary circles and when decorated with dainty paper frills and parsley look quite the real thing. Do not let your mouth water at the sight of these dainty slices of ham reposing on lettuce leaves on the baron's festive board. Ham is invariably represented on the stage by strips of luncheon, the reddish under side of which makes a convincing substitute for the real article. As to the surrounding lettuce, that is generally represented by white leaves from the humble cabbage.

The larger and more impressive stage edibles, the greater the fake. Huge platters which when cut produce a cloud of realistic steam are absolutely unobtainable. The crust is merely colored paper mache, which incloses a dish of hot water and sometimes a few boiled potatoes, which supply the necessary steam. The big sirloin of beef, which apparently weighs pounds, has about six ounces of entable meat about it. The joint is a wooden affair, over which a few thin slices of genuine beef are placed, giving the impression of a really fine piece of meat.

Were you to obtain a peep behind the scenes just before a banquet scene was to be staged you would find a number of stage hands busily slicing up tomatoes and bananas. You would see those slices being laid out on plates surrounded with parsley or white cabbage leaves. Under the glare of the limelight this dish assumes an astonishing resemblance to lobster salad, and in similar fashion sliced banana is a general substitute for fish, entrees and hors d'oeuvre.

One of the most astonishing illusions with regard to stage food, however, is where soup is concerned. This is invariably sawdust, which when ladled out of a tureen has all the appearance of a thick liquid.

No banquet would be complete without a turkey. A loaf of bread delicately browned and decorated with pegs covered with browned dough, saves the management the expense of running up a poultry bill. Moreover, the comedians can with comparative safety sling this asset to the feast about the stage without damage to life or property.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Government Printer.

When it comes to printing your Uncle Samuel takes first rank among the nations. He has a $15,000,000 printing office that is the best equipped in the world. Although certain private publishing houses in this country exceed the 1,000,000 copies of printed matter sent out weekly from the United States government printing office, no plant approaches the multitude of different publications that it prints and mails. Over a thousand publications are issued from the presses in the course of a year, appearing daily, weekly, monthly, annually or at irregular intervals. For the purpose of mailing them more than a thousand different mailing lists must be kept in the file room.—New York Sun.

Wallace, Mrs. Roy Brainard, Mrs. Henry Kern, Mrs. Arthur Morten, Mrs. Harry Truman, Mrs. William Vaughn and Mrs. Stewart McDonald, with Mrs. Fay Dempsey, Miss Waima Chapman and Miss Laurel Brickell as special guests. After a few pleasant hours of needlework refreshments were passed by the hostess and Mrs. Wallace. The club will meet again in two weeks with Mrs. Wallace.

JOLLY DOZEN

Next Wednesday the Jolly Dozen will meet for their usual afternoon of sewing, chat and entertainment with Mrs. Brockmuller.

EASTSIDE SEWING CLUB

Mrs. B. F. Prey is to be hostess to the Eastside Sewing Club next Thursday afternoon at her home in Eastside.

COQUILLE SOCIETY

(Special to The Times.) Mrs. N. Neiman was hostess Thursday when she entertained the younger set at her pretty little home at East Coquille.

Sewing and general conversation was the pastime for the evening. The house was prettily decorated with ferns making the rooms a bower of greenery. At a late hour a two-course luncheon was served. The table, being prettily decorated, the center piece being an artificial lake, bordered with moss and miniature animals. Each one found their places by pretty place cards. The luncheon consisted of fried chicken, lettuce sandwiches, jelly and tea, and also ice cream served with cantaloupe. The hostess was assisted in serving by Messrs McKenna and Neiman. Those present were Messdames Juza, Currie, Pierce, Neiman and the Misses Harlock, Thrift and Maury, and Messrs. Neiman and McKenna.

On Thursday evening the Misses Alice and Verena Phillips entertained informally at cards, games and music. At a late hour the guests were served to a dainty luncheon. Those present were Mrs. Allison, the Misses Leta Mast, Marion Schroeder, Annis McCann and Messrs. Reuben Mast, Leo Hosford, Clarence Tuttle, Roy Avery and Clay Knowlton.

Mrs. F. W. Jones and Mrs. W. H. Lyons were joint hostesses this week when they entertained with a series of afternoons. Needlework was the pastime of both afternoons. Those present Wednesday afternoon were Messdames Geo. Peoples, N. Lorenz, G. R. Wickham, Geo. Leach, N. Plyler, E. M. Lyons, L. P. Maury, Mary Wright, Frank Mings, A. Thomas, F. Dimmick, A. J. Sherwood, J. A. Lamb, Lloyd Oddy. On Thursday afternoon were Messdames J. S. Lawrence, Geo. Lorenz, Chas. Evedland, J. A. Collier, V. Nicklin, J. E. Paulson, Wm. Candlin, B. Folsom, A. N. Gould, Martin, J. S. Barton, Paul Sterling, Leo J. Carey, R. R. Watson, J. A. Lamb, W. S. Cullin. A delicious luncheon was served, consisting of nut bread, potato salad, sherbet, cake and coffee.

BENEFIT MUSICAL

The musical program given at Loggie Hall Friday evening under the auspices of the North Bend Library Association was a marked credit to the musical ability of the Coos Bay community. Such evenings are milestones in the ethical and cultural progress of Coos Bay and by their frequency and merit the stranger on our shores largely measures his idea of Coos County as a desirable place for a home.

Altho the managing committee of the program was disappointed at almost the last minute by the inability to be present of Father McDevitt and Mrs. W. A. Davenport as readers, their numbers were supplied in two vocal solos by Mr. R. E. Miller and Mr. Alexander Martin, of Marshfield, who were assisted by the very able accompanist, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall. Mr. C. S. Kaiser rendered one of his unsurpassed baritone solos—a selection so well adapted to the occasion that the audience was fairly carried away by the sweet tones of feeling. The splendid voice of Mr. L. J. Simpson, which has not been heard in solo for several years in North Bend, seemed to his hearers even richer and deeper than when recalled from memory of former occasions. Mrs. C. H. Callender, of Astoria, a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Simpson, had the only number on the program given by a non-resident of Coos Bay. Her voice showed excellent training added to that sympathetic, natural ability that alone marks the true vocal artist. Mr. Martin, who is a newcomer to the Bay, but who it is hoped my long remain to add his presence to musical events here, also won the hearts of everyone present by his simple, natural presence and unadorned artistic power. Mr. Miller, who has appeared before Coos Bay audiences, was at his best, and those who heard him render "King of the Sea," regret that he is soon to leave the Bay. Mrs. Neil Banks, as usual, held her audience in close sympathy with her rendition of "My Ain Folk," a touching Scotch song. Mrs. Fitchett showed herself plainly at home before connoisseurs of her profession in the pretty solo, "Absent," and for an encore sang prettily the child's song "A Rainy Day." She and Mrs. Banks were both ably accompanied by Mrs. L. Thomas, of Marshfield. Mrs. Horsfall played all other accompaniments except Mr. Simpson's which was played by Mrs. Callender, who having already proved herself a vocal artist, now showed equal power in piano expression.

After the musical program, Mayor Simpson spoke on the subject "A Public Library for North Bend." He paid high tribute to the generosity of Mrs. Frederick Hollister in donating for the library, not only the beautiful billiard parlor in the basement of the magnificent Hollister residence, until such time as the city can build a library. Mr. Simpson also spoke in high appreciation of the services of the many women of North Bend who are giving their services to the library movement and cited as an inspiration to them what had been done by the women of Marshfield and the satisfaction that city now enjoys in watching a Carnegie library being erected. In closing his address Mayor Simpson assured the North Bend Library Association members that when their committee comes before the City Council to ask that body to donate a lot for a public library building, that the Council will be proud of the efforts the ladies are making in behalf of a library and glad to show its appreciation by donating Grant Square to be used for library purposes. Mr. Simpson's encouraging words brought forth warm applause.

Still further encouragement was in store for the library association for after the program Mr. Peter Loggie announced to the ladies that he would give them the use of Loggie Hall one evening a month for a year, rent free, the proceeds of these evenings to go to the library. This is the largest single gift next to Mrs. Hollister's gift of a room, that has yet been made to the library association, inasmuch as the object of the library association next to establishing a library, is to provide its members and their friends with wholesome amusement and entertainment of intellectual value. Mr. Loggie deserves much credit for his timely, opportune and thoughtful generosity. The library association will give henceforth once a month for a year a program, a dance, a card party, a lecture or some other social feature, at Loggie Hall, the proceeds of which will go to the library fund. Those interested to help the library movement should place this event on their social calendar as one of special merit and interest.

The net proceeds of the musical June 12 was something over $30. Mr. Loggie donated the services of the hall and Mr. Stevens did most of the printing free of charge.

MARRIED WEDNESDAY

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Langworthy and Capt. Herman Edwards, solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Langworthy in South Marshfield Wednesday noon by the Rev. Joseph Knotts, was one of the prettiest of the June weddings. Only relatives and a few close friends were in attendance.

The home was prettily decorated for the occasion, myriads of flowers being used. The bride appeared most charming, her graduating gown being her nuptial robe. She carried a large bouquet. She was attended by Miss Merriman. The groom was attended by Edward Steele. Little Miss Ilma Langworthy was ring bearer and the bride was given away by her father.

In serving a bountiful wedding dinner, Mrs. Langworthy was assisted by Miss Hodson, Miss Lucy Powers, Miss Helen Smith and Miss Dora Brown. The bridal bouquet was caught by Miss Irene Preuss.

The young couple left immediately after the wedding dinner for Bandon where they will spend part of their honeymoon. They are among the best known young people on the Bay and were the recipients of congratulations from hosts of friends. They received many handsome wedding presents.

Those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Langworthy, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Langworthy, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Langworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Birch, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Torrey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Myers, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Knotts, Mrs. Paul Peralta, Mrs. Jesse Ott, Mrs. Frye, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Edwards, Edward Steele, Wallace, Ilma and Glenda Langworthy, Miss Dora Brown, Hazel Merriman, Helen Smith, Lucy Powers, Irene Preuss, Lulu Hodson and Mrs. A. Abbott.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Last Wednesday evening, Mrs. C. M. Conner entertained a party of little folks at her home in First Addition in honor of the thirteenth birthday of their son, Eben. Various games were followed by refreshments. Next week she will again entertain the little ones in honor of T. arald Conner's birthday. Those present Wednesday were Reginald McCashey, Irwin Yake, Harold Curry, Wallace Conner, Louise Conner and Tharald Conner.

AFTERNOON PARTY

Mrs. Rebecca Luse Stump was hostess at a most delightful afternoon Wednesday at her home on North Fifth street. The color scheme was pink and yellow with a background of greens. In receiving Mrs. Stump was assisted by Mrs. E. G. Perham and in serving by Mrs. Norris Jensen and Mrs. Burt Doremus. Various games were enjoyed, Mrs. L. W. Traver winning first honors and Mrs. A. O. Rogers second prize. Mrs. Stump's guests were Mrs. Mattie B. Shaw, Mrs. I. Lando, Mrs. J. H. Flanagan, Mrs. J. A. Luse, Mrs. Herbert Lockhart, Mrs. Henry Seagatack, Mrs. F. A. Golden, Mrs. Norris Jensen, Mrs. J. S. Coke, Mrs. G. A. Bennett, Mrs. Burt Doremus, Mrs. L. W. Traver, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Mrs. George Hennessey, Mrs. L. K. Haltinger, Mrs. A. O. Rogers, Mrs. Arthur McKeown, Miss Elma Selander, Miss Olive Richards, Miss Mary Durnbach, Mrs. Bradford Wheeler, Mrs. H. J. McKeown, Mrs. E. G. Perham, Mrs. C. W. Murphy and Miss Hilda Stenholm.

MARRIED WEDNESDAY

Miss Alice Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Butler and sister of Walter Butler, became the bride of Dr. Palmer H. Dunbar, of Sterling City, Cal., at Sacramento, Wednesday. The marriage was solemnized in the Proccathedral Episcopal Church, Bishop W. H. Moreland officiating. Immediately after the nuptials, the young couple left for San Francisco and other points on a honeymoon tour. Miss Butler was one of the most highly respected young women on Coos Bay and a host of friends here will unite in extending felicitations.

TEN MILE DANCE.

A very delightful dance was given Saturday evening at the Ten Mile Hotel, the popular summer resort at Lakeside, by Mrs. J. E. Gardiner, the charming wife of the resident engineer, in honor of Mrs. B. C. Wagner of Portland who is visiting here for the summer. Mrs. Wagner is a very accomplished musician and is a great favorite with the engineering and contracting staffs. With her ready wit, never failing good humor, and a readiness to please, she was pleased. Among those present were Mildred Coke, Elen Brewer, Laura Lawler, Mrs. John Kestley, Mrs. Severson, Miss Crick, Miss Bowron, Miss B. Vanderburgh, Miss McCullough, Mrs. Browning, Mrs. J. E. Gardiner, Mrs. B. C. Wagner, Mrs. Buchanan, Andrew Peterson, Gus Nelson, Jas. Martin, Jack Barret, Donald Hill, Walter Mason, Joe Gellende, John Kestley, J. E. Gardiner, Dr. N. J.
