MAKES AMPLE PREPARATIONS

Arrangements Complete for Taking Care of Autos During Celebration

The Goodroads Goodrum Garage has been a busy place the past week making preparations to take care of the automobile rush during the celebration. As a result of these careful advance arrangements there will be no disappointments or inconvenience for motorists during the celebration. Additional help has been engaged so that every auto may be cared for and given prompt attention. The supply and repair department has been carefully checked up and additional parts and supplies secured to anticipate every want. The stock of tires, gasoline, and in fact, everything needed for the car owner, will be found at Goodroad's Goodrum's Garage. Make it your auto headquarters during the celebration for everything.
