BORN.
ECKLES—To Mr. and Mrs. Warren Eckles at their home near the Coos Bay creamery, Saturday, June 27, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Ten Mile Celebration.—Ten Mile is planning to have a big celebration, including a sport program and boat races, a baseball game and a speech by C. A. Schilde.

Council Tonight.—The Marshfield City Council will meet tonight to take up a number of street improvement matters and also the final action on the waterworks matter.

Has Recovered.—Andrew Olson, who was injured in the North Bend mill, returned today from Lakeside, where he has been resting and recovering from the effects of the accident.

Leave Soon.—Sheriff Gage and Walter Condron plan to leave Coquille tomorrow with Larry Miller, F. Vaughan and James Ferrari, the prisoners who have long terms to serve at Salem.

Very Warm.—J. C. Kendall has received a letter from his wife, who has been visiting relatives in Minnesota. She writes that it has been intensely warm there and that the storm last week was severe. She is now considering returning without going to Pennsylvania and New York, owing to the intense heat.

Easy on Offenders.—Owing to the approach of the Fourth of July, many loggers and others are coming in and starting their celebrations a little early. The police have been instructed to be lenient with them and only punish those who are causing a disturbance. Peaceable drunks are being liberated as soon as they sober up.

Visit Family.—Swan Benson, in charge of the railroad work between here and Lakeside, plans to leave this week for Newberg, Oregon, where he will spend the Fourth with Mrs. Benson and the children on their fine ranch. He has one of the finest and most up-to-date equipped ranches in the state and says that when he quits railroad building he will become a real fruit grower and farmer.

Fishing Party.—A sextette of local fishermen consisting of Walter Butler, Del Bengtson, Herbert Buserud, L. L. Thomas, Henry Huggins and Victor Johnson, hid themselves to Rock Creek yesterday, where they caught 150 of the fluky tribe. L. L. Thomas says he caught the limit and the others divided the remainder.

Many Had Disease.—Fred Weaver is out after an unusual siege of measles. First their baby got the disease and then Mrs. Weaver. He secured a nurse for them and then he contracted the disease, making three ill at the same time. Soon afterwards the nurse also fell a victim to the disease and had to return home so they secured another and now all are over the siege.

Michie Delayed.—The dredge Michie has been delayed another week by the repairs to her propeller, according to report brought by Capt. Mackenn. Captain Mackenn told the U. S. Engineers at Portland in advance that the Michie would need a new propeller, but they did not heed his advice and did not order it until after she was put on drydock and hence there has been about two weeks more delay than would have been necessary had they heeded his advice.

Return Here.—Arthur K. Peck and I. R. Tower returned yesterday afternoon from their trip up Rogue River and through the Eden Ridge country from Curry county. They were surprised when they learned about the alarm that had been caused here by the report of a double drowning in Rogue River and the possibility of them being the victims. They made the long hike without mishap and had a fine time.

New Manager Here.—C. W. Cumber and wife arrived here Saturday on the Nann Smith from Santa Rosa, Calif., to make their home. Mr. Cumber being appointed manager of the Standard Oil Company here to succeed C. W. Montgomery, who has been promoted to the Eureka agency. J. P. Cruden, district sales manager for the Standard Oil Company, also came up on the Nann and checked out Mr. Montgomery and checked in his successor and left today via Allegany. before proceeding to his new duties at Eureka. His departure will be greatly regretted by the many friends he has made here by his successful business management and social activities. Mrs. Montgomery and son, Jay, will leave tomorrow for San Francisco, where they will visit relatives until he gets their new home at Eureka in readiness for them.

Not H. Holverstott.—H. Holverstott of Coquille, in a letter to The Times, says that he did not bring a report to Marshfield that J. J. Burns had been taken from Fairview to Coquille on an insanity charge. He says that he is road supervisor in road district No. 11 and that Mr. Burns had been working for him there. It seems that in the original item, the initial of the above Mr. Holverstott was given in place of the proper initial of another Mr. Holverstott of Fairview. The Times reporter did not personally see Mr. Holverstott but was given the information about it by a person whom the Mr. Holverstott from Fairview had just talked to. However, the important features of the item were correct and as was later printed in The Times, the agreeable feature was that Burns was found not to be suffering from insanity but merely from a nervous breakdown and he is now getting along nicely, much to the gratification of the many friends of the family. Mr. Burns and family, who formerly lived on the Bay, moved to Myrtle Point some time ago and over a year ago moved from there to Fairview.
