One Arrest.—Deputy Game Warden Thomas has returned from a trip to the Upper Coquille. He killed a big panther at Johnson Mountain, and chased four fellows who had been killing deer as far as Camas, where he lost them. Ed Roberts of Myrtle Point, was arrested for fishing without a license.

RUNAWAY ON STREET TODAY

That was when a horse belonging to David Mussen ran away and almost collided with W. A. Reid's auto in which Mr. and Mrs. Reid and the children were riding. The runaway started in a strange way. The team had been unhitched and their bridles taken off at the barn on South Fourth street. As they started for the barn, the trace of one horse caught in the singletree, frightening him. HARDY SAVES OIL FAMINE

Capt. Michelson's Timely Arrival With Oil Boon to Autoists Today

The steamer Hardy arrived in early today after one of the hardest trips that she has had from San Francisco. She was out seventy-two hours, bucking adverse seas and head wind and packing her way through dense banks of fog. Capt. Michelson, considering the adverse conditions, made good time and his advent this morning was more than welcome, for he saved Coos Bay from a gasoline famine which threatened to interfere sadly with the Fourth of July plans of autoists. The local supply was practically exhausted. Capt. Michelson had the largest shipment of gasoline ever brought in at one time, having over 650 drums of gasoline aboard for the Union Oil Company and the Standard Oil Company.

A man who uses a Times Want Ad once, needs no further argument.

AMERICA WON IN BOAT RACE

Harvard and Boston Crews to Race for British Trophy Tomorrow

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] HENLEY ON THAMES, July 3.—The coveted grand challenge cup comes to the United States. The two American eight-oar crews, the Union Boat Club of Boston and the Harvard University second crew, were left to fight tomorrow for its possession by victories today in the semi-finals over Mayence and Winnipeg, respectively. Both were most exciting races and rowed in almost record time and won only after a hard struggle near the finishing line in each instance. The race between Harvard and Winnipeg resulted in the best time recorded in this year's regatta, seven minutes flat. Boston immediately afterward equalled this time.

The grand challenge cup has never before been won by an American crew and in the many years it has been raced for it has left England only four times, the Royal Nautical Club of Belgium winning it three times and the Sydney Rowing Club of New South Wales once.

Giuseppe Sinigaglia of Italy beat Robert Dipple of Toronto, the American amateur sculler champion, in the second semi-final of the elimination sculls. He won by five lengths. Dipple collapsed and fell out of his boat at the end but was rescued.
