P. E. LARSON and family, of Allegany, came down this morning to take in the celebration.

JOHN HERRON came over from Bandon yesterday to take in the boxing bouts at North Bend last evening.

A. H. POWERS leaves on the Breakwater for Portland on business and expects to return here next Wednesday.

MRS. McDONALD came over from Coquille this morning to visit her daughter, Miss Elma McDonald of The Chandler.

REV. SAMUEL GREGG will leave Monday for Turner, where he will attend the state assembly of the Christian Church.

NELS OSMUNDSON and wife and baby are spending the Fourth at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Moehler, in Marshfield.

JAS. BOONE, who is now running an engine on the Smith-Powers line, beyond Myrtle Point, came here yesterday to spend the Fourth.

M. H. HERSEY and daughter, Cathmorning to attend the celebration, came over from Coquille this morning to attend the celebration.

JAMES WATSON came over from Coquille this morning to take in the Fourth of July celebration here. He attended the first day of the Myrtle Point celebration yesterday and states that they had a good program, some good racing and a large attendance.

THEY SAY ON THE FOURTH

COQUILLE—"Just as dry as any other day."

MARSHFIELD—"I don't care if I do—make it the same."

IN THE CITY JAIL—"And they call this liberty!"

RESTAURANT WAITER—"Darn them old patriots. Who is to pay for this extra work?"

COOS BAY BAND—"We go toot! toot! while the rest of you only go on a toot!"

PEANUT MAN—"Bless liberty, and who wants the next bag?"

MRYTLE POINT—"In the race for glory, don't forget the horse race."

BANDON—"Fireworks on the Fourth may be all right, but the way fire works on other days is not to our liking."

BLUE RIDGE TIGERS—"This is the day from the woods we're free and we don't care who knows it—Hully Gee!"

THE BARTENDER—"Red liquor, a blue tie and a white hat for the Fourth of July."

CELEBRATION COMMITTEE—"We are glad it will soon be over."

HOTELS ARE OVERCROWDED

Hundreds Turned Away Owing to the Congested Condition—Find Rooms Elsewhere

Hundreds of visitors to the city have been turned away from the hotels owing to the congested condition. Hotel clerks have accommodated many by placing cots in hallways and even in the offices.

Over a hundred were turned away from The Chandler yesterday and as many more the day before. Clerks at the Lloyd, Blanco and St. Lawrence say they have turned away from 100 to 200 people in the last two days.

One man applied to the clerk at the St. Lawrence last night and when told that every room and bed in the place was taken he insisted that he be allowed to sleep on the floor. The clerk placed some bed clothing on the floor of the bath room and he slept on that.

At the Lloyd cots were placed in all hallways and several men slept in the office all night. The influx of visitors continues and the problem is becoming more vexing.

HENRY MILLER IS ALMOST 100

Man Who Has Lived in Oregon Over 50 Years Enjoys Celebration

Henry Miller, of Miller Slough, has the distinguished honor of living over 99 years and six months. He will be 100 years old on January 15. Mr. Miller has lived in Oregon for more than 50 years.

Mr. Miller for a number of years was a prospector in the gold fields of California. He was successful in that undertaking and in later years he entered into other lines of business at different points in Oregon.

Mr. Miller was in the city today enjoying the Fourth of July celebration. He was introduced to a number of people by Henry Sengstacken, who has known Mr. Miller for some time.

CARRANZA MONEY NO GOOD

General Villa Won't Allow Circulation in His Territory

EL PASO, Tex., July 4.—Further evidence of the completeness of the Carranza-Villa split was found in an injunction on file in the State District Court here today which prevented entry into Villa territory of 400,000 pesos in Constitutional currency recently printed by an American company.

SEE RACES ON FRONT STREET

Pillow Fight, Pie-eating Contest and Other Events Figure—Prizes Awarded

Everybody had a chance to enjoy himself on Front street yesterday afternoon. One event followed another in rapid succession. There were no dull moments.

The first event was a 100-yard dash, free for all. Sidney Clarke won and Horace Bibby finished second. Others entered in that contest were J. Emery, C. J. Thornton, G. D. Burns, Joe Barber, Henry Demers, M. Loxo, R. Kruger and P. D. Swan.

The second race was for girls under twelve years of age and the distance was 75 yards. Miss Frances Hein, of Ferndale, won, with Miss Stella Christenson of Ferndale a close second.

That event was followed by a 75-yard dash for boys under twelve years of age. It was run in two heats and the first and second boy in each heat were matched for the final race.

Several contestants were eliminated until Allen and Kruger were left and Allen proved to be the stiffer.

The most laughable contest was the Russian buck fight. That event was won by Harry Allen, who received a prize of $6. Robert Kruger, the next best man, was awarded a prize of $4.

The pie-eating contest, the last event on the program, brought out eight contestants. They were seated in a wagon and each provided with a raspberry pie.

Warren Vineyard, of Eastside, won the contest. He ate a whole pie in less than four minutes. Billy Rohrer was a close second.

There was to be a fat men's race but it was called off when entries made themselves conspicuous by their absence. There were a number of fat men in the crowd, however, but they were too bashful to enter.

All events were in charge of Arthur McKeown. He deserves a good deal of credit for arranging such a delightful program and for handling the contestants in an orderly manner.

ALONG the WATERFRONT

The tug Roscoe returned yesterday from Florence, where it towed the Hugh Hogan into port and is taking up the barge Lawrence which is laden with Libby coal for the railroad work.
