WILL WED SOON

Friends of Miss May Magee, the charming and accomplished daughter of Capt. and Mrs. James Magee of Empire, and J. J. Dwy, chief engineer on the U. S. dredge Michie, have been apprised that their marriage will take place at an early date. The wedding will probably be solemnized at St. Monica's Catholic Church in Marshfield. Mr. Daly, during his residence on the Bay, has won many friends who will congratulate him on the great victory he has won in Cupid's realm. They will reside at Empire.

QUIET WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Mamie Mahoney and Mr. Mair Dano was quietly solemnized at the St. Monica Parochial residence last Saturday evening. The Rev. Father A. R. Muro officiating. The nuptials came as a surprise to the young couple's friends, who expected it early in July. Immediately afterward they went to Empire and Sunday returned to the home at Nob Hill which Mr. Dano prepared for his bride. Mrs. Dano is one of Marshfield's best known and most highly respected young women. For several years she was cashier of the Coos Bay Water Company. Mr. Dano is connected with the Flanagan & Bennett bank. A large circle of friends will wish them all the happiness and success that time can bring.

WED SUNDAY

The marriage of James Ferrey, Jr., and Flora Hartman was solemnized Sunday evening at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. J. L. Ferrey, Sr., on First street, North, Judge John F. Hall officiating.
