Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.
The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on the bar subtract two hours 34 minutes.

BORN

DAY—To Dr. and Mrs. Loring Leele Day at their home in Monrovia, California, Saturday, July 4, a seven-pound girl. Mrs. Day will be remembered here as Miss Nellie Tower. The telegram from Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Tower to J. B. Tower announcing the arrival of their first grandchild, indicates that it was truly a "grand and glorious Fourth" for them.

RUSSELL—To Mr. and Mrs. T. C.
Russell, of Beaver Hill, at Mercy Hospital, Saturday, July 4, a daughter. She is their first child and mother and daughter are doing nicely, and Supt. Russell is prouder than if he had converted Beaver Hill into a second Kimberly diamond mine.

BOSCO—To Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bosco at their home at Beaver Hill Sunday, July 5, a daughter.

LUDWIG—To Mr. and Mrs. James Ludwig at their home in Bunker Hill Monday, July 6, a son. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Meet Wednesday—The Jolly Dozen will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. R. F. Bush at her home in Bunker Hill.

New Folders Out—The North Pacific Steamship Company has issued a new folder showing the Geo. W.
Elder's Coos Bay schedule.

Recovers Fur—Mrs. Otto Schetter lost a fur neck scarf Saturday and on telephoning to the Times office it was here. The fur was found by J. H. Stewart, a postcard photographer, who brought it to the Times office.

Recovers Purse—Saturday Frederick Schetter picked up a silver purse containing considerable money near the merry-go-round. He and his mother brought it to the Times office and the owner was located, through her name being engraved on the inside of the purse. She was Miss Edna Hansen.

Council Tonight—The Marshfield City Council will meet this evening to take up various matters, among which will be the opening of bids on the South Broadway hard paving. It is expected that there will be a clash between the bitulthic and bituminous rock companies over this, the property owners also taking it up.

Left Property—Coroner Wilson found that H. C. McInnis, who died at his rooms in the Blanco Hotel the other night had some money on deposit in a Myrtle Point bank and also had some property at Richmond, California. H. N. Allen, a friend, has been appointed administrator. So far, Coroner Wilson has been unable to locate McInnis' family.

Grindrod Denies—T. H. Grindrod, who has been in a series of mixups in Justice Court the past ten days, today made a vigorous denial of the information against him given to Justice Pennock. He says that he did not introduce Mrs. Burcham to R. A. Cople as his wife, which was alleged in Mr. Cople's suit to recover money, and also denies that he was on particularly intimate terms with the Burcham family.

Lost Money—J. H. Stewart, a postcard photographer from Virginia, who arrived here last week is about the only unlucky man of the celebration. He lost two purses containing $55 in gold Friday night. He thinks that someone picked his pockets, as he had them in separate pockets. While searching for them, thinking that possibly he had dropped the purses near the bowery, he found a lady's fur which he brought to the Times office. So far he has been unable to find any trace of his money.

Father Dead—J. B. Sneddon has received a telegram from D. J.
Rees stating that his father died at Roslyn, Washington, Saturday. Mr.
Rees was run over by a train while en route to the hospital to his daughter, who had just undergone an operation. News of the accident was kept from the daughter, as she was in a rather critical condition and she was unaware of it Saturday although her father passed away in the same hospital where she is being cared for. After the accident she kept asking for her father and wondering why he did not come to see her, making the case very pathetic.

her mother, Mrs. C. T. Smith, on Keftuck Inlet.

CARL ALBRECHT and family came in Friday from their ranch beyond Myrtle Point for a few days. They will return there tomorrow. Mr.
Albrecht says that one would scarcely believe that there is such a marked difference between the climate here and that vicinity.

R. STUBBS and Mr. and Mrs. L. L.
Lewis, of Roseburg, arrived on the Alert this morning. They made the trip by automobile from Roseburg over the Drain route to Loon Lake. After spending a day or two in this city they will go to Bandon and from there to Myrtle Point and then on to Roseburg.

ALONG the WATERFRONT
The steamer Yellowstone arrived from San Francisco Saturday afternoon with a big cargo of freight.
She brought in a big consignment of plumbing goods for the Conway apartment.

The Rustler and Roamer are due today with a cargo of freight from Siuslaw points.

The Parala arrived Friday afternoon from Portland and sailed Saturday for San Francisco.

The Iohnada, a fishing boat from San Francisco, arrived here yesterday and will fish on the banks off this coast for awhile.

The Mary Olson took on a cargo of lumber here from Porter Brothers' mill at Florence which was brought down on the barge Lawrence.

RIVER NEWS

Wm. Garrett, foreman of Smith-Powers Camp I, on South Coos River, is expected to return in about a week or ten days from a visit at his old home in Wisconsin.

Foy Cox returned to Camp One yesterday after spending the Fourth at Marshfield. He is planning to visit at his old home in Illinois in September.

E. Don McCrary is erecting a new house on the ranch of his father-in-law, Mr. Jutstrom, and will occupy it soon.

W. G. Chandler spent Sunday at the W. S. Chandler summer home, which is being prepared for occupancy by Mr. and Mrs. Chandler on their return here July 15. W. G.
Chandler is also preparing plans for the C. R. Peck summer home.

A. T. Haines and family have rented the South Coos River summer home of Dr. and Mrs. Ira B.
Bartle and will occupy it soon.

Mrs. E. George Smith and baby returned to their home near the Goodwill place after spending the Fourth at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCann, in North Bend. Capt. Smith is arranging to build a new bungalow there.

Christopher Danielson and bride left yesterday to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Morgan on Daniels Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Matson and son, Julius, and Mr. and Mrs.
E. S. Bargelt, spent Sunday at the Matson summer home on South Coos River.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Peck and daughter, and A. K. Peck and Mr.
Weish, spent Sunday on South Coos River. J. M. Wright today started the construction of a new summer home for the Peck family on the tract adjoining the W. S. Chandler summer home, which Mr. Peck recently bought from F. A. Golden.

George F. Murch and family spent Sunday at his South Coos River home. Mr. Murch has about ten acres of fine Gravenstein apples, the former Beale orchard, and has visions of big returns from it this year.

Major and Mrs. Morton Tower returned to their summer home on South Coos River yesterday after enjoying the Fourth of July celebration. Their granddaughter, Miss Gwynedde Tower, remained for a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tower.

Mrs. C. G. Hockett, of Empire, and her guests, Miss Hockett and Miss Booth, of Eugene, are planning to spend part of the week with Major and Mrs. Morton Tower on South Coos River.

E. L. Dexter is getting the brickyard near the mouth of Daniels Creek in operation again and says that he will turn out the finest brick there this season that have ever been produced in Coos County.
He recently built a fine new home near there.

Mrs. W. C. Bradley and Mrs. D.
E. Maloney, and little daughter, of Marshfield, are the first of the summer colony to take quarters at the Goodwill place. They arrived yesterday, Messrs. Bradley and Maloney coming up with them.

J. J. Morrow, of Marshfield, spent Sunday at The Hatchery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McIntyre and son, and the latter's friend, R. Lewis, and the Misses Simpson and Messrs.
Guy Warner and Vasey, composed a picnic party spending Sunday near Camp One.
