Convenience and Safeguard
If you have ever stumbled on the dark basement steps, you can realize what a convenience it is to have an Electric Light Switch at the head of the stairs.

When planning your new home or the remodeling of your present home, don't forget the switch on the basement stairs, or the switch to light the second floor lights from the first floor.

Remember to include closet lights, porch lights, baseboard sockets for the flat irons and other appliances.

It's simpler and less expensive to plan these things before the actual work is started.

BASEBALL RACE IN PAST YEARS
Some Interesting Gossip About Big League Pennant Contenders

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
NEW YORK, July 7.—With the major league baseball clubs about to enter upon the second half of their 1914 campaign a comparison with the records of the past two years develops some interesting data regarding the strength and weakness of the teams in the National and American circuits. In the senior organization the New York Giants led their league on July 1st in both 1912 and 1913. Two years ago the McGrawites were making a runaway race of the pennant contest, having won fifty and lost eleven games for an average of .820. Pittsburgh was second with thirty-seven games won and twenty-five lost, giving the Pirates a percentage of .597. Chicago, with 567 was third, having lost twenty-six games and won thirty-four. Cincinnati completed the first division with thirty-five victories and thirty-two defeats, the Reds' percentage being .522. Philadelphia, Brooklyn, St. Louis and Boston followed in the order named, with percentages of .423, .407, .391 and .393, respectively.

Last season's standing showed several marked changes over this order, for while the Giants were showing the way, their lead was of the narrowest margin, for Philadelphia was in second place and Brooklyn followed the Quakers closely. In fact, but 120 points separated the first four teams against approximately 300 in 1912. The New York Club, ultimate winners of the pennant, had a percentage of .635 to Philadelphia's .633. The Giants had won forty games and lost twenty-three, while the Quakers' score stood thirty-eight games won and twenty-two lost. Brooklyn, which held third place in 1912, was but 76 points behind the second place club, having won thirty-four games and lost twenty-seven. Chicago completed the list of first division teams with a percentage of .515. The second half of the league standing was occupied by Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Boston and Cincinnati, with respective percentages of .461, .424, .412 and .379.

In the American League the Philadelphia Athletics were not playing at top speed in 1912 and held second place with the Boston Red Sox, showing the way. Chicago was third and Washington fourth. The race was much closer than that, however, in the National organization, for Boston had but 125 points separating the first and fourth teams, the standing being: Boston, won 46, lost 21, percentage .687; Philadelphia, won 38, lost 25, percentage .602; Chicago, won 38, lost 28, percentage .576; Washington, won 38, lost 30, percentage .559. Cleveland, Detroit, New York and St. Louis formed the rear guard in the order named.

Last season the Athletics held a lead of such proportions that the fans were already beginning to concede the pennant to Connie Mack's players. With forty-eight games won and seventeen lost, the Philadelphia Club showed a percentage of .738 against Cleveland's .600, for forty-two games won and twenty-eight lost. Chicago was again in third place with thirty-nine victories and thirty-two defeats, giving the White Sox .549. Washington, while not going as strong as in 1912, still managed to hold fourth place, thirteen points behind Chicago and five points ahead of Boston, which in one year had dropped from first to fifth place. Detroit, St. Louis and New York brought up the rear, as they did in 1912.

JOHNSON ONLY 36 YEARS OLD AT REST ROOM
Large Number Utilize Quarters Provided for Visitors at Celebration

One of the features of the Fourth of July celebration that scored an unusual success and is winning much praise from every side was the "Rest Room." During the two days over 1200 visitors availed themselves of the Rest Room privileges and scores of babies were cared for there. A large number of Marshfield women donated their services in caring for it and nothing was left undone.

There were a number of humorous incidents in connection with the affair. One young couple brought their year-old baby there early Friday and then left for a good time. The mother visited him a couple of times in the afternoon but in the evening became so entranced with dancing at the pavillion that she evidently forgot about baby. Lew Keyzer had to announce a couple of times about 11 o'clock that "Baby wanted big mamma," and finally she gave up dancing and returned to him. Saturday evening a similar occurrence compelled the ladies to send word around to the various moving picture shows to try and find a child's mother when they wanted to close. Finally another woman recognized the baby as the child of another and took the little one.

The Royal Theater also proved a big feature, it being estimated that over 4000 attended the free performances there Friday. Saturday as many or more than on Friday went there.

Among those registering at the Rest Room were the following:

Black Champion Only Trifle Older Than Jeffries—Other Champions
(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
NEW YORK, July 7.—The fact that Jack Johnson had reached the age of thirty-six years fifty-eight days when he risked his title against Frank Moran in Paris last Saturday, has led to some interesting discussion regarding the ages at which previous heavy-weight champions lost their ring laurels. John L. Sullivan was thirty-four years old when defeated by James J. Corbett in New Orleans in 1892. He held the title for ten years, but Corbett was less fortunate for he retained the championship but five years, being thirty-nine years old when Bob Fitzsimmons won at Carson City in 1897.

Fitzsimmons' tenure of championship was even less, for at the age of thirty-seven he was knocked out by thirty-seven at Coney Island in 1899. Jim Jeffries at Coney Island in 1899, after holding the title for two years and three months. Jeffries, who met and defeated at the hands of Johnson at Reno July 4, 1910, was thirty-five years old when the negro wrested the ring honors from him. He held the championship for eleven years.

"LIVING WAGE" IS PLEA
Joseph Swayne Would See That Teachers Are Well Paid.
(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
ST. PAUL, July 7.—At the first general session of the National Educational Association convention, Provisional Joseph Swayne made a plea for a "living wage" for the teacher and said that the best person for the position should be chosen regardless of sex. He advocated that an old-age pension system be provided by the states.

DEFEAT ALL COMERS.
California Girls Win Tennis Championship from Holders.
(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
WIMBLEDON, England, July 7.—Miss E. Ryan of California and Miss A. M. Morton captured all comers in the ladies' doubles lawn tennis championship from the holders, Mrs. Lacombe and Mrs. Hannan, by a score of 6-1, 6-5.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back is Aching or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 quarts of acid and waste, so we can understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water — you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

For Sale by Brown Drug Company.
