building to be erected for the new consolidated district.

Meet Tonight.—There will be a meeting of Chancel Guild of the Episcopal Church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at Guild Hall.

Silver Tea.—The W. H. M. S. of the M. E. Church will give a Silver Tea at the church hall Friday afternoon, July 10th. Mrs. M. C. Reed, state secretary, will give a lecture on the work of the society.

Asks Divorce.—Mrs. T. H. Grindrod yesterday came to The Times office and announced that she had instituted suit for divorce. Grindrod has been involved in a number of cases recently in Justice Penock's court.

Ship Fish.—The San Francisco fishing boat operating off here is said to have orders from San Francisco for fifty tons of fresh fish per week, including halibut, ling and other deep sea fish, from San Francisco Italians.

Expect Release.—Walter Cappous, who was down from Daniels Creek today, stated that he expected Mrs. Cappous, who is serving a term for threatening to shoot a waiter last winter, would be released at Salem July 21.

See Whaler.—Passengers coming in on the Breakwater yesterday secured the unusual sight of witnessing a whaling vessel load a big whale. The whaler was about four miles off shore and it had secured a monster whale.

Rest Room Contributors.—Among those who contributed generously to the Rest Room and helped make it a success were the Coos Bay Ice & Cold Storage Co., and F. A. Sacchi, whose names were inadvertently omitted from yesterday's report of the work done.

Evidence Taken.—Yesterday before Arthur K. Peck, U. S. Commissioner, a number of local men gave evidence in behalf of Vernon A. Barker, who is to be tried at Eureka on July 20 for violating the "white slave" law. The local men were character witnesses. They were J. W. Bennett, Emmerson Ferry, C. A. Metlin, Wm. Shoupe, Levi Smith and I. R. Tower. L. J. Simpson was to testify, but was out of town.

Recovers Purse.—Through a Times want ad, Mrs. A. Schwartz, of Bay Park, today recovered a purse containing a sum of money. She lost it near the merry-go-round July 4 and it was found by Miss Bess Flanagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan.

with G. M. Anderson, (world's most popular photo player.) The story carries with it an undercurrent of righteousness that is beneficial to the world. A tale of a son who had nothing but riches all of his life, whose great fault was the bright and gay times. He is brought out into the world to make a living for himself and later saves his parents from the poor house. The dramatic situations are great and the undercurrent of comedy running smoothly through the story, makes this attraction one of sustaining interest.

PATHE WEEKLY NO. 39. All the latest news in pictures. Our seven-piece orchestra will furnish excellent music tonight.

Children, 5c; adults, 15c.

Tomorrow night, the first installment of "Perils of Pauline" in three reels. Admitted by everyone to be the greatest story ever produced in a serial photoplay.
