RECALL IN CURRY

County Judge Wood Attacked on Several Scores

The Port Orford Tribune says: The recall petitions against County Judge J. A. Wood were filed last Wednesday evening with the County Clerk, and the election will take place within the next twenty days. The petitions carried 197 names, 142 of which it is said were legal signers—ten more than the required number. The petitions allege:

1. That he has advocated and voted for the expenditure of, and has spent large sums of money belonging to said county, in ways unauthorized by law and of no benefit to the people.
2. That he has disregarded the rights of petition of taxpayers for the appointment of officers whom the County Court are authorized to appoint.
3. That he has failed and neglected to conduct the county business on business principles to the great loss of the tax payers.

RAFT OVER BAR

Preparation is being made to take a raft of pills, which is being brought down from above Scottsburg, to the Sluslaw. This will be the first raft that has ever been attempted to be taken across the bar from the Umpqua to any point. Should this be successful, a great deal of pilling will be taken out and towed to points where they may be needed in construction work on the Willamette Pacific Railroad.—Umpqua Courier.

CAPT. SWING WINS

Judge Harris Overrules His Conviction at Florence

The Florence Pilot says: On a review in the Circuit Court of the case of the State of Oregon versus John Swing, Judge Harris has ruled that the Justice of the Peace of this precinct had no jurisdiction of the case.

Swing is captain of the schooner Tramp and was arrested and fined $100 last July at Florence for alleged violation of the law governing common carries in liquor shipment.

This ruling sustains the contention of Swing that a Justice of the Peace has no jurisdiction in liquor shipment cases.

CURRY WOOL HIGH.

J. T. Milne, the Crimmins & Pierce wool buyer, was in town since our last issue on his return up the coast. Mr. Milne said that he was misquoted last week that he was offering from 21 to 22 cents for wool. While admitting that he would probably have to pay fully 22c if he bought in Curry this year, yet Mr. Milne said that he had not yet made any direct offer.—Port Orford Tribune.

MAY OPPOSE PEEUCE.

Commissioner George Chenoweth was in town over Monday night on his way to Gold Beach to attend County Court. Mr. Chenoweth is being urged by many to make the race at the November election, for Joint Representative either as a Progressive on non-partisan.—Port Orford Tribune.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of City-by-the-Sea as Told by The Recorder

L. F. Engle, who has been traveling for the American Woolen Mills of San Francisco, and who has been making Bandon regularly twice a year, arrived here and has made arrangements to open up a branch store in this city. The new store will be located on Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Johnston are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine 10-pound baby girl at their home in West Bandon Friday evening, July 3.

Weber & Mott, two of Bandon's enterprising business men, have purchased a machine and are now engaged in the manufacture of concrete blocks from beach gravel.

Miss Elsie Kinley, who has been attending school at the University of Washington, at Seattle, for the past year, has returned home for her summer vacation.

Miss Lottie Carey, who is taking a nurse's training course in the Fabiola Hospital, at Oakland, California, will spend a couple of weeks visiting with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stearns, R. D. Bridges and Miss Powell, of Oakland, Oregon, drove over the mountains in a Buick "Six" and celebrated at Myrtle Point. They came to Bandon Sunday evening and visited over night at the Dr. Endicott home. Mr. Bridges is a brother of Mrs. Endicott.

Miss Dorothy Gibson, who has been in Berkeley, California, for the past year, returned home last week and expects to remain permanently. She says Oregon's climate is good enough for her and beats Berkeley climate a long ways.

NEWS OF GARDINER.

Events Along the Umpqua as Told by the Courier

The grading for the railroad will be completed in a very short time and then the steam shovel will be moved across the Umpqua and begin operations on the north side of Smith River.

Reed, Jancille & Co., have about finished their Reedsport store room and will open up with a large stock of goods as usually found in a general merchandise store. F. W. Varelmann will be resident manager of the same.

Mrs. F. W. Benson, accompanied by her son, Wallace, arrived in Gardiner on their way up Smith River to visit C. E. Benson and family.

John D. Goss, a leading attorney of Marshfield, and wife, were in Gardiner. During the evening Mr. Goss delivered a very interesting address to the members of the Chamber of Commerce.

J. B. Hutchins, an old timer of Gardiner, was in town this week renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Hutchins came to Gardiner forty years ago and worked in the sawmill at that time, and continued to do so for a number of years before moving away. He notices many changes since he was here last.

Mrs. M. B. Bedolfe will spend the summer at Tunnel 6 with her husband, M. B. Bedolfe, who is located at that point as construction engineer for the S. P. Co. They expect their daughter to join them.

Mrs. F. D. Brown, wife of F. D. Brown, the S. P. engineer, arrived from California, where she has been on an extended visit for some time. Miss Grace Houston, of San Francisco, accompanied Mrs. Brown, and will spend the summer here.

Chamberlain to Furnish Life Saving Apparatus for Rogue River.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 10.—The life-saving service being unable to furnish apparatus for the use of the volunteer life-saving company at the mouth of Rogue River, Oregon, Senator Chamberlain will introduce a bill to establish a station at that point.

SALMON PRICE LOW

The members of Sluslaw Local No. 17 United Fishermen of the Pacific, have leased the salmon cannery at Rose Hill, near Florence, from Mrs. Hurd, and are preparing to operate it during the coming season. Kyle & Sons stated recently that it is doubtful if they will operate their cannery this season as the price of salmon is so low that there is no profit in the canning business under present conditions of the market.—Florence West.

BILL HELPS HOMESTEADERS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 10.—The House passed a bill already passed by the state to authorize the disposition to homestead settlers of surface rights to public lands containing minerals.

the Umpqua L. S. S. for a long time as one of the surfmen, has resigned from the service and will leave for California the first of the month, where he intends to make his future home.

A. R. Peterson, of Salem, who was injured in an auto wreck on the beach some time ago, has made satisfactory arrangements with the auto company for the injuries and damages that he sustained.

FLORENCE STAGE LINE.

A new stage line has been established between Glenada and Gardiner by W. P. Reed and the stage made the first trip over the road last Tuesday. Mr. Reed has taken a contract for carrying the mail between Florence and Gardiner, making three round trips each week and will run the stage in connection with the mail service. The route traveled is by Maple and Fiddle Creeks, following the railroad right-of-way the greater part of the distance from South Slough to Gardiner.—Florence West.

PORT ORFORD CARNIVAL

The meeting of the Commercial Club was well attended, and plans for making the August Agate Carnival bigger and better than ever before were harmoniously carried out. A committee composed of A. J. Marsh, W. T. White, M. T. Wright, A. S. Johnston and J. W. McKenzie were appointed to have general charge of the carnival.—Port Orford Tribune.

BATES TO VISIT HERE

The Roseburg Review says: "B. W. Bates and family and planning to spend their annual vacation in Coos County. They will probably make the trip by automobile, and in the event of good roads will continue their journey to Gold Beach and Langlois. Mr. Bates resided in Curry County when a mere lad, and he is looking forward to visiting the scene of his boyhood days with delight. Mr. Bates and family will leave here on or about August 1, and will be absent from town for about ten days."
