ICE CREAM CONES.

See those little children run—Havin' down the street!
Bet you every single one Buys a cone to eat!

Just this mornin' I ate three!
Now I can't have any 'Cause my mamma says to me,
"Not another penny!"

Each one costs a nickel, too!
Wasn't mamma funny?
What I'm never 'lowed to do Is tease her for money!

Aren't those cones just awful good?
What? You never ate one?
My! I'd treat you if I could!
You really ought to get one!

WHEN the whole blame world seems gone to pot, and business is on the bum, a two-cent grin and a lifted chin helps some, my boy, helps some.

REPORTS ARE CONFLICTING

NORTH PACIFIC STEAMSHIP COMPANY AND SOUTHERN PA-CIFIC BOTH CLAIM HONOR OF FASTEST VOYAGE.

Conflicting reports regarding the arrival of the steamers Elder and Breakwater at the Astoria bar have been received today. Officials of the North Pacific Steamship Company have a telegram from Astoria stating that the Elder crossed the bar fifteen minutes ahead of the Breakwater. The message states the Elder crossed at 7:30 and the Breakwater at 7:45 this morning.

W. F. Miller, superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company, has a telegram from G. W. Roberts, of Astoria, in which he states that the Breakwater crossed the bar at 6:30 this morning. There is a difference of one hour and fifteen minutes in the Breakwater's time when the two telegrams are compared.

The Breakwater left her dock at 12:30 o'clock yesterday and crossed out at 2 o'clock. The Elder left the Smith dock at 1:45 and crossed the bar at 4:45, making a difference of 2 hours and 45 minutes in the time when the boats crossed the bar.

Officials of the North Pacific Steamship Company and the Southern Pacific company said yesterday that the two boats would not race. However, it is generally conceded that Captain Macgenn of the Breakwater and Captain Lofstedt of the Elder, planned to beat each other across the bar.

LOCAL BOATS
ARE INSPECTED

Examined Wah-ta-Waso, the Transit, Tramp and Rustler While Here Yesterday

G. Q. Weldin and J. J. Meany, of Portland, official watercraft inspectors, left this morning for Coquille, where they will inspect the steamers Favorite, Maple, Dora and Charm.

From there they will go to Bandon, where they will inspect the steamer Kihyam and the sea-going barge.

While here yesterday the inspectors inspected the Wah-ta-Waso, Transit, Tramp, Rustler and barge Lawrence. All of the boats were found to be in first class condition. J. A.
Hall, captain of the ferryboat Transit, was fined $10 for not renewing his license.

The inspectors were expected here early yesterday morning but they came overland and did not get here until late in the afternoon.

They conferred with T. A. Barry, collector of customs, while in the city, on matters of official business.

ONLY 13 DEAD
IN SANE FOURTH

Fewer Deaths and Injuries
From Celebration This Year Than Ever Before

CHICAGO, July 10.—Dead 13, injured 243.
This is the casualty list of the sanest Fourth of July celebration in the United States since the use of fireworks became popular. The property loss by fire due directly to powder-filled inventions was but $5500, trivial when compared with the property damage sustained in former years.

There were fewer deaths in the celebrations this year than in any of the sixteen years that records of the toll have been kept, with the exception of 1899, when but three lives were lost. But in that year the number injured was reported at 1074, or three times that of this year. Since 1899 the yearly loss suffered from fireworks has ranged from $60,790 in 1902 to $724,515 in 1909.

As usual fireworks were responsible for the largest number of injuries, 105. Injuries caused by toy pistols, from which tetanus frequently develops, were 58. Forty-one persons were maimed by small cannon, 30 burned by gunpowder, five hurt by torpedoes and four in runaways.

Several of the injured will die, it is believed. Six persons were killed by fireworks, four by gunpowder, two by torpedoes, and one by a revolver.

HOLLISTER TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Democratic Candidate for Congress Feels Sanguine Over Outcome

Frederick Hollister, of North Bend, the democratic nominee for Congress, was in Marshfield today on business. He returned a few days ago with his wife and baby and his brother-in-law, Cashier Bergman of the Florence Bank, and wife, from an auto tour of California and is arranging to immediately start his campaign for the November election. He plans to visit every county in the district and make one of the most active campaigns that has ever been conducted. He will leave in a few days for Medford to attend the Tri-State Good Roads Convention there.

"I will make the campaign on purely business lines, eliminating party lines," said Mr. Hollister today. "I believe that the great natural resources which the Federal Government holds in Oregon entitles the state to more Federal assistance than she has received. For instance Senator Borah of Idaho, has received about $25,000,000 of Federal aid for the irrigation and reclamation projects in that state while Oregon has secured about $17,000,000, although Oregon has several times the natural resources that Idaho has.
Another thing is that the Columbia River has received about $15,000,- 000 of the $17,000,000 allotted to this state.

"I am confident of election if Coos County will give me the proper support. Coos County has about 10,000 votes and if I receive sixty or seventy percent of the vote in this county, I will easily defeat Hawley. I am going after them, too."

ENGINEERS TO
SUMMER CAMP

Messrs. Hoey and Fontaine to Bring Families to Winchester Bay for Summer

EUGENE, Or., July 10.—Tex Mc-Cullon left for the mouth of the Umpqua River where at Winchester Bay he goes to prepare the summer camp for later occupancy by H. P.
Hoey, engineer in charge of the construction of the Willamette Pacific, with his family and W. R. Font-taine, also of the same company, and his family. They expect to leave in a few days for this summer camp. Winchester Bay is situated but a short distance from the open ocean and back in a cove as it is, protected from the coast winds and the breakers, the place offers an excellent spot for camping out.
High hills, wooded and with plenty of springs, rise straight up from the water's edge. Directly across the river is the life-saving station of the Umpqua. Winchester Bay is about seven miles down stream from Gardiner and is in daily communication by boat with that town.

BOOTLEGGING
CHARGE MADE

JUSTICE PENNOCK REFERS GUS-TOFSON'S CASE TO DISTRICT ATTORNEY LILJEQVIST-FER-DALE MAN ACCUSED.

Complaint has been made to Justice Pennock that H. Gustofson, who was taken into custody for violating his parole by getting drunk, secured the liquor in Ferndale. The report was made by some local saloonmen, who do not want to be blamed for Gustofson's predicament. They informed Justice Pennock and it was borne out by the story told by Gus-tofson to Constable Cox that a Ferndale man sold the booze to a friend of Gustofson's last Sunday. Justice Pennock has referred the matter to District Attorney Liljeqvist and it is expected that an investigation will be made which will result in the prosecution of the Ferndale man for bootlegging.

FOUR PERFORM
ON SURF-BOARD

C. Larson, Lee Byrle, R. Barry and C. Hagquist Do Trick on Shingle

Fascinated by watching the antics of George Kelly and Ted Preble, expert surf-board performers, who took a prominent part in the Fourth of July program, four Marshfield young men tried the stunt last night, using the same surf-board used by Preble and Kelly. They were C. Larson, Lee Byrly, R. Barry and C. Hagquist.

Although it was the first time they had ever tried to ride a surf-board, all four of the young men performed the trick without much difficulty.
At first they tried it one at a time, then two boarded the speeding shingle at one time. They skipped over the water at a fast clip and their performance attracted many people to the waterfront.

The speedboat Pronto was used for pulling the plank and a speed estimated at 18 miles per hour was maintained. Only when the boat would slow down would the riders lose their balance.

Many people have expressed a desire to try the surf-board feat since Preble and Kelly did it on the Fourth.

NORTH BEND NEWS

David Converse and his sister, Mrs. M. Young, of Lents, are visiting friends on South Coos River.

Mrs. Robert McMann, who has been quite ill for a few days, is now improving.

The state W. C. T. U. of Kansas, has given their state president, Mrs.
Lillian M. Mitchner, leave of absence so she may lend a hand to Washington and Oregon, in their "dry campaign." A public luncheon was given her at the Commercial Club rooms in Portland and many called to greet this prominent woman. Mrs. Mitchner will come to Coos Bay some time in August. She is given the credit of putting Kansas dry.

IMPROVEMENTS
TO BE PUSHED

Crawford Point Land Company to Build Wharf at Cooston Townsite

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Crawford Point Land Company held here yesterday, directors were elected and steps were taken to ward the improvement of Cooston townsite, one of the largest holdings of the company.

A. F. Sether was elected president, John Throne, secretary, D. R. Sham-brook, treasurer and O. C. Sether, director. Most of the stockholders and officers are local people, and others live at Bandon. All of the men are enthusiastic about their proposition and intend to rush their plans. A Mr. Kirk will represent the company here.

According to A. F. Sether the company will build a large wharf at Coos-ton at a place where the new channel will be dredged. They also plan to do considerable clearing and make some re-surveys.

Bedillion Is Here.

R. E. L. Bedillion came over from Bandon this morning on the Speedwell and will leave on her for San Francisco, where he expects to close contracts for his next year. He said that he would also look over some other points that were holding out inducements as sites for the woolen mill. He was very reticent about the matter.

J. L. Kronenberg, the Bandon banker and booster, returned from a trip to San Francisco yesterday and told Mr. Bedillion that the business outlook was better.
