PERSONAL MENTION

MISS ELLEN RUDNASS, of this city, left on the morning train for Bandon, where he will attend to a business matter. J. ALBERT MATSON is expected to return tomorrow from The Hook, where he is establishing his family in summer quarters.

MR. AND MRS. W. O. MCKINLAY arrived today from Salem to spend part of the summer visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Willey.

SWAN BENSON, the railroad contractor, returned today from Portland, where he has been visiting his family on the fine ranch he owns about thirty miles out of the Rose City.

HAROLD CHAPMAN left yesterday for McDonald & Vaughan's camp, where he has taken a position in the cookhouse for the balance of his vacation.

GEORGE ROTNOR and son, Harold, and Ralph Kruse enjoyed an auto trip down the coast yesterday. Harold Rotnor left today for a trip to Coquille Valley towns.

ROY MOORE and wife returned today from California, where they have been spending some time for the benefit of Mr. Moore's health, which is much improved.

MRS. BEN SCHUYLER, whose husband was a former well known Coos County ball player and athlete, arrived here today from Portland to visit friends and relatives in this section.

GEORGE SHERIDAN and Fred McCollum of North Bend returned on the Nann Smith today from San Francisco, where Mr. McCollum was called by the death of his brother.

MRS. WICKMAN and daughters of Empire returned today on the Nann Smith from California where they visited at the Andrew Wickman home.

M. C. ANDERSON, who has been cooking in one of the Smith-Powers construction camps south of Myrtle Point, has returned here and taken a position in the Java Coffee House.

IRA HOWE arrived home this morning overland from an extended eastern trip, during which he visited all of the principal points of interest between Portland and New York.

MARVIN HOUGH will leave on the next Nann Smith for San Francisco, where he will spend a couple of weeks. He will accompany his mother, who goes to Los Angeles to join relatives from the East.

W. S. TURPEN and wife, F. M. Parsons and wife and Dr. Houseworth and wife constituted a party who enjoyed an outing at Sunset Bay. They report all the cottages there filled, A. T. Haines, Dr. Toye and Otto Schetter and their families being among the Marshfield people located there.

MRS. CAL WRIGHT, who is in San Francisco, writes Mr. Wright that she is not improving as much as they had hoped for. Their son, Rees, second assistant engineer, is there with her, having taken a month's vacation while his ship, the Nevada, is undergoing an overhauling. Next month he will secure his papers as first assistant engineer.

DAVE RICE of Daniels Creek came down today to have an injury to his foot treated. Recently he foolishly threw a potato at Dave Bunch, who was passing. The latter had a 22-calibre rifle and fired a shot back, thinking to scare him. The bullet struck a barbed wire, glanced and struck Mr. Rice in the foot and may leave a permanent injury.

SHIPPING NEWS

SMALL SCOW CARGO IS LOST

About $80 Worth of Brick and Goods Dumped into Bay Tug Moved It.

A small scow belonging to Rogers & Smith sank alongside the Alliance dock last evening with about $80 worth of brick, sand and lime. The cargo was consigned to J. N. Bayliss, who was to use it in constructing a fireplace in C. R. Peck's new summer home.

REDONDO OFF FOR FRISCO

Sailed This Afternoon With 13 Passengers and Capacity Load of Lumber.

The steamer Redondo sailed from the Smith terminal dock at 2 o'clock this afternoon with thirteen first-class passengers and a capacity cargo of lumber for San Francisco.

Among the passengers sailing on the steamer were:

Mrs. B. Schmidt, Mrs. E. Bandel, J. R. McGee, Samon Bruno, V. Alvary, M. Rolles, G. Garcia, Frank Aftot, G. Manassers, S. Rozzonin, Mike Paulson, Aleck Hodges, Mrs. Ida Millard.

Move to Texas.—R. E. Bedillion of the Bandon Woolen Mills, who left here Saturday for San Francisco, informed friends here that he had practically made up his mind to move his plant to San Antonio, Texas.

From San Antonio he has an offer of a free site and local parties are willing to subscribe for sixty-five per cent of the stock. Over 7,000,000 pounds of wool are produced annually within a short distance of San Antonio. Mr. Bedillion said that he had offers from thirty-seven different towns which were anxious to secure the plant.

CUPID IS ACTIVE. It has often been said that more people get married when times are hard than in times of prosperity. If that is true, than there is no denying that we are having hard times.

To prove our statement, we have only to refer to a list of marriages that have taken place at the home of Rev. A. Thomas, pastor of the local M. E. Church, South, within the last few days. The list follows: Cecil Dugger and Olivia Stout of Coquille; H. O. Saindon and Leona Foote of Bandon; L. L. Cox and Bertia E. McAllister, of Bandon; Dacota A. Wood and Dollie C. Wygant, of Prosper, and Josephus M. Dodge and Clara Belle Waters, of Marshfield.—Coquille Sentinel.

BIG STRIKE ENDED. (By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) Pittsburgh, July 13.—The strike in the Westinghouse factories formally ended today when 6000 men and women returned to the shops.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Sat News as Told by the Sentinel.

The case of the State against O. A. Morrisey for assault and battery on complaint of Arthur Peart, landlord of the Baxter Hotel, was tried before Judge Stanley Monday afternoon, and the defendant fined $10 and costs, which he promptly paid.

The case of J. C. Savage against Lew A. Cates for settlement of partnership accounts pending in district court here is as yet tangled up in a maze of demurrers, rejoinders and replies, and probably will not be tried before October.

Mrs. William Rich, of Washougal, Wash., a former resident of this city, is expected about the 15th inst., for a month's visit with her daughters, Mrs. W. C. Chase and Mrs. A. N. Gould.
