

WIMMER AND HERMAN PAY $5

Wimmer Charged Herman with Insulting Wife—Latter Files a Cross-Complaint.

W. O. Wimmer, who filed a complaint charging Voladmer Herman with insulting his wife, and Herman, who charges Wimmer with assault and battery, were fined $5 each yesterday afternoon when they were brought before Recorder Butler for the second hearing. Several witnesses were heard in the case when it came up the first time, and Recorder Butler decided to continue the case when two witnesses failed to appear.

According to Wimmer, Herman met Mrs. Wimmer at the corner of Broadway and Central avenue and followed her for a block or more, and then persisted in forcing his attentions, although they had never met before. It happened that Wimmer was walking behind Mrs. Wimmer at the time and saw Herman following her.

Wimmer says that when he saw his wife resent the attentions of Herman he ran up to him and knocked him down. Then he led Herman to the police station, where he had him locked up. According to his story he was at the merry-go-round while his wife was looking for him.

According to the story told by Herman, he met Mrs. Wimmer at the merry-go-round. He says that he spoke to her and that she agreed to accompany him up the street and then take a car for North Bend. He said that they were walking together when Wimmer ran up to him and knocked him down and then kicked him.

Others who testified in the case were Ray Kaufman, George Cook, G. W. Tribbey, Officer Doane, Gordon Smith and Mrs. Wimmer. The first three said they saw Wimmer run up to Herman and knock him down and then kick him. They declared they knew nothing of the circumstances leading up to the occurrence.

City Attorney Goss, who heard the case yesterday, said that the penalty imposed on Wimmer would have been more severe had Herman charged him with impersonating an officer.

Assistant City Attorney Murphy heard the case on the first day.

BARKER CASE MAY DWINDLE.

It is rumored that there will be no trial in the Vernon Barker "white slave" case at Eureka, and that the counsel is notifying witnesses that they need not appear. It is understood that a premature adjustment has been made and that the matter will eventually be settled to the satisfaction of the parties concerned.

The complaint alleges that Barker transported Cora Fairbanks from Marshfield to Eureka and from Eureka to Reno, Nev., for immoral purposes. Barker is a well known Coos

NORTH BEND CITY COUNCIL

City Recorder and Wharfinger File Quarterly Reports—Assessments Levied.

At a meeting of the North Bend City Council last night City Recorder Maybee and the city wharfinger filed their quarterly reports. The reports show that the total collections for the second quarter were $54,838.63 and that the total expenditures were $38,680.39. Other reports of minor importance were also read.

The Councilmen levied assessments for the improvement of Sheridan avenue and made allowance for the usual list of bills. Considerable time was taken up in the discussion of improvements to other streets, but no definite action was taken, when it was decided that the city is expending at present an enormously large sum for street improvements.

The question of the quality of paving to be used was discussed at length. Some of the Councilmen favored bitulithic and others concrete. The matter was held over for a week for further investigation.

With two exceptions all of the Councilmen were present last night and a large number of citizens were on hand to hear the discussions.

Julius Koch, Oldest Resident of Port Orford, a Suicide—Money to Little Friends.

PORT ORFORD, Or., July 15.—Julius A. H. Koch, a pioneer resident of Curry county who committed suicide the other day by shooting himself, bequeathed all his property to children in Port Orford, with the exception of $100, which he bequeathed to be used in improving the Oregon street road near the city. The amount of his estate is not known, but it is divided up among a dozen or so little folks who won the old man's affection. He was suffering from an incurable malady and this was the cause of his tragic death. He was a native of Prussia and was about ninety years old. He served in the Mexican War under the name of Will Evans and came to Curry county in 1871 on the vessel that brought the material for the Cape Blanco lighthouse.

AVERILL'S NEW STORE TO OPEN.

D. M. Averill, whose store was completely wiped out by the fire, stated that he had obtained a location in the Oakes building across from the First National Bank building and would be open for business in a short while.—Bandon World.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Bears and Berries.—The old rumor that has been afloat every year about the time that the wild blackberries and raspberries are ripe that a bear and panther were seen in the West Marshfield woods, has been revived. There is a general suspicion that the rumor is started by parties who figure that it is a "fine scarecrow" to protect some of the best berry patches from other people.

HARRY NASBURG and wife and children left on the Nann Smith today for San Francisco and Oakland, where they will spend a few weeks with Mrs. Nasburg's relatives.

MRS. PETER SCOTT, SR., returned

Monday from a visit with her son, Peter Scott, Jr., at Seattle. He is captain of a big dredge there and is getting along fine. They will move the dredge to Astoria

MRS. L. G. MASTERS, of Sumner, came in this morning in company with Mrs. O. A. Richards, of Eureka, who has been visiting at the Masters home for several days. Mrs. Richards will leave for her home in a day or so.

A. E. SEAMAN and son, Wesley, returned last evening via Allegany from their motorcycle trip to Portland and vicinity. Mr. Seaman says that the roads through the valley where they have been oiled are in fine shape.

MRS. GUY WARNER and daughter, who will return tomorrow from a visit in Oakland, are planning to spend a few weeks at the Tyberg place at Golden Falls, and Mr. Warner will probably join them there for his vacation.

A. SANDERS, postmaster at South

Inlet, came to Marshfield today with his wife, who will take treatment at the Turkish baths here for a severe attack of rheumatism. Mr. Sanders says that he thinks that the report about parties killing deer on South Inlet was erroneous.

C. R. BROUGHTON, the engineer in charge of the Southern Pacific bridge work, was here from North Bend yesterday to confer with Supt. Miller and Engineer Wheeler. Mr. Broughton will have the work of the Umpqua and Stuslaw bridges started soon.

HARVEY WELLS, of Portland, arrived here last evening via Myrtle Point to look after insurance matters in this section. He said that the stage was rather hard traveling, but he arrived without suffering a mishap. He met Senator Booth at Camas Valley outward bound after having made a canvass through the Coquille Valley and Curry county.
