BIRTHDAY PARTY.
Miss Marjorie Graham entertained with a delightful little birthday party on Thursday which day marked the anniversary of her birth. After a jolly afternoon of games and dancing, Mrs. Graham, assisted by Mrs. Thos. Hawkey, served delicious refreshments. Later the guests and hostess attended the "movies" and enjoyed a pleasant evening together. Those present were: Ruth Cowan, Ruth Dunham, Wilda Harris, Florence Powers, Bertha Davis, Gertrude Robinson, Roxie Hall, Dagmar Flesher, Mildred Story and Marjorie Graham.

PORTLAND PARTY.
One of the smartest dancing parties of the season was given last night at the Waverly Country Club by Wirt Minor in honor of Miss Ruth Teal, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal, who is home from Miss Spence's school in New York for the summer. Mr. Minor is a lifetime friend of the Teals and has been identified in business with Mr. Teal for many years. Miss Eda Stephens' artistic ability was displayed in the decorations, which were charming and elicited much admiration. The lounge room, with its mulberry hangings, was adorned with quantities of wild flowers in mulberry and lavender shades, arranged in baskets and standards and extending in great bunches above the fireplace and over the windows. Brilliant red and deep pink gladioli were used in the hall and in the dining-room, and baskets of varicolored sweet peas entered the small tables at which supper was served. Miss Teal presented a pretty picture in her dainty dancing frock of white tulle and lace. At the corage she wore a cluster of lavender orchids and carried a nosegay of old-fashioned flowers. Mrs. Teal wore a handsome Parisian creation of black tulle and net and Mrs. Herbert Nichols, Mr. Minor's niece, who assisted in receiving, was attired in a beautiful gown of white embroidered crepe. She carried an arm bouquet of red Richmond roses. Streeter Flynn, of New Haven, Conn., and Thomas Bennett, of Marshfield, who are guests at the Teal home, were also in the receiving line. About 150 guests enjoyed Mr. Minor's hospitality. A number of dinner parties at the club preceded the dance. Miss Louise Burns presided at one of eighteen covers. Her guests of honor were Miss Beatrice Nickel, of San Francisco, who is the house guest of Miss Evelyn Carey, and Miss Harriett Pomeroy, of San Francisco, who is visiting her sister Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke. Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Orlando Downing, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Nichols and several others had tables for eight.—Portland Telegram.

SILVER TEA.
The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. H. J. Mohr, on Second and Curtis, last Wednesday. The hostesses acting with Mrs. Mohr were Mrs. D. A. Jones, Mrs. F. M. Flye, and Mrs. A. L. Butz. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and roses. Dainty refreshments were greatly enjoyed by those present, among whom were Mesdames I. S. Smith, W. F. Squire, Robert Moore, J. Wright Wilson, H. R. Hyde, Eva Gammill, C. H. Walters, A. E. Diment and M. A. Sweetman. Among the visitors present were Mrs. Ross Smith, Miss Smith and Mrs. M. C. Chapman. A short business session was held and arrangements made to hold a cooked food sale on July 25.

COOS RIVER DANCE.
There will be a dance this evening at Les. Smith's barn on Coos River and a number of Marshfield people are planning to attend.

PICNIC PARTY.
The members and friends of Class No. 4 of the Baptist Church enjoyed a picnic Wednesday to Allegany. The merry crowd of young people chartered the Alice H.
