

The Most Liberal Credit for The Newlyweds

This is the Home Furnishings Store that promises an efficient and trustworthy credit service and fulfills the promise—it lends assistance when and where it is most needed. It has a personal human touch that young married couples want—it helps them to provide for future happiness by lending them help today, and it asks no more from the customer than the customer feels he can easily afford to pay—weekly or monthly, as he chooses. Young people ambitious to own a furnished home need hesitate no longer for lack of ready money, because we will furnish it for them just as they say on the easiest kind of payments.

BORN.

WILSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Otis Wilson, at their home in Ferndale, Saturday, July 18, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely and Mr. Wilson, who is in charge of the Red Cross jewelry department, is about the happiest ever.

To Curry County—W. U. Douglas, C. F. McKnight and Duncan Douglas left today for Curry County, where they will fish and hunt for a while.

Goes to Portland—Owing to Father McDevitt's absence in Portland, there will be but one mass in Marshfield tomorrow and one in North Bend. Father Munro will officiate at North Bend at low mass at 8 and in Marshfield at high mass at 10.

To Hold Services—Rev. G. H. Wilkins, who arrived here today, will conduct services at the Marshfield Presbyterian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, preaching on "The Shepherd and the Sheep."

To Give Social—The local organization of the Brotherhood of America, of which John Brockmuller is president and George Gettings secretary, is planning a social evening and card party for next Friday evening to which the members and their friends have been invited.

Fishing Trip—John Ferguson, Walter Butler, Dell Bengtson, Victor Johnson, L. L. Thomas and Harry Huggins will leave tomorrow morning by auto for the Wagner ranch above Myrtle Point to enjoy a day's fishing.

Open Street—The C. A. Smith Co. has moved the small building occupied by its retail office to South Broadway, opposite the postoffice, near where their retail yards are now located. They will now open Anderson avenue through to Front street, planking it from Broadway east.

Stock Is Damaged—About $1000 worth of stock was damaged this morning when the first floor of the veneer stock room of the box factory at North Bend fell through. The cause of the accident is not known. The accident happened about 9:30 o'clock. No one was hurt.

Motorcycle Accident—A report has reached this city that Mrs. Earl Ralston, a former resident, was seriously injured in a motorcycle accident in Portland recently. It is understood that the young man who was operating the machine at the time was killed. The report has not been confirmed.

Move Tomorrow—Manager F. G. Horton of the Allen & Lewis company will move his wholesale house and offices from the warehouse on Central avenue into the former Alliance warehouse on Broadway tomorrow. The front of the warehouse will be changed and improved and fitted up as fine offices. The new quarters will afford much needed room to take care of the growth of the business.

Begins Suit—Mrs. Fannie O'Donnell has begun suit to eject Robert Marsden, Sr., from some property in Bunker Hill, which Mr. Marsden bought from her. The deal was a verbal one and she claims that he is not living up to the agreement. Mr. Marsden had started to build a house there.

Much Sickness—W. A. Reid's family is having more than its share of the epidemics which have been going the rounds. Their children had the whooping cough and then the measles and this morning their little son Warren broke out with scarletina. Mrs. Reid and the children went to the C. A. Schilbrede home in Plat B, where it would be easier to care for them and keep the children from exposing other children.

Firemen Practice—A picked team from the Marshfield Fire Department, which will be entered in the hub and water race with the North Bend Fire Department on Moose Day, August 4, was out for practice last night. The boys took a hose cart to the corner of Third and Commer-
