Opens Headquarters.—Chairman J. M. Wright of the Moose Day celebration has established headquarters in Room 21, First National Bank building, and will direct the committee work from now on, devoting practically all of his time to it.

For Rest Room.—Mrs. M. A. Sweetman, Mrs. McCarty, Dr. Straw and other leaders in the Women's Rest Room movement have been endeavoring to secure suitable quarters so that a permanent rest room can be opened here.

Finds Keys.—Through a Times want ad, Wm. Grimes today recovered his key ring. Sunday he left it sticking in the lock of his auto trunk and it dropped out on North Front street. Carl Evertsen found it and turned it over to The Times. Mr. Grimes advertised for it yesterday.

Try Surfboard.—Saturday evening Misses Madge Barry, Frances Williams and Grace Williams demonstrated that they could ride the surfboard as well as the boys. All are excellent swimmers and their feats attracted a large number.

Repair Alert.—The steamer Alert, which plies between Marshfield and Allegany, is undergoing repairs to her boiler and will be out of commission for about three days. The Alert has been replaced by the Milloma. Two expert mechanics are engaged in making repairs to the Alert and Captain Edwards says she will be in fine shape when on the run again.

Leave Today.—Hugh McLain, Vernon A. Smith and J. R. Riehl were outgoing passengers on this morning's Marshfield-Roseburg auto line, going to Portland. Mr. McLain also expects to attend the Medford Good Roads Convention July 27 and 28.

No One Found.—The police have found no clue that would lead to the arrest of the party or parties who robbed the G. C. Schroeder residence Sunday or who entered the home of Frank Pugsley yesterday morning. Mrs. Schroeder found a missing box yesterday afternoon containing some insurance policies and deeds to property in Idaho, but aside from that none of the diamonds or jewelry has been recovered.

Asleep on Wharf.—Mike Kelly, arrested last night by Officer Doane, who found him asleep on the wharf, was released without being fined when brought before Recorder Butler this morning for a hearing. Kelly said that he had engaged transportation to Portland on the steamer Breakwater and that he was awaiting the next trip out. He told the Recorder that the wharf was the softest bed he had found in a long time. Kelly had $1.80 in loose change when the officer found him.

To Have Rest Room.—The Moose Lodge has made arrangements to reopen the public rest room which proved such a good feature during the Fourth of July celebration during their celebration next month. Dr. Straw is chairman of the committee in charge and Mrs. M. A. Sweetman has been employed to take charge of the arrangements and supervision. It is planned to have a flower show at the rest room and other attractive features and the committee is extending a cordial invitation to all who are interested to visit the rooms and if any wish to assist the committee they will be glad of their services.

After Marriage License.—Justice of the Peace Penock left this afternoon for Coquille, where he will get a marriage license for Robert Holland. The bride to be is Miss Florence Farley, daughter of John Farley, who conducts a cigar store on Front street near the Flanagan & Bennett bank. Holland is captain of the Mable H., one of the C. A. Smith mill boats. He has been in the employ of C. A. Smith for over a year. Both he and Miss Farley are well known. It is understood that the marriage ceremony will be performed tonight or tomorrow night by Justice Penock.

Henry King Fined.—Henry King, arrested yesterday by Marshal Carter, who found him on the streets in a drunken condition, was fined $5 when brought before Recorder Butler in the afternoon. Marshal Carter said that he found King early in the morning and advised him to go indoors until he sobered up. Ten minutes later, he said, King was on the street again and taking up a good deal more of the sidewalk than necessary. This is the third time King has been up on a charge of drunkenness.

Ride Surf Board.—Miss Madge Barry and Miss Frances Williams attracted a crowd to the waterfront for the second time when they rode the speeding surfboard last night. They experienced little difficulty in riding the board and in fact are becoming quite expert at it. They ran up and down the Bay several times yesterday evening and never lost their balance except when the boat to which the board was tied slowed down. Rolfe Barry and C. Larson, who have been practicing the feat for some time for the Moose Day celebration, were also out again last night. They perform the stunt about as well as Ted Preble and George Kelly, the two young men who took part in the water sports during the Fourth of July celebration. Miss Barry and Miss Williams may ride the board on Moose Day.

FIRST VISIT IN 45 YEARS

Pat Dalton Leaves Marshfield for Happy Reunion With Sister in Portland.

John Farrelly, a wealthy rancher of New Zealand, and his brother-in-law, Pat Dalton, an old resident of Eastside, left yesterday for Portland, where Mr. Dalton will visit his sister, whom he has not seen in forty-five years.

Mr. Farrelly and his family came to the United States recently on a tour and on arriving in Portland recalled that Mrs. Farrelly's brother, Pat Dalton, whom they had not heard from for several years, was on Coos Bay when they last heard from him. They had their six daughters along and thought that it was too hard a trip for all of them to make when they were not sure about Mr. Dalton being here, so Mr. Farrelly decided to come alone and try and find Mr. Dalton.

Mr. Dalton before. Mr. Farrelly has over 30,000 sheep on one of his New Zealand ranches and is one of the big ranchers of that country. He said when leaving that he expected to bring Mrs. Farrelly and their six daughters to Coos Bay after a short stay in Portland, but above all he was anxious to have his wife and her brother, Mr. Dalton, meet.
