BORN

NEIME.—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neime, at their home in Ferndale, a son, their second child. Mrs. Neime was formerly Miss Ladd.

Send Out Loggers.—Burt Doremus today sent twelve loggers from here to Gardiner in response to a call for workmen.

Rides Surf Board.—Arlie Johnson is the latest convert to the surf-board sport and Saturday evening demonstrated that he was an adept at it, making the board do a few stunts which even the Fourth of July riders could not do.

Travel Overland.—Mr. Clark, of Roseburg, an old soldier, aged nearly 80, and his daughter arrived here today. They are traveling with a horse and buggy and tent for the benefit of the daughter's health. They will go south from here.

Dredge Channel.—Larson's dredge Oregon is still busy above the Selander ranch on Catching Inlet and is doing good work, according to Capt. Masters. He thinks the channel needs dredging below the Selander place also.

Trouble Over Dog.—Mrs. M. A. McLeod appeared before Justice Pennock and wanted to file a complaint against August Frizen, charging him with poisoning her dog. Justice Pennock referred her to District Attorney Liljeqvist and she sent a lengthy statement. It seems that Mr. Frizen, who formerly lived near the McLeod home, was molested by cats and for us; and we are willing to rest our case in their hands. We have done business together for about seven years, having opened our doors August 10, 1907, and have never had occasion to regret our partnership with the people. Judging from results, we do not think the people have ever regretted the partnership either.

and he said that he had put out some poison for them. Whether the dog belonging to the McLeod's got the poison he says he does not know. No answer has been received from District Attorney Liljeqvist about the matter.

Reported Wed.—It was reported here today that Andrew Masters of Summer and Miss Anderson, recently of Forest Grove, were married at Coquille. Mr. Masters could not be seen today and his brother, Captain Leonard Masters, said that he had not been able to confirm the report although he believed it was correct.

Seek Auto Owners.—The police are today looking for Capt. W. C. Harris, whose auto was standing in the street last night without any lights burning. A car, No. 4925, belonging to Mrs. R. S. Carter of Portland, is also wanted for being turned in the middle of a block in violation of the city ordinances.

Skunk Spoils Milk.—J. C. Jones, who is home from his outing at Ten Mile, brought back the report that the creamery there was compelled to throw away 800 pounds of milk as a result of a small skunk getting drowned in a can of milk brought to the creamery and which was not discovered until the can was dumped into the large vat with the other milk and all was spoiled.

More Complaint.—Mrs. Jud McDaniels appeared before Justice Pennock yesterday and wanted to enter a new complaint against Jud McDaniels for non-support. She did not know that McDaniels had been previously arrested on her complaint. She told Justice Pennock that they had been married a little over a year ago, lived together three months and that he had not contributed a cent towards her support.

Good Auto Trip.—Geo. J. Stearns and son Roy, of Oakland, Or., passed through here today en route from an auto trip through this section. They are traveling in a Studebaker Six. They left Oakland yesterday at 4 o'clock and reached Myrtle Point at 11 o'clock last night. They came over this morning, went to North Bend, shipped their car to Allegany, and will return via Elkton tomorrow. Mr. Stearns is with the E. G. Young Company, and traveled through here years ago on trails.

FLOWER SHOW DATE CHANGED.

Frank Parsons announced today that the date of the Dahlia Show, at the Busy Corner had been changed from Saturday, August 1, to Friday, July 31. He has already received many inquiries concerning it. The exhibition of sweet peas at the Scandinavian will also be held on Friday.
