BORN.
SHERWOOD—To Mr. and Mrs. W. Sherwood, of Coaledo, a daughter.

Build Crossing.—J. G. Horn of North Bend is here supervising the construction of the crossing in the Southern Pacific yards, he having the contract for the work.

Register Votes.—Justice Pennock reports that there has been quite an increase in the number of registrations lately. He says that the liquor men are especially active in getting all their supporters registered, so they will be able to vote against the prohibition amendment this fall.

Sails South.—The Nann Smith will sail Saturday afternoon for San Francisco and San Pedro, taking a special order to the southern port. This will be the first trip she has made to the southern port in a long time, although the Redondo has been running there quite regularly.

Cannery Later.—John Lamure has the Tallant Cannery ready to start operations as soon as the salmon run will warrant it. So far the local market has been taking most of the fish caught. Mr. Lamure will conduct the cannery alone this season. Mr. Tallant not being able to come here.

Hyland Coming Monday.—Secretary Motley has received word that George M. Hyland of the Panama Fair Commission will be here next Monday to take up the matter of a Coos county exhibit at San Francisco. He will go on to Curry county on this trip.

Gets Old Violin.—Ed Busby has secured an old violin which is claimed to be considerably over the century mark. There is nothing on it to show the exact date it was made but it is claimed to be the best toned instrument that has ever been brought to the Bay.

Now in East.—A. J. Savage has received word that his son-in-law, H. L. Coleman, and wife and baby, are now at Mr. Coleman's old home in Chippewa Falls, Wis. Mr. Coleman has been having quite a siege of illness, but is now improving. They expect to return to the coast before long.

Loses Toes.—L. D. Robinson, employed at the North Bend Mill & Lumber Company's plant, got his foot caught in the gearing and had his toes so badly crushed that all had to be amputated with the exception of the little toe. He is about fifty years old and will be laid up for some time.

Moves from Eugene.—Earl and Mrs. Pryor recently arrived from Eugene to make their future home in Marshfield. Mr. Pryor, who is an experienced grocer, has taken a position with the Tozier Grocery Co. Mr. Pryor and Mr. Tozier have been friends for many years, having worked together in the grocery business twelve years ago.

Sues for Libel.—Taggart Aston, who spent some time here a couple of years ago surveying for the electric line project of E. D. Nevers and others, has begun suit against the Hearst papers at San Francisco for $100,000 damages for libel. He claims that Hearst libeled him in connection with a report on the water supply during the Hetch-Hetchy water fight.

Prize Winning Lettuce.—Herman Hillyer thinks he can produce head lettuce that places him among the rancher class with a big "R." He brought down a head last night that measures twenty-one inches in diameter and five feet one inch in circumference. R. H. Corey took it home and is now engaged in a statistical game on the adding machine to see how many lettuce sandwiches it will make.

Laundry Burns.—Edgar Mauzey yesterday received word that his brother-in-law, James Hibbard, had lost his laundry in a fire at Yreka, California. The message simply stated it was a total loss but did not estimate the value or give the insurance. Mr. Mauzey thinks that he had little or no insurance as the rate was high on account of poor fire protection. The loss will be severe, as Mr. Hibbard had practically all his funds tied up in the plant. Mr. Hibbard formerly lived in Marshfield and North Bend and was in the laundry business here. Leonard Mauzey is with him at Yreka.

WED IN MARSHFIELD.

Miss Emma Stevens and Albert G. Hill Married Here.

A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday evening in the parlor of the Hotel Dotson, when Miss Emma A. Stevens of Hoquiam, Wash., and Mr. Albert G. Hill, prominent heating engineer of Marshfield, were united in wedlock.

Only intimate friends of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony. The parlors were daintily decorated with ivy and ferns and sprigs of myrtle. The bride was prettily attired in pink chiffon over white, carrying a beautiful bouquet of pink and white carnations. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. E. Stevens.

After the ceremony, luncheon was served, after which congratulations were extended.

The bride and groom are taking up temporary residence at the Hotel Dotson, prior to establishing a permanent home in Marshfield.

PORTLAND, OREGON

GRAND THEATRE T-O-NIGHT

THE ALL-STAR ORCHESTRA—Composed of Coos Bay's leading musicians—and 6000 feet of the finest motion pictures.

"CONQUERED HATE" — This feature in two parts is produced in natural colors. We are informed by one of the leading reviewers of films in New York that this offering is one of the most beautiful pictures ever made. The gowns worn by the leading lady loom up in all their rich natural colors—stage settings and other surroundings cannot be improved upon.

"DOROTHY DANEBRIDGE, MILITANT" — A Vitagraph comedy that will make you forget your troubles for the evening. Miss Dorothy Kelly is featured.

"PATHE WEEKLY NO. 43" — This number is of interest to Marshfield people as it contains several events that happened in Oregon—the other news is very recent happenings in different parts of the world.

"A TICKET TO HAPPINESS" — A splendid drama showing how decent outdoes itself. It's a western story that will please anyone.

IF IT'S WORTH SHOWING YOU WILL SEE IT AT THE GRAND.
