GOES TO JAIL

to Surrender Him-Has Been III.

George A. Bailey, an old safe expert, mechanic and black sand miner, esterday gave himself up to Sheriff Gage and asked to be taken to the county jail where he could remain until the charges against him could be heard. His act was of his own wish, as Mrs. Jennie M. Stewart had furnished $250 bond for him and did not want to withdraw the bond. Bailey said that he had been sick, could not work and was out of mon-ey and felt it would be better for him to go to jail than to remain a burden on his friends until he recovered his health.

Bailey was accused by Collins and Prather, who are tenants on Stewart ranch at Bangor, of abetting George W. Stewart in an attack on them, Stewart and Bailey were bound over to the grand jury but to Curry county. Mrs. Stewart furnished bonds for Sheriff Gage returned from Cothat be would have to move to Coos Bay as the cases over here were taking up most of his time.
