Be free from CRITICISM.

Mrs. Housekeeper:—

The way to be free from CRITICISM is to have your house so tastefully furnished that your NEIGHBORS' tattling tongues can find nothing to CRITICISE. And you will like to have your friends come to visit, you if your home is well-appointed throughout. A good way to avoid criticism is to go to a store you can depend upon for selling up-to-date furniture. And you want to go to a store where the price is right.

Guests at Shore Acres for a part of this week were: Misses Jeanette Barrett and Esther Imhoff and Messrs. Homer Phillips, I. R. Tower, Ted Kimmam and John Meehan. Last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simpson entertained a large party at dinner. Gathered around the hospitable table were: Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cohan, Mrs. C. Keating, Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Misses Florence Alken, Esther Imhoff, Isabelle Stearns and Messrs. I. R. Tower, J. D. Meehan, Luther Phillips and Ted Kimmam.

AFTERNOON TEA PARTY.

Mrs. George Hage, who will leave shortly for an extended California auto tour with her father and sister, was hostess at afternoon tea on Thursday, when she entertained Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Rooke, Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. John Greves.

HOMESTEAD PARTY.

A jolly party of young people under the chaperonage of Mrs. F. A. Golden spent the week-end as the guests of Miss Grace Fulton at her homestead on North Inlet. A trip to Lakeside was a feature of the house party. Those enjoying Miss Fulton's hospitality were: Misses Frances Golden, Vera Wilson, Etta Taylor, Alice Watters and Mrs. Golden and Messrs. Roy Fulton, Melvin Jacobsen and Winfield Woodbury.

D. M. C. CLUB.

Mrs. Walter Russell was hostess Wednesday to the D. M. C. Club of North Bend. After the usual afternoon of sewing the hostess served dainty refreshments to the club members and her guest, Mrs. J. W. Russell, of Pixley, California. The members present were: Mrs. Jack Wallace, Mrs. S. C. McDonald, Mrs. Harry Trueman, Mrs. A. E. Morton, Mrs. N. C. Haines, Mrs. Geo. Trueman, L. Loomis, Mrs. Walter Russell and Miss Anna Trueman.

FAREWELL PARTY.

As a farewell for her sister Nora, who left this week for North Dakota, Miss Gernea Hage was hostess to a number of North Bend young people last Tuesday. The evening was spent with cards and music, after which the hostess served a dainty luncheon. Those present were: The Misses Lucilla Corbin of San Francisco, Kate Anthony, Ottilia Hoelbertson, Marjorie Swearingen, Ruth Gilbertson, Nora Hage, Messrs. Geo. Richards of Portland, Rust Flueckiger, Sydney Street, Roy Carr, Leslie Hyde, Ward Magill, Joe Winsor and Tom Hage.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Frederick Hollister, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollister of North Bend, was host to a number of North Bend boys and girls last Saturday afternoon in honor of his birthday. Games and music filled the afternoon with pleasure, after which a birthday spread was enjoyed. The feature of the decorations being a Jack Horner pie which, disclosed favors for every little tot present. Those enjoying the party were: Katherine Langenberg, Helen Winsor, Jane Burmester, Ethel Gardiner, Lucile Kern, Jack Greve, Robert Gebhart, Arthur Derbyshire and Warren and Billy Painter.

PLAN CAMPING TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ayre and family plan to leave next Wednesday for Bastendorf's Beach, where they will spend some time camping.

HONORS MISS CULIN.

Miss Mary Kruse entertained informally Thursday for the Misses Erma and Alice Culin, who have been the guests of Mrs. E. Mingus this week. The afternoon was spent in sewing, after which the hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Christine Kruse, served dainty refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. E. Mingus, Mrs. Christine Kruse, Misses Hazel Powers, Lucy Powers, Marlan Seaman, May Preuss, May Myren, Pearl Reigard, Frances Williams, Pearl Williams, Frances Golden, Elsie Hall, Laura Watson and the honor guests, Misses Erma and Alice Culin.

STAG PARTY.

G. W. Kaufman entertained a number of friends last Friday evening complimentary to Carl Grissen. Those enjoying his hospitality were Judge Coke, H. Lockhart, J. A. Matson, Dr. W. A. Toye, Lew Keyzer and J. A. Matson.

SOCIAL SEWING CLUB.

Mrs. D. J. Reese entertained the Social Sewing Club on Thursday of this week, the members present being: Mrs. Reese, Mrs. J. C. Swanson and Mrs. George Ayre. The guests of the club were Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Walter Sneddon, Mrs. Peter Mirrason and Mrs. Mary Sneddon. The club will not meet again until some time in September, as so many of the members will be out of town.

LINNEA PICNIC.

The Annual picnic of Swedish Linnea Society which was held at Mason ranch on Catching Inlet last Sunday was largely attended. The number present being estimated at 200. The boats Standard and Wash-ta-was were chartered for the day and many small private launches also carried the picnickers to the picnic grounds. Dancing, games and other sports features were enjoyed also the picnic lunch under the trees.

EASTSIDE CLUB.

The Eastside Sewing Club will be entertained next Thursday by Mrs. A. Simpson at her home in Bunker Hill.

PLAN FOR BOOTH.

The Marshfield Baptist Ladies Aid have arranged to conduct a refreshment booth in the downtown section on Monse Day. It will be in charge of Miss Carrie Ross, who will be assisted by other members. The plan is to raise funds for missionary work.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER.

Mrs. E. A. Elekworth entertained informally at dinner last Tuesday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and inspecting the beautiful Elekworth gardens. Those at table were Mrs. R. F. Gebhart, Mrs. S. Hill, Mrs. Pinegor, Mrs. Marks and Robert and Jerome Gebhart, Grace, Hazel and Ralph Starill and Emmett Pinegor.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Mrs. Charles Oulmette entertained a small party of friends last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Oulmette's birthday, but just what he would tell, except that he acknowledged it was twice "sweet sixteen." He was the recipient of bouquets too numerous to mention and a handsome mitre box from Herman Hillyer. The evening was pleasantly spent in conversation and reminiscences. The table was prettily decorated. Among those who sat down to the festive board were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hillyer and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pinegor and son, Emmett, Mrs. G. N. Bolt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oulmette and Miss Irene Oulmette. The departing guests all united in wishing Mr. Oulmette many happy returns of the day.

TWO PARTIES.

Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger and Mrs. W. L. Clabaugh were hostesses at two most delightful events this week when they entertained at the beautiful Adelsperger home on South Fifth street complimentary to their sisters, Mrs. Carl L. Davis and Miss Daisy Dean Rush. The decorations were most artistic and effective, nasturtiums, huckleberry and California popples predominating in the floral effect. About 120 invitations were extended for the two afternoons. On Tuesday, cards were the diversion, thirteen tables playing. Mrs.

Deffenbaugh won first prize and Mrs. Hjalme Nerdrum second prize. In serving the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. J. S. Hanson, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy and Miss Genevieve Sengstacken. On Wednesday afternoon needlework was the diversion, Mrs. Ward M. Blake and Mrs. J. S. Hanson assisting in serving.

OUTING PARTY.

A pleasant party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. LeMeux and family, Albert Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Dean, Arthur Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Grams and daughter leave this evening by auto to spend Sunday at the Tom Harvey camp at Sacchi's Beach. Mrs. LeMeux and Mrs. Dean will remain the coming week. More of them would probably stay but the stories that float in from there are to the effect that Tom Harvey's appetite has grown so that it will soon take a U. S. Commissary department to keep the camp in provisions and if they all stayed there would probably be a hunger strike.

COOS RIVER PARTY.

On Tuesday afternoon, Miss Ione Nelson, aged four, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nelson, gave a party to her friends at the Goodwill place. The table for refreshments was placed in the myrtle arbor and was greatly enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Goodwill, Mrs. W. E. Sawyer, Mrs. S. K. Kneeland, Mrs. E. A. Nelson, Mrs. W. J. Hill, Mrs. D. E. Maloney, Marvin and Moari Sawyer, Wm. Hill, Jr., Miss Elizabeth Maloney and Miss Ione Nelson.

HONORS VISITORS.

Mrs. R. H. Walter very charmingly entertained at an afternoon at evening in honor of her friend, Mrs. W. Hutchison of Portland, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Robinson very sweetly sang two delightful solos. The living rooms were decorated in huckleberry and roses, while the dining room was beautiful in sweet peas, greens and lighted candles. Among those invited were: Mrs. Hutchison, honor guest; Mrs. J. W. Mitchell, Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Mrs. Falkner, Mrs. Gammill, Mrs. Ayre, Mrs. Holmes of Beaver Hill, Mrs. Ivy Condon, Mrs. F. Sumner, Mrs. J. S. Lyons, Mrs. W. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Jas. Rolandson, Mrs. W. B. Curtis, Mrs. Jas. Cowan, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. A. E. Seaman, Mrs. Jno. Bear, Mrs. J. Nagle, Mrs. J. Anderson, Mrs. Diment, Mrs. A. Campbell and Mrs. W. Cox and Miss Bear. Mrs. Walter was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Rolandson, and in serving by the Misses Helen Dow, Gladys Diment and Mable Lang.

EVENING PARTY.

Wednesday evening, Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Thorpe entertained an evening party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson of Portland, who have come to the Bay to live. The principal diversion of the evening was the hat-trimming contest by the young men, the prizes being won by Mr. Jacobson, P. Ommel, Kai Braner and Mr. Eng. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in games, and several musical selections by Miss Mathiesen, after which the hostess served refreshments. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson, Miss Lillian Pitman, Miss Hanna Sunne, Miss Refsland, the Misses Mabel, Cora and Alice Mathiesen, Miss Dorothy Johnson, Mrs. K. Erikson, Mr. Oliver Larsen, Mr. Kai Braner, Mr. Peteresen, Mr. Eng, Mr. Andrew Anderson, Mr. John King, Mr. P. Ommel, Mr. Bergland, Mr. Refsland, and Rev. and Mrs. Thorpe.
