BRUTAL CASE IN NORTH BEND

Mrs. Martha Adams Begins Suit for Divorce, Alleging Inhumane Acts.

(Special to The Times.) COQUILLE, Or., Aug. 3.—Alleging most extraordinary brutality, Mrs. Martha Adams of North Bend has begun suit, through her attorneys, Hall & Hall, for a divorce from M. B. Adams. The defendant is now in the county jail here on a charge of threatening to kill Mrs. Adams. Mrs. Adams charges Adams with threatening her life last January, a few months before their second child was born. She also charges him with attempting a revolting crime on her six-year-old daughter, born by a former husband. She also charges that he deserted her for a period of six months and returned ten days ago, but refused to even look at their ten-day-old child. She alleges that he made false accusations against her and a man named Herman living on Kentuck Inlet. They were married in Hood River in July, 1911, and she asks $30 a month alimony.

WAR.

Editor Times: War. What for? It's a problem I have so often tried to solve. It's barbaric; it's wicked; it's cruel, we all know. Then can it be averted, some one will ask. I say, yes, by the fool workmen refusing to fight each other. For you know, kind reader, that it is the workman, not the plutocrat, that is always at the front.

Why should you or I fight some one we have never seen or heard of and who have harmed us in no way? Why should you or I fill some poor old mother's eyes with tears? Why should you or I rob some dear child of their daddy? Why, I ask, do you, workmen, who have nothing and maybe never will have anything, want war? Do not, I pray, let that patriotic feeling run away with your good commonsense. Look before you leap. If you have to fight, then fight for yourself or your own material interest.

What would it profit this or any other country if she conquered the whole world? Would you, Mr. Workman, be any the better off? No. Read the Associated Press news in The Coos Bay Times and the possible conflict that will probably involve all Europe, and then stop to think what and why they want war. Is it for the interests of you, Mr. Workman? Again I say, No.

Then why let them make the target out of you? Wake up, Mr. Workman, wake up! —A TOLLER.

GOLD BEACH NUGGETS.

Curry County Seat Events as Told by The Globe.

What would have been a disastrous fire in town was narrowly averted by its timely discovery and prompt action with a volunteer fire brigade. A spark from the flue of the kitchen stove at the Gold Beach Hotel started a blaze on the roof near the flue. A neighbor, Mrs. D. M. Moore, discovered the blaze soon after it started and gave the alarm. The guests at the hotel, together with a few men that happened to be on the street at the time, responded to the call for help and in a few minutes had the fire out before any damage to speak of was done.

Father John Hughes of the Catholic faith was an over night visitor in town Sunday night. Roy Flaisted of Smith River brought him up in his auto. Father Hughes will visit friends and relatives near Port Orford before returning to Portland.

H. W. Smith of Hare, the reliable sheep buyer, is now south of here buying both stock and mutton sheep. It is said that he is paying $3 and $3.50 for them.

The Randolph came in about 3 o'clock Sunday, direct from Portland, bringing in cannery supplies for the W. T. Co.

CATHOLICS, ATTENTION! A mass meeting of the Parish of St. Monica will be held immediately after benediction next Sunday, August 9, 1914. Plans of the proposed new church will be presented. All persons interested will kindly be present. By order of Building and Finance Committee.

EASTSIDE TO OPEN STREET

Council Will Hasten Ferry Change—Whitty on Council—Recorder Quits.

At a meeting of the Eastside City Council last week, the City Recorder was instructed to call for bids for improving McKay street to the harbor line, which will permit the ferry being changed to the Ferry street crossing. The McKay street work will cost about $5000 and the Eastside citizens want it hastened so they can get the improved transportation. Besides the new street, they intend to board up the sides of the bridge so as to make a sheltered walk from the ferry.

R. T. Whitty was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Council caused by the resignation of W. H. Cavanaugh, who moved to Empire to keep up his dredge work.

Goes to North Bend. R. L. Cavanaugh, city recorder and city engineer of Eastside, has accepted the position of city engineer of North Bend at a salary of $150 per month and will move there soon. He will tender his resignation to the two positions in Eastside at the next Council meeting. Who will be named to succeed him is uncertain.

Eastside may send a delegation to the Marshfield City Council at its next meeting to urge Marshfield to hasten the Ferry street improvement so that the ferry can be changed as soon as the McKay street improvement is completed.

PORT ORFORD NEWS. Events in Upper Curry County as Told by The Tribune.

Mrs. A. A. Jamieson departed for Myrtle Point by automobile last Sunday, being called by the serious illness of her brother, Wm. Corbin, who has been an invalid for more than a year, and for whom there is slight hope of recovery.

One of the great attractions for the Agate Carnival will be the wrestling match, in which Mr. Lutsey undertakes to throw any ten Curry County men within one hour. All preliminaries have been perfected and it is now assured that the contest will take place.

The steamer Mary Olsen, which has been lying at our new wharf since last Thursday, taking on a cargo of railroad ties, finished loading yesterday and sailed for San Pedro with 25,000 ties, said to be the largest single shipment of ties ever carried out of any port on the Coast, and equal to one million feet of lumber.

Charles Doyle was in Port Orford Wednesday, on his return home from a visit in Coos County.

CASES BEGUN IN CIRCUIT COURT. The following cases have been begun in the Circuit Court here during the past week: Grace Roth vs. Charles Roth, suit for divorce.

Ella Cochran vs. James Cochran, suit for divorce. Chas. Stauff vs. J. F. Telandier, Charles Laak and Addison F. Cook, partners.

Henry Meister vs. Joseph Houser, doing business as Coos Bay Eagle Brewing Company. Robert Marsden, Sr., vs. Fannie O'Donnell, James H. O'Donnell, James Franklin Hayden and Susie D. Hayden.—Coquille Sentinel.

200 ACCIDENTS IN ONE MONTH IS THE RECORD SALEM, Or., Aug. 3.—According to an announcement made by Secretary Garnett of the State Industrial and Accident Commission, the accidents reported to the Commission during the first month of the operation of the workmen's compensation act will total over 200. Six of those injured have already received compensation from the Commission. During the first three months of the life of the Commission of the state of Washington there were over 400 accidents.

DIES AT GOLD BEACH. Word has been received here that the five-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hewitt, formerly of this city, had died at Gold Beach, Curry county. Mr. Hewitt taught school there the past year, and but lately returned on account of the baby's ill health.—Roseburg News.
