

Here's a safe and sane sale

IT'S safe because the reductions are in Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; they're standard the world over for extreme value giving at regular prices.

It's sane because it's good business sense to "clean-up" our stock for fresh fall merchandise, even though we do sacrifice our profit.

It's a pretty sure thing you want such clothes as these, especially when they're greatly underpriced.

Every one of these suits were fresh and new this spring. Look at the prices.

Saw Captured Vessel.—The German armored cruiser Panther, which was reported captured by the French, is a small vessel carrying between 400 and 450 men. She lay at anchor in the Willamette River near Portland several years ago and was visited there by several Marshfield people. Frank Cohan of the Owl Drug Store being one.

Bandon Man Hurt.—Mr. Utter, a member of the Bandon hose team, was quite severely hurt when he slipped and fell yesterday in the race. The hose cart passed over his leg tearing the muscles lose and severing a vein. He bled profusely, losing nearly a pint of blood before it could be stopped. Dr. Houseworth attended him and he was able to return to Bandon.

Close Business.—The North Bend News Company has closed its branch at the P. K. corner here. They were paying $40 per month rent for it. Manager Borreo, who runs the P. K. Saloon for the Coos Bay Liquor Company, said that he would tear the partitions out and make it a part of the barroom.

Meet Saturday.—The Coos River Cow Testing Association will hold a special meeting Saturday from 10 to 12 at the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce. All the members are requested to be in attendance as business of importance will come up.

Autoist's Troubles.—M. A. Insley, secretary of the Willamette Iron Works at Portland, arrived here yesterday to spend a few days here on business and pleasure and conferring with H. J. Vaughn of the A. B. Daly Company, their local representative. Mr. Insley came in via Drain and Allegany and it was with some difficulty that he got by some of the fine fishing pools as he is an ardent fisherman. Beyond Allegany they met Luther Judy, whose auto truck had broken down. Judy had been working for hours underneath the car trying to fix the drive chain. Gnats were bothering him as he worked and sweated and every time he scratched his head to drive away the gnats he would leave a streak of grease and grime so that he was hardly recognizable when they came along. He borrowed a file and chisel and expected to complete the repairs soon.

RACES IN MARSHFIELD.

The Coos Bay Fair Association will give races at Marshfield, Oregon, August 14 and 15. The program for the races will be announced soon. As there is a nice string of horses that will take part in these races, parties that like racing will enjoy the card.
