FORGERY CASE FILED TODAY

Charges Preferred Against R. C. Thompson—Other Cases Here.

H. C. Walderson, clerk at the Buxy Court, today filed a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses against R. C. Thompson. He passed a worthless check on him a week ago. Thompson passed a $20 check, purported to have been made out by Geo. L. Botsford, the North Bend railroad magnate, for an auto ticket to Astoria, getting $8 in change. Thompson is wanted by Warden Lawson of the Oregon State Penitentiary on the charge of violating a parole having been sentenced for forgery at Astoria in 1911. Warden Lawson has not sent for Thompson, who is still in the city jail. As Justice Pennek is in Curry County, it will be some time before Thompson can have a hearing.

Suits Over Suits.
Geo. A. Tribbey is also in trouble. J. W. Mitchell has begun suit against him to collect $17.50 on a suit of clothes which he states was furnished to Capt. Sievertsen last September, the time that Tribbey's motorcycle
