BORN.
MURPHY—To Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy, a daughter, their second child, Thursday, August 6. Mother and child are doing nicely and Mr. Murphy is wearing the smile that won't come off.

Decorations for Shrine—The street decorations will be left up for the Shriner's visit next Tuesday. Many of the Shriners are expected to arrive Sunday.

Services Here.—Rev. F. Zehe, of the Lutheran church of Mt. Angel, Oregon, will preach at the Swedish Lutheran hall in the German language tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Choose Pastor.—At a meeting of the congregation of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church, Rev. B. F. Bengtson was selected to fill the vacancy in the pulpit caused by the resignation of Rev. J. V. Benson. Rev. Bengtson will take charge next week.

State Official Coming.—R. T. Spalding, who has been in this vicinity in the interests of the State Industrial Commission, received a telegram this morning from H. Beckwith, chairman of the Commission, saying he would be on Coos Bay this week.

Let Contract.—George and Joe Roberts of Templeton have been awarded the contract for carrying the mail between North Bend and Gardiner three times a week. Their bid for the year was $3995, while W. C. Rhodes bid $4350 and Clark Allen $4500.

Services Sunday.—Dr. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis will preach at the Marshfield Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Bell was for years stationed at Baker City and later Corvallis. He is a member of the Shriners and is also chaplain of the Knights Templar.

Moving Camps.—Copenhagen Brothers, who have been constructing the Coos Bay-Eugene line track between the Umpqua and the big tunnel, have completed their work and are now moving their camps and outfit across the river near Reedsport to build north from the Umpqua.

Wed in Coquille.—Harvey Gurnea and Miss Minnie Parker, both of North Bend, were married at Coquille Wednesday, Judge Hall officiating. Wm. Fitchett and Lenh Heath were the witnesses. The bride has been conducting the Star Rooming House in North Bend, while the groom conducts a repair shop there.

North Bend Wedding.—J. W. Hunt, a well known Marshfield carpenter, and Miss Gertrude Arms, of North Bend, were married Wednesday in North Bend, the Rev. A. S. Hisey officiating. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Elmer Woods. The young couple went to Port Orford for their honeymoon and will make their home in Marshfield.

Coming Here.—A. L. Pearson, a former resident of Tacoma and Bellingham, and of Salem, Oregon, was in Eugene on his way to Marshfield and Florence. To start a business college and architectural school in one of those towns is Mr. Pearson's purpose in making the trip to the coast points. He believes that Marshfield or Florence offers a good opportunity for such an enterprise as he contemplates. He will leave on a trip of inspection, which will include Bandon, North Bend, Coquille, as well as Marshfield and Florence.

Finish Site.—E. L. Robinson was at North Bend today and stated that the leveling of the site for The Simpson Hotel had been practically completed, finishing the grading on Montana between Sheridan and Pony Slough. The contract for excavating for the hotel was not let, only one bid being received.

Bring Apples.—Matt Jutstrom today shipped down several boxes of Gravenstein apples from his South Coos River ranch, the finest that have been brought here this season.

No Tax Penalty.—The Coos County Commissioners in session at Coquille adopted a resolution eliminating the five per cent penalty which it was proposed to charge on taxes that have not been paid.

Scott Boy Victim.—Chester Scott, of South Slough, four-year-old son of S. P. Scott, was drowned about 9 a. m. yesterday when he fell into a well. The body is thought to have been in the well a half hour before he was missed and efforts to revive him were futile. The boy's father is a tie-maker.

Swedish Meetings.—There will be a meeting tonight and another one Sunday night at the Eastside schoolhouse at which services will be conducted in the Swedish language by Rev. Aug. Olson. There will also be a meeting at Grandell's boarding house at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. All Scandinavians are invited.

GETS GAY AND GOES TO JAIL

George Frazier Resents Officer Doane's Kindness and Is Punished.

As a result of Geo. Frazier getting too gay with Officer Doane last night, he had to spend the night in the city jail instead of being released on $5 cash bond. Frazier is said to have been working on the merry-go-round and last night is alleged to have tanked up. He is charged with insulting some women, street and molesting some women. After he was taken into custody, he begged off and said that the merry-go-round proprietor would furnish bail for him and Officer Doane took him to the latter's quarters in the Rogers Hotel. The merry-go-round man agreed to put up the $5 and Frazier then attempted to shut the door in Doane's face and made him insinuating remarks, whereupon Doane took him back to jail. A young fellow named Kirk who was with him also got too gay with Officer Doane, although he was not involved at first, and was also taken to jail.

Joe Engress, J. J. Leary and Sam Agamallian were the other offenders taken in last night.

Johnson Is Released.
Bert Johnson, who was involved in the Henryville fracas last winter and who generally lands in jail when he comes to town, was released from jail today by Marshal Carter. He was arrested again for intoxication, but lacked funds to pay his fine.

HODGE IN CURRY.
Anti-Fly Crusader to Spend Month's Vacation There.
The Eugene Register says: Dr. Clinton Fremont Hodge, of the department of social biology at the University, and known the state over for his efforts toward a "flyless Oregon," is making preparations for a month's vacation and expects to leave the beginning of next week for Curry county. His last lecture of the summer will be at the Chemewa Indian school on the subject of "Birds."
"And I have my license for hunting in my pocket," the doctor declared yesterday, "and if a big buck disputed the trail with me I would be apt to shoot, but really I would rather watch them." He will travel with only a light outfit, making farm houses and mountain hotels his headquarters, going out from there for short trips into the mountains, "way back as far from civilization as I can get."
