WHICHEVER WAY THE WIND BLOW.

Whichever way the wind doth blow,
Some heart is glad to have it so;
Then blow it east, or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

My little craft sails not alone;
A thousand fleets from every zone
Are out upon a thousand seas;
What blows for one a favoring breeze
Might dash another with the shock
Of doom upon some hidden rock.
And so I do not dare to pray
For winds to wait me on my way,
But leave it to a higher will
To stay or speed me, trusting still
That all is well, and sure that He
Who launched my bark will sail with me
Through storm and calm, and will
Not fail.
Whatever breezes may prevail,
To land me, every peril past,
Within the sheltered haven at last,
Then, whatever wind doth blow
My heart is glad to have it so;
And, blow it east, or blow it west,
The wind that blows, that wind is best.

—Caroline A. Mason.

IN A sensible interview, Miss Elizabeth Marbury, speaking of matrimony, said:
"Any other contract involving obligations of two partners is broken less lightly these days than the marriage agreement."

And she might have added that there is no business under the sun that people go into that they make as little effort to make a success of as they do the business of matrimony.

If the average man would put as much energy, and intelligence and thought into trying to make his marriage a success as he does in trying to make his grocery or his store a success, there would not be so many marriages that are failures.

If the average woman would use as much tact and diplomacy in trying to get along with her husband as Dorothy Dix, as she does in trying to hold her job as a stenographer or a clerk, we would be able to do away with the divorce courts.

When two men go into business together they pool their capital and their ability, and they know that their success depends upon their getting along amiably together and doing good team work. They know that if one partner pulls one way, and the other partner pulls the other way, and they never agree upon a course of action, and spend some time in scrapping, they are bound to fail.

Therefore they make an effort to work harmoniously and smoothly together. They are not always picking faults in each other, or interfering with each other's particular department. They talk the business over together, and compromise their opinions, and they divide fairly and squarely the profits.

Those tactics would work just as efficaciously in the home as they do in the business, for a marriage is nothing less than a life partnership, into which a man and a woman enter, and in which they pool their interests. The man puts into it all that he has. The woman puts into it all that she has, body and soul, and she works in the home just as hard as the man works in the store, or office or shop.

But the man seldom treats her as a partner, with whom it is his interest to get along smoothly.

He doesn't try to please her. He doesn't refrain from criticizing the way she does her work. He seldom talks over the details of the business with her or consults her, and he gives her what he pleases of the profits of it. He doesn't make her feel that she is a real partner, just as interested as he is in building the business up to a big success.

And exactly the same thing is true of women. The woman who gets along in business is the woman who learns to handle employers with kid gloves. She learns how to keep off masculine nerves, which are far more raw than feminine nerves.

How to turn away wrath with a soft word, and to apply the jolly where it will do the most good and be the most soothing to masculine vanity, and that recipe for getting along harmoniously with men goes just as strong for domestic life as it does for business.

The only reason that marriage is a failure is because we play it as if we were fools instead of intelligent human beings.

HONORS VISITOR.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. William Nelson entertained a number of little friends at her home in North Bend in honor of her little niece, Miss Thelma Lundquist, of Portland. Games were played by the little ones after which they all sat down to a tempting luncheon. Miss Louise Elsmiger and Miss Ida Nelson aided in entertaining and serving the following guests: Mildred Johnson, Roena Johnson, Mable Chapman, Helen Laird, Bonita Anderson, Helen Russell, Mildred Russell, Gloria Putman, Helen Hisey, Thelma Lundquist and Charlie Russell.

EASTSIDE CLUB.

Mrs. A. Simpson of Bunker Hill entertained the Eastside Sewing Club at a delightful afternoon Thursday at her home in Bunker Hill. Various flowers made the home most attractive and at the conclusion of sewing, conversation and other pastimes, delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. M. A. McLaggan assisted the hostess in serving. The club will meet two weeks from Thursday with Mrs. Walter Robertson of Eastside. Those enjoying Mrs. Simpson's hospitality were Mrs. Frank Prey, Mrs. F. O. Brooks, Mrs. M. O'Donnell, Mrs. F. Brooks of Eugene, Mrs. Fred Noth, Mrs. Walter Robertson, Mrs. Frank Herman, Mrs. J. D. McKay, Mrs. M. A. McLaggan, Mrs. W. F. Byerly and Mrs. Frank Reibe.

COQUILLE RECITAL.

A small, but appreciative, audience listened to the violin recital last Friday evening at the W. O. W. hall, by Mr. Karl Grissen, of Portland. Mr. Grissen has been abroad most of his life studying under the masters of the old world and has proved an apt pupil, as shown by the handling of his violin. He proved himself a master of the instrument and those who failed to hear him indeed missed an opportunity seldom afforded inhabitants of Coos county. His accompanist, Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., of Marshfield, also showed marked ability as a pianist and the recital was listened to with great interest by the audience. It is seldom a violinist has the power of holding the attention of an audience throughout an entire evening, but this Mr. Grissen did. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Public Library Association.

A DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL.

A delightful musicale was enjoyed by the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., on Wednesday evening, at the Horsfall residence in honor of Mrs. R. E. Miller and Mr. Carl Grissen. The charm of pretty decorations, the excellence of the program, and the earnest appreciation of an audience of music lovers combined to make the evening one of rare pleasure for all.

In opening the program Mr. Alexander Martin, usually heard in musical numbers, displayed his versatility by reading several scenes from "Peer Gynt," in which he showed decided dramatic ability and a most intelligent conception of the work from which his readings were selected.

Mr. Wolfram Schmiedding is a favorite artist, and his flute solos, "The Wind," (Brecclaldi), and "Scherzo Capriccio" (Sabathi), were enthusiastically received. Mr. Schmiedding's technique is superb and his interpretations scholarly and faithful to the composer's idea.

Mrs. F. E. Conway has been heard too seldom by Marshfield audiences, and gave much pleasure by her rendition of two Cadman songs—"From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "The Moon Drops Low"—followed by "Vissi d'Arte, Vissi d'Amore" from Puccini's "Tosca," and "Mattiinata" (Toati)—the last two being sung in Italian. Mrs. Conway's voice is beautifully clear and firm and of unusual soprano range, which, however, was but modestly displayed by the numbers chosen, and her songs were interpreted in the most satisfying manner.

Then came Miss Clara Myren, with four piano numbers, which it is unnecessary to say were well performed. We have had the pleasure of hearing Miss Myren often of late and much praise has been given her work. It may be added that she plays with that indescribable characteristic called "style," which goes a long way in the success of an artist when it accompanies the other requisites which Miss Myren possesses. The selections given were "Etude in F Sharp" (Arensky), "Hymn Russe" (Livoft-Low), "If I Were a Bird" (Henselt) and "March Mignonne" (Poldini).

In her first appearance before a Marshfield audience Mrs. Roy Everett Miller demonstrated at once that we are most fortunate in our acquisition of her musical talent. Mrs. Miller's voice is a warm and brilliant soprano, is under good control, and her selections were rendered with exquisite taste and with a delightful freedom from affectation or mannerisms. It is to be hoped she will be generous in her contributions to future programs. She sang "Love I Have Won You" (Ronald), "Down in the Forest" (Ronald) and "Nymphs and Fauns" (Bemberg).

Last came Mr. Carl Grissen, who endeared himself to Marshfield music lovers in his recital of last week. Mr. Grissen's work has already been given able criticism. One recognizes in him instantly a master of his art. He plays with the big firm tone which so delights lovers of the violin, but which he reduces at pleasure to the finest shades of delicacy. He appeals, at will, to the conscious emotions, or lures you into dreamland without fear of betrayal by faults of technique. It is greatly to be regretted that this was Mr. Grissen's last appearance here, for the present season at least. Mr. Grissen's numbers were "Souvenir de Posen" (Wienlawski), "Serenade" (Drdla), "Liebesfreud" (Kriesler), and "Hungarian Dance No. 1" (Brahms-Jochim).

All the artists responded graciously to hearty encores.

At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, and the guests lingered in the enjoyment of conversation till a late hour. A pleasing surprise was tendered by the impromptu rendition of several songs by a male quartet composed of Messrs. R. E. Miller, Benj. Ostlund, Alexander Martin and Herbert Lupton.

REST ROOM SUCCESS.

The Rest Room which was conducted here during the Moose Day festivities proved another big success and won much praise for Mrs. M. A. Sweetman, who conducted it. Some of the features that have not hitherto been told in The Times were the award of the barrel of Sperry flour to Mrs. Kulju of Perham Park, who had her eleven children there, the largest family in attendance. Alfred Johnson, Jr., of Coquille, started ed the fund for a permanent Rest Room by a donation of $1 and Robert Watson of Coquille added another dollar to it. The guessing contest added another $9.65 to it and the prize went to David Myssen, who was one of four to guess the correct number of flowers, ten. The judges of the floral contest were Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, Mrs. G. W. Dungan and Mrs. R. B. Drews, who in awarding the prizes, were governed by the point system, taking into consideration the length of stem, arrangement of flowers, vigor, size, number of blossoms, etc.

Among those contributing toward the Rest Room are Going & Harvey, Gulovson & Johnson, Perry-Nicholson, Mrs. C. H. Walters, Dr. Straw, J. Albert Matson, Marshfield Electric Co., J. W. Bennett, Norton & Hansen, Sumner Hardware Company, Lockhart-Parsons, Red Cross Drug Co., Coos Bay Ice & Cold Storage Co., Walker Studio, C. W. Wolcott, Geo. E. Cook, E. L. Bessey, Oregon Power Company, Chamber of Commerce, Coos Bay Home Telephone Company, Dave Mussen, C. H. Walters and John Osborn.

AT AGATE CARNIVAL.

More than thirty Coos Bay people spent the major portion of the week at Port Orford attending the Agate Carnival and visiting Curry county friends. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pennock, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Torrey, Ed Lindberg and wife and mother, Levi Smith and family, F. C. Birch, Otis Wilson, W. H. Kennedy, Wesley Noah, Mrs. S. A. Yoakam, Mrs. M. R. Smith, Mrs. C. H. Dungan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin, E. K. Jones, R. A. Wernich, Mrs. Thomas Leyland, Harry Folsom, Miss Grace Fulton, Chester Bear, Judge and Mrs. Hammond, Ed Dolan, A. Larson, A. Lang, E. R. Hyde, F. V. Catterlin, J. W. Hunt and bride, Dr. Leslie and Miss Alice Tickell.

CHRISTIAN PICNIC.

The Bible School of the Christian Church is planning for their annual picnic to be held at Sunset Bay, Aug. 11.

The county convention of the Christian churches of Coos county will be held at Myrtle Point August 18 to 20. Several outside speakers will be present and have a part in the convention's work.

FAREWELL PICNIC.

Mrs. Davis of South Fifth street was hostess at a delightful neighborhood picnic last Wednesday at Charleston as a farewell to her sister, Miss Sadie Olson, who left on Thursday for her home in Portland after a pleasant month's visit here. The Alice H. took the party down and a flag day was enjoyed. Among those in the party were: Mrs. John Dunsen and children, Mrs. R. P. Harrington and son, Mrs. E. A. Harris and family, Mrs. E. Kelly and family, Mrs. F. H. Dunsen, Miss Eva Dunsen, Mrs. Davis and Bortha and Larson Davis, Mrs. A. Abbott, Miss Glenda Abbott, Miss Roxie Hall and Mrs. F. H. Storey and family.

MINNE-WIS CLUB.

The Minne-Wis Club postponed its meeting this week owing to the absence of so many of the members and will hold its next meeting a week from next Thursday with Mrs. F. H. Dresser.

THIMBLE CLUB.

The Thimble Club of North Bend held their annual outdoor meeting and picnic at Simpson's Park Friday. The members assembled at 11 a. m. and at noon enjoyed a bountiful and delicious picnic luncheon, at which Dr. Bartle, Mr. Derbyshire and Mr. Linden were present. Miss Lena Kruse was also a guest. Plans were made for a Clean-Up Day in North Bend Monday, August 10, to be managed by the club. The City Council of North Bend agreed to share half the expense. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Strate in two weeks. Those present yesterday were: Mrs. Mullen, Mrs. Burmeister, Mrs. H. J. Linden, Mrs. I. B. Earlie, Mrs. A. H. Derbyshire, Mrs. Jack Wallace, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Strate, Mrs. Fred Kruse and Mrs. M. G. Coleman.

LAVENDER PARTY.

Mrs. C. H. Worrell of North Bend entertained Friday in honor of Mrs. Weaver, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grubbs, and who leaves this week for her home in Pennsylvania. The afternoon was spent in making lavender sticks and later the hostess served delicious refreshments to her guests: Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. Grubbs, Mrs. Shimlan, Mrs. J. W. Russell and Mrs. Elmer Russell.

EASTSIDE PICNIC.

Miss Ella Gurnea of North Bend entertained her pupils and friends at a picnic at Eastside Thursday, enjoying a fine basket dinner and the usual picnic diversions. Among those present were Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Peet, Mrs. Sleep, Mrs. Truman, Mrs. McNaughton, Misses Blanche Tellefson, Anna Lund, Ida Gamble, Mary Gurnea,

Ruth Gurnea, Louise Elsmiger, Ida Nelson, Anna Truman, Anna Nelson, Gladys Major, Stella Vineyard, LeAnn Sleep, Lois Smith, Effie Fulton, Doris Gubser and Nellie Fick.

RAINBOW CLUB.

On Thursday Mrs. Jennie Landrith entertained the members of the Rainbow Club at her home on North Coos River. At noon a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing, music and conversation, a special feature being F. B. Rood in her usual charming manner. A short business meeting was held. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. L. G. Masters at Sumner. Those present were: Mrs. S. C. Rogers, Mrs. J. J. Clunkinbeard, Mrs. L. D. Smith, Mrs. W. B. Piper, Mrs. J. E. Noah, Mrs. James Nowlin, Mrs. Chas. Enegren, Mrs. L. G. Masters, Mrs. F. B. Rood, Mrs. Vernon Landrith, Mrs. W. R. Oxenrider, Mrs. E. Kromminga, Mrs. J. F. Smith, Mrs. G. H. Myers, Mrs. Claude Piper, Mrs. W. Richards, Mrs. E. J. Klose, Mrs. H. E. Benney, Mrs. Don McCrary, Mrs. Grover Williams, Mrs. M. Jutrum, Mrs. L. B. Cutlip, Mrs. Jennie Landrith, and the Misses Anna and Ada Clunkinbeard, Blanche Cutlip, Helen and Blanche Landrith, Florence Smith and Katie Kromminga.

SPECIAL MEETING.

The Eastside Sewing Club will hold a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Robertson next Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Frank Prey, the president, has called the meeting and asks that all members be present.

FOOLING HIS WIFE.

He does not squander all his pay;
He's saving some.
He hopes with it to buy some day
A little home.

His stylish wife, we can't deny,
Went out a jar,
She thinks he's saving up to buy
A touring car.

SIGMA CHI PICNIC.

The members of the Sigma Chi fraternity resident on Coos Bay have planned an elaborate picnic and venison barbecue for tomorrow. The members accompanied by their wives and friends will go by private launch to the hatchery where everything will be in readiness for the day's celebration.
