South Coos Visitors.—The Rainbow brought in P. A. Freese, Carl Chinkenbeard, W. G. Bessey and William Rankin.

Ship Cheese.—The Ash Valley Company at Loon Lake is shipping out large consignments of cheese to Portland. The Alert has brought in 142 cases in the last two days.

Visit Here.—The North Star today brought in from Ten Mile and North Inlet, Ray Pinkerton, Billy Penneck, Mrs. Myers, F. S. Small, Mrs. Emily McFarland, A. A. Miller and daughter.

War Theme.—At the 11 o'clock service in the Episcopal church tomorrow, the Rector, Rev. Robert E. Browning, will preach upon the subject: "The God of History and the Philosophy of War."

Child Dies.—Roy John Smith, aged ten years, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith of Millington, died at 8 p. m. last night following an operation for peritonitis. The funeral services will be held at the Wilson Undertaking parlors Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m., Rev. R. E. Browning officiating. Friends and relatives are invited. Burial will be at the convenience of the family.

Holds Masonic Honor.—Dr. J. N. R. Bell, of Corvallis, who is here to attend the Shrine doings, holds the honor of being Grand Chaplain of the Masonic Grand Lodge longer than any other man, having served the Oregon Grand Lodge in that capacity for thirty-nine years. He will preach tomorrow at the Marshfield Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock, taking as his subject "The Triple Vision."

Hard Motor Trip.—E. K. Jones and R. A. Wernich have returned from an auto trip to Port Orford. They went down over the old wagon road from Myrtle Point to Langlois and were the first machine to make it this year. The rocks and ruts made it most difficult and Curry county people thought that it was impossible for an auto to make it. En route home they extinguished a fire that would have started a bad forest conflagration, someone evidently having set fire to a big pitch tree on purpose. They made the run from Bandon to Coquille in just fifty-eight minutes. They report a big crowd at the Port Orford Agate Carnival.

To Hold Services.—There will be services at the Seventh Day Adventist church tonight and Sunday night at 8 o'clock. Rev. R. W. Airey of Cottage Grove will speak.

Special Services.—Aug. Olson, state missionary of the Swedish Baptists, will hold services at Grandell's in Bunker Hill, Sunday afternoon and at Eastside Sunday night.

Ferry Traffic.—Capt. Alex Hall, of the Marshfield-Eastside ferryboat Transit, reports the following traffic for July: Passengers, 6,612; double teams, 148; single teams, 208; automobiles, 132; stock, 57.

Firemen's Ball.—The Marshfield Fire Department will give a ball at the Eagles' Hall tonight and it promises to be one of the best of the summer season. Martin's Orchestra has been engaged and a large attendance is expected.

Talk Silos.—At a meeting of the Coos River Cow Testing Association today, County Agriculturist Smith made arrangements to hold another meeting two weeks from today when silos will be discussed. A number are planning to put in silos and he is asking all interested in silos, either selling or building, to be there.
