THE COOS BAY TIMES, MARSHFIELD, OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1914 .--- EVENING EDITION.

Get a lot more than your money's worth

VOU always do in a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit, but right now there's still a bigger chance to profit. We've made these good clothes still a greater value for you by reducing the prices on the goods we received this spring.

You'll help us to get ready for a big fall display; you'll help yourself to a heap of added value.

These prices will give you an idea as to the money saving here.

BORN.

SCOTNESS-Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Scotness of Beaver Hill, yester-day at Mercy Hospital, a daughter.

Party Saturday.—Mrs. Herbert Lockhart will entertain a number of friends at her summer home on South Coos River tomorrow. Cooston Services .- Rev. August Ol-son has been invited by Rev. G, Le-Roy Hall to conduct the services in the Lifeline at Cooston Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Work Near Depot .- Thirty Spanish laborers who came in on the Breakwater are at work ballasting and leveling the track near the de-Some of them are veterans of the Spanish-American war, Returns to Coast .--- C. A. Smith, who has spent the last few months in Chicago, is due at Oakland, Cal., today. He will probably come to the Bay after a short stay at Berkeley.

Father III.-Lon Miller, who has been running the Tioga for Rogers & Smith, left yesterday for Portland in response to a message announcing the serious illness of his father, Improve Boat,—Capt. E. George Smith announces that he has purchased electric-lighting apparatus for the Rainbow and will have it in-stalled within a few weeks. The Tioga has been tied up here temporarily. Saw Scalion.-Capt. E. George Smith of the Rainbow reports that he saw a big scalion near the mouth of Coos River a few days ago. is seldom that the sealions vent It are ed a new house. The Collvers have invited all their neighbors to spend the evening with them to celebrate the occasion.

Liberal League.—O. D. Forte, the president of the Oregon Liberal League, organized a Marshfield branch of that association in this city last evening. Tom Myers was elected Secretary and Arthur Johnson presi-

To Sell Kinney Properties—Frank B. Walte, who left for his home in Summerlin yesterday by way of Portland, expressed himself as hopeful that the legal entanglements that involve the Kinney properties on Coos Bay would soon be straightened out and the properties sold.

Meat Prices No Higher .--- With all the talk of the tremendous raise in the prices of eatables on account of the European disturbances, local butchers say that meat is actually cheaper now than for some time, and that no raise is expected fo rsome time. 2.9 5.3 Many Autos Out.—The Alert will 3.40 10.20 take six autos to Allegany this afternoon for Shriners who are returning home via the Allegany-Scotts-burg road. This morning the Alert brought in one of D. L. Foote's autos for repairs. Captain Edwards is planning to run another excursion from here to Allegany Sunday, as section is now in the height of its glory for outing parties. New Bishop.—Rev. Robert E. Browning has received intimation that the successor to the late Bishop Scadding will be Bishop Griswold, of the Missionary District of Kansas. The selection will be made at a conference to be held in Portland September 16, at which Rev. Browning will be in attendance. Bishop Griswold is a very able and much loved man.

Knows Algerine Captain,-Tom Williams, the well known traveling man, is a personal friend of the captain of the Algerine, the boat that is trying to elude the German cruisers and get to a Canadian port. He says the Algerine looks something like the steamer Elizabeth, well known here, and would not last long after a broadside from a battleship. He is hoping that the captain may make Socialists to Picnic-The members of the Socialist Party of Coos Bay will hold their third annual picnic at Simpson's Park, North Bend, the 23rd of this month. Various events have been arranged for a full pro-gram. G. W. Davis of Portland will deliver the principal address of the evening. Special service on the auto lines has been arranged from Marshfield and a special boat and train will bring excursionists from the Coquille Valley. A basket dinner will be a feature of the day, Many Log Rafts.—Three large rafts of logs were towed into the booms on the Bay this morning. One was brought down from Smith-Pow-ers Camp One on South Coos River by the Ranger, another was brought down by the Hercules from the Mc-Donald & Vaughn Blue Ridge Camp for the Simpson Mill, and the third from Paul Dimmick's Beaven Hill Logging Camp. The logs brought down from Daniels Creek were some that went through the fire and were more or less damaged. Will Irrigate.—T. A. Freese, who has a ranch on upper South Coos River, is planning to install a pump and gasoline engine and pump water from the river to irrigate his ranch during the summer months. Nowlin of North Coos River has just completed an irrigation system, using the river as a source of supply. Mr. Nowlin bought the old pumping outfit and pipes that were used in the water tower in the City Park from Robert Marsden, Sr., for $175, only a fraction of what they would cost new. It is claimed that there isn't sufficient salt in the water as far up as their ranches to do any

SOUTH HERE

M. E. Cassidy, postmaster at Bisbee, Arizona, is spending a week on Coos Bay, inspecting the country and looking into conditions with regard to possibly 'ocating here with his family some time in the near future. He reports himself as most favorably impressed with conditions here, particularly in comparison with other sections of the country through which he has traveled.

Mr. Cassidy is a stanch Republican of the southern state and recent-ly enjoyed the distinction of being severely roasted by Colonel Roosevelt in a late issue of the Outlook Mr. Cassidy is endeavoring to get out of the political game, and in this connection also had the distinction of refusing his party's nomination for Secretary of State of Arizona.
