

We Expect to See You

SOME DAY you are going to come here—that we know. For some day you will realize that we would not repeat the story of superb values so often were they not really just what we say. We know that it is hard to break old ties—but after all there is no sentiment in dollars, and it's dollars you spend when you buy clothes, hats or furnishing goods.

So, come here now, don't let the time get farther off when you say, "I wish I'd come to you before." For that is what you are going to say, sooner or later.

Safe to say once you have been here and seen the values we offer in our Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes—our Hats, our Furnishings—you will become a steady patron—as so many have done before you. And it is steady patrons that we want to have for this business of ours.

Don't wait; don't put it off. Come in today.

Wind: northwest; partly cloudy.

Jumps Ball.—W. O. Wimmer was arrested for causing a disturbance in his room on North Front street last night, deposited $10 bail and left town at once. His whereabouts is unknown.

To Hold Sale.—The Ladies of the Swedish Lutheran church will hold a bread and cake sale Saturday afternoon and evening in the Swedish Lutheran Hall. The sale will begin at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Coffee and cake will be served.

New Position.—J. D. Connell, who has been an accountant with the North Bend Mill & Lumber Co., has accepted a similar position in Portland with Swayne & Hoyt of the Arrow Line. He leaves this evening on the Yellowstone to take up his duties.

Building Homes.—Nick Stambone this week began the construction of a modern six-room bungalow on South Tenth street in First Addition. Contractor Quimette is doing the construction work. F. E. McElroy is also constructing a home on Minnesota avenue, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, in First Addition.

Union Service.—The special union service which has been held in different churches alternately on Sunday evenings during July and August will be held on Sunday evening in the Episcopal church and the rector will deliver the sermon, the theme being "The Unjust Steward." Special music will be sung. All are cordially invited.

Breaks Parole.—R. C. Thompson, who was picked up by the local police, was taken to Salem this morning by an official from the state penitentiary. Thompson was out on parole, having served about one year of an indeterminate sentence for forgery. He had been at liberty about a year. Thompson recently forged checks about Marshfield, defrauding several merchants on Coos Bay.

Home Damaged.—The residence of Eli Sampson caught fire last Saturday and suffered considerable damage, but no call was sent in to the fire department and no report was made of the occurrence. Graders who were working on a street near by rushed to the scene and put out the flames, after a hole had been burned in the roof and some damage done to furniture in the house.

Will Leave Marshfield.—J. S. Ward and wife and three children will leave Marshfield next Wednesday or Thursday. They have sold their home in West Marshfield to Mrs. A. H. Thompson, who recently arrived on the Bay from Idaho and who will make her home here with her two nieces. Mr. Ward is undecided whether he will remove to San Francisco or will make arrangements to go to Bandon. He is working on a business deal in the latter city, which may make it necessary for him to live there. Mr. Ward will make the trip to Salem with the Coos Bay Concert Band, returning here for that purpose.

Cheese Shipments.—The Rainbow brought in about four and one-half tons of cheese from the Coos Bay Creamery which will be sent out on the Paraiso.

Services Sunday.—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall, of the cruiser Life-Line, will hold services on Kentuck Inlet next Sunday morning and afternoon. A picnic dinner will be enjoyed at noon.

Fined $5.—Noble Pittman, who was arrested yesterday by Officer Carter for riding his motorcycle with the muffler open, pleaded guilty this afternoon and was fined $5 by Recorder Butler.

Funeral This Afternoon.—The funeral of William Bruner took place today at 1 o'clock from the Wilson Undertaking Chapel. The services were under the auspices of the I. O. O. F., and members of that order acted as pall-bearers.

Rubber Advance.—That the advance in prices of rubber is genuine is substantiated by quotations received by E. Bandel from a Portland junk dealer, in which prices quoted for old rubber tires were 33 1-3 per cent higher than formerly.

After E. B. Jones.—According to the North Bend Harbor, a detective from Portland was on the Bay the past week looking for E. B. Jones, formerly connected with the Coos Bay Townsite Company. It is rumored that Jones has been successful in eluding the officer, who stated here that Jones had been held in Portland on one charge from which he was freed but that he was wanted again on another charge.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Paul Waddell, Local Man, Run Into By Automobile Last Night.

While crossing the corner of Broadway and Central avenue last evening, Paul Waddell, a barber employed in the Curry Barber Shop, was run into by an automobile belonging to the Goodrum garage. Waddell tried to dodge the approaching car and the driver turned that way at the same time. Waddell jumped in the opposite direction in time to avoid being run over, but the side of the car grazed his left leg, scratching and bruising it slightly. The accident happened about 8:30. The only damage done was the spilling of a can of beer carried by Mr. Waddell.
