BIBLICAL LORE ON CENTRAL AVENUE

Gene Crosthwaite, who is some Bible student as well as a baseball fan, is responsible for the following Scriptural reference to the national game:
Eve stole fire, and Adam stole second;
St. Peter, he umpired the game;
Rebecca went to the well, with the pitcher;
Ruth, in the field won fame.
Goliath was struck out by David;
A fowl off Abel by Cain.
The Prodigal Son made a home run,
And Brother Noah gave out checks for rain.

Safety Deposit Boxes.—Our financial editor, Dorsey Kreitzer, reports a great demand for safety deposit boxes. He thinks they are being used to store sugar. For $10.00 one can get almost sugar enough to fill one.

PERSONAL MENTION.

DR. HOUSEWORTH says it makes a man mad to get a gas bill when his wife is away on a vacation and the gas hasn't been lighted for six weeks.

DORSEY KREITZER wants to know why some politician doesn't run for Mayor of Marshfield on a platform prohibiting the use of Mayonnaise dressing.

F. D. COHAN is in Portland this week conferring with the War Department in reference to the erection of fortifications at the foot of Central Avenue.

THAYER GRIMES has just returned from the East, where he has been studying art and articles. He contemplates going to Paris but says he'll wait and see if the Latin quarter is to be transformed into a German pfennig.

RAY OLLIVANT is away from his haunts this week and it is as difficult to get news from him as from the European war. He is somewhere in the vicinity of Sitkum and is supposed to be locating the haunts of deer so that he may get quick action after Sept. 1.

JOHN M. SCOTT of Portland, was seen on our street Tuesday. John says his new road will be ready for passengers next year. John is a diplomat and he knows how to make a hit on Central Avenue. Come again Johnny.

PHIL METSCHAN, of Portland visited Harry McKewen of the Chandler the first of the week. Phil is Harry's pet friend and is allowed to about anything he pleases about the Chandler. Harry has so much confidence in him that he allowed him to help with the chores, fire the furnace and help Harry wait on the table.

AMONG THE SICK

Henry Huggins drank six bottles of Peruna last week for distressed liver and Dr. Morrow says Henry will have hard work to get the Peruna out of his system.

Central Avenue Jottings

Some Athlete.—There is a man on Central Avenue whose only exercise is patting himself on the back.

Drought Broken.—Thank goodness the long dry spell was broken by the arrival of that Portland delegation. Some irrigators, those Portlanders.

Pioneer Society.—There is some talk of organizing a Central Avenue pioneer society with Geo. E. Cook, who established the first grocery store on the street, as president and D. Y. Stafford as vice-president.

Near Accident.—A. T. Haines very carelessly rode across the railroad track in front of the S. P. motor car yesterday. It is now thought that if the car had been in motion he might have been run over and seriously hurt.

Back from Deer Hunt.—Al Glosop and his Central Avenue deer hunters returned from a successful game excursion into Curry County. Jesse Terrell says there are more deers on Central Avenue any pleasant afternoon than there are in Curry County in a year.

Portland Visitors.—A large number of strangers from Portland visited Central Avenue the first of the week and many expressed much surprise at the city—like manner in which business is conducted here. It was a general remark that the electric light was just like it is in Portland.
