The Russian troops are triumphantly marching on Lemburg. The fighting has been on a gigantic scale. Eight hundred thousand Russians engaged 600,000 Austrians. ### RUSSIANS CLAIM VICTORIES OVER AUSTRIANS

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Petrograd correspondent of The Post, sends the following concerning the operations on the Russian frontier: "Russia is scoring success after success against Austria. While pushing a temporary advance in South Poland, the Russians were forcing their way westward from Podolia and Bessarabia on Lemburg. Apparently the progress of the Southern Russian army in Galicia has been a series of fights on an increasing scale until the river Foul Lipa was reached. The fight for possession of this valley was severe. The Austrian forces, a whole army corps, lost half its strength. Evidently all actions were part of a concerted movement with the surrounding of Lemburg as its objective as dealing a death blow to the Austrian defense."

WAR HEROES' NAMES GIVEN TO CHILDREN

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Grim as war news is, it is not without its lighter side of amusing incidents, oddities and romance.
The conferring of war names upon children began as soon as the first blood was shed. "Albert Leman Liege" Hopkins and "Marie Alsace Lorraine" Lecomte have already been registered in London.

ONE ARREST IN GARDINER CASE

Sheriff Quine Picks Up Suspect on Siuslaw and is Returning to Gardiner

(Special to The Times.)
GARDINER, Or., Sept. 3.—Sheriff Quine is expected here late today from the Siuslaw with a suspect whom he has arrested in connection with the Gardiner Mill Company robbery. No particulars have been received from Sheriff Quine. However, it is believed that he must have strong evidence or he would not bring the prisoner back. Three men were alleged to have pulled off the robbery and then separated, going different ways. This was the only development in the case today.
Mr. Christie, in charge of the Gardiner Mill Company's offices, states that the report that Mr. Jewett had $100,000 worth of bonds and securities in the safe which was not opened is erroneous. He says that they do not carry so many valuables there and not nearly as much as is currently reported. They aim to carry only what cash and papers are absolutely necessary there.

A great battle is raging, but with what result, I know not, but the French and British armies are intact and are confident of ultimate success. ### Developments Of The Day Reported By Associated Press Dispatches To Coos Bay Times

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
The absence of official announcements from the belligerent capitals is taken as a sure indication that fighting continues, but without a decisive result.
The Germans are pushing their right wing nearer Paris, while the center and left appears held back by the French.
Russia is pressing forward in the Austrian province of Galicia after having taken the strongly fortified capital of Lemburg. The Germans are admittedly victorious in East Prussia.
The Japanese are said to have occupied seven islands near Kiao Chow and to have landed additional troops within marching distance of a German stronghold, despite the chance of protests.

FRENCH CAPITAL CHANGED FROM PARIS TO BORDEAUX TODAY

President Poincare and His Cabinet Leave Paris for the New Seat of Government Today as a Precautionary Measure Because of Near Approach of German Troops

FOREIGN DIPLOMATIC CORPS WITH EXCEPTION OF AMERICAN AMBASSADOR ACCOMPANY GOVERNMENT

Parisians Remain Calm Under Exciting Conditions Recognizing the Move as a Matter of Prudence Although They Feel Keenly the Approach of Germany Army

BORDEAUX, France, Sept. 3.—President Poincare and the French Cabinet arrived here today and were greeted by immense cheering crowds. They have established headquarters for the government.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
PARIS, Sept. 3.—President Poincare and his cabinet have left for Bordeaux, the new French seat of government, where the President will arrive in the morning.

The diplomatic corps, excepting the United States Embassy, accompanied the government to Bordeaux. American Ambassador Herrick decided to remain in Paris. His course was warmly commended by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, because, as representative of the most powerful neutral nation, he will be able, should occasion arise, to serve the French as well as his own people. The American Ambassador sent J. W. Garrett, Minister to Argentine, Louis Suesdorf, third secretary, and Captain Parker, military attache, to Bordeaux with Secretary Bryan's approval.

Two trains reserved for the President and members of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies left for Bordeaux this afternoon. Besides the American Ambassador, the Swiss Minister decided to remain in Paris.

Paris Is Calm.
Parisians take the government's departure calmly, recognizing that it is a matter of prudence. Although the city generally is placid, they feel keenly the approach of the German army and are rapidly preparing for eventualities.

Many families left today for the west, taking household necessities. Railroads north of Paris virtually have ceased running trains for fear of possible raids by German cavalry.

ENGLISH CONSIDER MOVE A WISE ONE

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)
LONDON, Sept. 3.—The decision of the French government to withdraw from Paris, while proving a momentary shock to the man in the street, is regarded by politicians and strategists here as being as wise as it is painful. The Lorraine passes as a governmental center would, it is held, be incompatible with the necessities of France which are to keep the government free to act and to keep the army an unbroken force which can neither be captured in detail nor shut up in fortresses.
