WAR NEWS

THE facilities for gathering and distributing news were never better than they are today. Nor the facilities for preventing its gathering and distributing.

HORROR OF WAR

EVERY day the horror of the great European conflict is impressed more and more vividly upon us. The latest is Kitchener's declaration that the war may last three years. If he is right, the catastrophe that will be wrought is almost impossible to conceive.

WHEN THE SWORD IS SHEATHED.

THE sword ought never again to be sheathed. It ought to be broken. This war that threatens the world, destroying the treasures of civilization and turning back humanity to savagery, famine and death, ought to be the world's last war. In order that it may be the last, its weapons ought to be put out of the reach of any nation. The spoils of this war ought to be not new territory for the victors, and not the destruction of the vanquished, but disarmament for vanquished and victors alike.

LIVE NEWSPAPER MEN.

That naval engagement off the Coos coast came through without censoring. It may have happened, but it probably did not happen. There are some live newsmen down that way and "good copy" is scarcer than Len's teeth there, at times. A few days ought to yield something in the way of "floats" to back the yarn, unless all four ships went down together, and instantly. We await the finalities with bated breath.

WHAT SHERMAN SAID ABOUT WAR

Literal Text of Exact Language Used by Famous General
 "I confess without shame that I am tired and sick of war. It's glory is all moonshine. Even success the most brilliant is over dead and mangled bodies, the anguish and lamentations of distant families appealing to me for missing sons, husbands and fathers. It is only those who have not heard a shot nor heard the shrieks and groans of the wounded and lacerated that cry aloud for more blood, more vengeance, more desolation. War is hell."

War Causes Fight.—H. C. Diers who was here from North Bend today, stated that a German and a Frenchman, just in from the railroad work, got into a fight in North Bend yesterday following a discussion of the war. The German came out victorious in about three minutes.

HEAR THE ANVIL CHORUS!

Was that a sure enough battle off Coos Bay or did some good joke artist merely fire an anvil?

MARSHFIELD THE INEVITABLE

Like death and the rising of the sun, it was inevitable. Marshfield, Coos County, Oregon, U. S. A., has at last found something upon which to hinge an European war story.

BENEFITS OF WAR.

Great are the benefits of war to the Oregon coast. Marshfield, on Coos Bay, all last week revelled in a naval battle that did not occur. Now Florence, Oregon, expects to receive great benefits from shipping activity revived by the clash of arms.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Belgium has had three kings and the Kaiser seems determined that it shall not get another in the draw.

A USELESS WAR.

There have been wars and wars in the history of the world, and most of them have had a reason. But the present European war has two marked characteristics. First, it bids fair to be the most expensive, and the most destructive war ever known.

WITH THE TEA AND THE TOAST

Prizes will not be worn by neat dressers this fall. Neckties will continue to be trimmed with flies and buzz saws. Purple and yellow trousers are no longer considered good taste.

FASHION HINTS FOR MEN

You've a very narrow skirt, Little Girl.
 Are you sure it doesn't hurt, Little Girl?
 That's a mincing little stride. Where the street is wide and wide. Are you sure that's room inside, Little Girl?

LITTLE GIRL

What will happen if you slip, Little Girl?
 Aren't you fearful it will rip, Little Girl?
 You had better take a sack, So if anything should crack, It would serve you coming back, Little Girl.

VETERINARY COMING.

Dr. J. L. Masson, graduate of the San Francisco Veterinary College, and the only licensed veterinary in Coos county, will be in Marshfield Saturday, September 5, at the Chandler Hotel. All interested in horses are invited to call.

MYRTLE POINT BANK CHANGE

J. R. BENSON AND L. A. ROBERTS SELL INTEREST TO STOCK COMPANY—R. E. LUNDY TO BE PRESIDENT—ANNIN REMAINS. (Special to The Times.)

MYRTLE POINT, Or., Sept. 4.—It is announced that negotiations have been practically closed whereby President J. R. Benson and L. A. Roberts have sold their interest in the Bank of Myrtle Point to a syndicate of local people and ranchers. W. E. Lundy, of Huling & Lundy, one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Myrtle Point, is to succeed Mr. Benson as president. R. A. Annin, who has been cashier of the bank for the past year will remain with the bank in his present capacity. A number of different ones have taken some of the stock and some of the old stockholders have increased their holding.

J. R. Benson started the Bank of Myrtle Point many years ago as a private institution with $10,000 capital. Later he re-organized it under the Oregon banking laws, increasing the capital to $25,000. It has been most successful. The loss of $10,000 sustained when bank robbers blew up the safe last November was made up by the stockholders immediately.

The bank recently discharged Detective Mitchell who has been working for months on the robbery and who was instrumental in securing the conviction of Larry Miller for the crime, after paying out over $2000 to him.

L. A. Roberts is a son-in-law of Mr. Benson. Both will remain in Myrtle Point and Mr. Benson will now take a well-earned rest. He has extensive holdings in this section in addition to his banking interests.

Sheriff in Marshfield.—Sheriff Gage is here from Coquille today on business. He has subpoenas for some grand jury cases and other matters connected with court.

TURKEY YEARNS FOR WAR.

Sultan's Government Ignores All the Peace Efforts of Powers.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Daily Telegraph's diplomatic correspondent, in a printed article, says: "Turkey may declare war at any moment. It is now only a matter of a few days, possibly a few hours." "All efforts of the powers in the Triple Entente have failed and the London embassy admits the situation is grave. The military party, now dominant in Constantinople, has reached the conclusion that the present is the best time to secure the restoration of Macedonia and the Aegean Islands.

"German officers and men are being poured into Constantinople to help the Turkish army and navy. Turkey apparently counts on the Balkan states quarrelling among themselves while Turkey fights Greece, but it seems likely that Turkey's declaration of war against Greece will be regarded as a hostile act by the Triple Entente, which will send a fleet to dispose of all the Turkish and German ships.

"The British government has warned Turkey plainly that in starting any campaign at this time she signs her own death warrant."

ENGLAND'S PREMIER URGES ALL LOYAL BRITONS TO HELP CAUSE AT ARMS

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Premier Asquith has decided to address meetings in the principal cities of the United Kingdom to make plain the cause of the war and to set forth that it is the duty of every man to do his part to make the issue a successful one for the British arms. The premier has directed letters to the lord mayors of the various cities with regard to these meetings, in which he says: "The time has come for a combined effort to stimulate and organize public opinion and public effort in the greatest conflict in which our people have ever been engaged. No one who can contribute anything to the accomplishment of this supremely urgent task is justified in standing aside.

"I propose as a first step that meetings should be held without delay, not only in our great centers of population and industry, but in every district, urban and rural, throughout the kingdom, at which the justice of our cause should be made plain and the duty of every man to do his part set forth.

"I venture to suggest to your lordships that the principal cities over which you respectively preside should lead the way. I, myself, am ready, as far as the exigencies of public duty permit, to give such help as I can, and I should be glad, with that object, to address my fellow subjects in your cities.

"I have reason to know that I can count upon the cooperation of the leaders of every section of organized public opinion."

CANAL WIRELESS CLOSED TO GUARD NEUTRALITY

PANAMA, Sept. 4.—To better preserve the neutrality of the Panama Canal, the United States has taken over the wireless telegraph in Panama. At the earnest solicitation of William J. Price, the American minister, President Ferras has signed a decree giving perpetual complete control of wireless in Panama to the United States.

SAVE LIBERTY IS APPEAL TO FRENCH IN SPIRITED MANIFESTO

Final Victory Assured, Declares New Cabinet in Proclamation They Have Issued

FACE TO THE FRONTIER! HAVE METHOD AND WILL

Confidence, Energy, Self Sacrifice Urged as Duty, to Prevent National Stain

PARIS, Sept. 4.—The cabinet has issued the following manifesto to the country:

"Frenchmen: The new government has just taken possession of its post of honor and of the combat. The country knows it may count upon its energy and that it gives itself, with all its soul to the country's defense."

Shed Blood for Fatherland.
 "The government knows it may count upon the country. Its sons are shedding their blood for the fatherland and liberty alongside the heroic Belgian and English armies. They support the most formidable form of shot and shell that has ever been let loose upon a people, and everyone stands firm. To them glory! Glory to the living and glory to the dead! Thanks to so much heroism, final victory is assured.

"Certainly a great battle is waging, but it is not decisive. Whatever may be the result the struggle will continue, France is not as easy a prey as the insolence of the enemy imagines. Frenchmen, the present duty is tragic, but simple. Repulse the enemy, pursue him and save our soil from this stain. Save liberty from his grasp. Hold fast as long as need be until the end. Lift up our minds and souls above the peril and remain the masters of our destiny.

Russians March Forward.
 "Meanwhile our Russian allies

march with decided steps toward the German capital that is pervaded with anxiety, and inflict many reverses on its troops which retire.

"We ask of the country all the sacrifices and all the resources that it can furnish in men and energy. Be firm then and resolute. Let the national life, aided by appropriate financial and administrative measures, continue uninterrupted.

"Let us have confidence in ourselves. Let us forget all that is not of the nation. Face to the frontier! We have the method and the will. We shall have the victory."

TAKE PARIS OR DIE, SAYS KAISER WILLIAM

Emperor Issues Drastic Orders to German Troops.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Times correspondent at Ostend records at second hand a conversation with a German officer from Brussels, who said that frantic efforts were being made to inflict a crushing blow to the allies, especially on the English forces. Notwithstanding the success of the German soldiers there is a feeling among them that they are fighting against too great odds. Despite all efforts to conceal the news from Prussia, it is said information of a disquieting character regarding developments there is beginning to circulate among the German forces and this feeling of anxiety was intensified when two divisions, totaling 80,000 men, passed the Meuse by the bridge of Andenne at Selles, between Namur and Liege, en route to German Holland.

The emperor has made it known to every German soldier that his orders are to take Paris or die, the dispatch concludes.

RAYMOND BORREO, son of W. G. Borreo, will leave on the next Nann Smith for California to visit relatives.

ALONG the WATERFRONT
 The Paraiso will sail at 11 o'clock Saturday morning for San Francisco, being compelled to delay her sailing, owing to the big freight traffic. The Adeline Smith will sail from here tomorrow with a cargo of lumber.

In Peace and War Modern Methods and Weapons Win

To send an army into action equipped with the weapons of fifty years ago would be to send it to quick destruction.

To try to do modern business, nowadays, on the lines that were usual fifty years ago is equal folly.

Fifty years ago the muzzle-loading rifle was the vogue. Today, not even squirrel hunters use it. In modern warfare it would be little better than a club.

Fifty years ago business was conducted on the muzzle-loading plan. If a man sought work, he walked about asking his friends to look out for an opening for him. If a man wanted to sell real estate, he placarded it. If he sought tenants, he placed a card in the window of the vacant property.

All that constituted "muzzle-loading publicity" Today, quick-firing publicity is the vogue.

The Times classified advertising gives to your proposition quick-fire publicity.

Using it you are on an equal footing with your competitors. Neglecting it, and reverting to muzzle-loading publicity, you have no competitive chance at all.
