TIDES FOR SEPTEMBER
Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison of consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on the bar subtract two hours 34 minutes.

says his famous launch led by over a hundred yards. Hickox will probably issue a challenge for another race soon.

New Real Estate Firm.—Mel G. Duncan, until recently secretary of the Builders' Exchange and formerly in the real estate business, has formed a partnership with August Frizeen in the real estate, rental and insurance business. Mr. Frizeen has built up an extensive business in these lines and Mr. Duncan is an experienced man who has made many friends during his residence in Marshfield and they should make a strong combination.

Brings in Salmon.—The Roamer, which returned Thursday night from the Siuslaw, brought in a large consignment of salmon for reshipment from here north. She also had considerable chittam bark. Capt. Ed Skog states that business is now good and merchants here and on the Siuslaw are appreciating the excellent service the Roamer is giving them. The Siuslaw bar has not been very good lately but Capt. Skog hopes to maintain his schedule throughout the winter.

BORN

PETERSON—To Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Peterson at their home in North Bend, Saturday, September 5, a daughter, their first child.

Build Silo.—S. C. Rogers has purchased cement to erect a silo on his ranch and also to put in some concrete floors in his stock barns.

On Outing.—Harry Painter and family left in their auto today for Brewster Valley, where they will camp out for four or five days.

Clears Ranch.—Jack McDonald came in today from Loon Lake where he is busy clearing his fine ranch. He is blasting out a large tract now.

Change Council Meeting.—The Marshfield City Council will meet on Tuesday evening of next week instead of Monday, that being Labor Day, a national holiday.

After Autoist.—Nightwatch Shoup turned in a complaint today that Lynn Lambeth's auto was standing in the street at 2:30 last night without the lights being burning.

Excursion to Golden Falls.—Capt. Herman Edwards will run the Alert tomorrow to Allegany to connect with autos for the Golden Falls. This will probably be the last opportunity this season to make the trip in one day.

Find Coal.—Duncan Ferguson says he thinks the Perham & Gidley steam shovel unearthed croppings of coal near his property on North Eighth street. It resembles coal but is very soft. He will have it investigated to see if he has a coal mine.

Farmers' Union.—A meeting of the local Farmers' Union and also of the Coos County Farmers' Union were held at the Odd Fellows' Hall today. O. A. McIntyre, of Coquille, was among those present. Only business of a private nature was taken up.

Paving Delayed.—Supt. Ashby of Warren Bros. Construction Co., stated yesterday that it was still uncertain when they would be able to resume work on their contracts here. He said that he had no recent advices from Portland as to the financial situation easing up.

Received Bad News.—Mrs. Nellie Owen will leave for McMinnville, via Allegany, tomorrow morning in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her aunt, Mrs. Jacob Wortman, at that place. Mrs. Wortman is well advanced in years and little hope is entertained for her recovery. Mrs. Owen will try to reach her bedside before her death.

Welcome Niles.—Gordon Rasmussen and a number of the local football stars and college men are planning a welcome for Nelson Niles, the star fullback of Whitman college in Washington, who is due here soon to assume his position in the Marshfield high school faculty as athletic director. Aside from his athletic ability, he has a warm personality.

Fine Gravenstein Apples.—Charles Stauff has some splendid specimens of Gravenstein apples on exhibition. They came from the C. H. Nosler ranch at bridge and are large and well colored, varying from as low as thirty-six to the box to forty-five and fifty. The Times office force acknowledged with thanks the fine tasting ones presented to them.

Boat Race.—Lew Gillespie is all wreathed in smiles this afternoon as a result of a victory over Chas. Hickox's motor boat. This race has been made famous by the two years' efforts to arrange it. Over a two-mile course, Mr. Gillespie
