

THIS is one of the many styles of Overcoats we are showing this Fall. Our new model Balmacean is especially attractive.

Hart Schaffner & Marx have made most of these coats from rain-proofed fabrics which makes them especially good for this country.

Wind: southwest; cloudy.

Elder In.—The George W. Elder arrived in shortly before noon today Services at Summer.—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall of the cruiser Life Line, will speak at Summer Tuesday evening at 7:30.

One Offender.—Harry Hunter was arrested by Officer Richardson this morning on the charge of being drunk. He will have a hearing later. He had about $11 cash.

Close Today.—The Parisian will be closed Labor Day like the other stores. Through an error the name was omitted from the list of business houses agreeing to close.

Buya Home.—Joseph Cartier has purchased a small fruit and chicken ranch on Isthmus Inlet, a short distance south of Eastside, from Henry Sengstacken and has taken possession.

Fine Dance.—The band dance Saturday night was a big success and enjoyed by a great throng. By special request it will be repeated next Saturday night and the floor will be put in fine shape.

Many Shells.—The dredge Featle, which is pumping below Empire, has encountered big deposits of clam shells, which are cemented together until it is almost like digging concrete.

To Enlarge.—H. W. Painter will shortly add to his wholesale quarters by moving his offices into the quarters now occupied by E. L. Hopson's harness shop. Mr. Hopson will move to Front and Alder.

Meet Tuesday.—The Guild of the Episcopal church will hold its opening session for the year tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in Guild Hall at Second and Market avenue. The rector will give a short address on the subject: "The Church and Its Function in the Community." Strangers are cordially invited.

Keep Dredge Here.—The Coos Bay Port Commission will meet next Monday to take up various matters. They have advanced the payroll of the dredge Oregon until September 15 and unless the Rivers and Harbors bill is passed soon, they will probably retain her another month and maybe longer. She is doing fine work on the Pony Inlet shoals.

Dies in Salem.—Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. L. M. Perry, for several years proprietor of a North Bend millinery store, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Steiner, in Salem, where she has resided for the past few years. Mrs. Perry was highly respected by all who knew her and news of her death will cause much regret on the Bay.

Big Money in Cash Prizes may be earned with my new invention, "BATTLEFIELDS OF EUROPE" Even grandad, the little tots and the entire family will be delighted. Price, one silver dime. Rain Helps.—The rain yesterday and today was of great general benefit and did not stop the auto traffic but will improve it by settling the dust. The sunshine today helped the Labor Day picnic. The shower broke a drought of nearly eighty days.
Chinese Railroad Man.—Ma Gioa, a representative of the Chinese government, arrived here Saturday night after making an inspection trip over the Eugene-Coos Bay line. He is getting ideas for railroad work in China. He was accompanied in by Mr. Lewis, an engineer, who was sent by the company from Eugene. While here, Ma Gioa is going over the details of the railroad construction with the Southern Pacific engineers at North Bend. He has been in this country only about nine months and speaks very brokenly, but is evidently a Chinese of high rank.
