

LABOR PICNIC BIG SUCCESS

Rain Detracts From Day Attendance but Dance Draws Well—Mrs. Bailey Wins

LABOR.
The ring of the hammer is music, The whirl of machinery song; The fall of the pick and shovel Hath a tune that is free and strong.

There is naught so priceless as labor, No wealth like muscle and brawn; The progressive life of the nation Fares forth with its workers at dawn.

The symphony of life is labor, The hope of the weak and the strong; The grandest asset of the nation, Is that of the great working throng.

Despite the rain and unfavorable weather conditions, the Labor Day picnic at Simpson Park in North Bend yesterday was a big success. The showers prevented the athletic program being carried out and detracted considerably from the afternoon's attendance, but the immense crowd at the dance and its success in the evening more than made up for this.

In the afternoon George Cole presided as chairman of the speaking exercises. Tom Myers delivered the principal Labor Day talk. Orator Davis of the Socialists spoke and Sheriff W. W. Gage and J. J. Stanley, two democratic candidates for Coos county offices, also spoke. The program was held in the Simpson pavilion.

In the popularity voting contest, Mrs. Bailey of North Bend was an easy victor, Mrs. Chase of Marshfield being second. Mrs. Bailey was awarded the $20 cash prize.

The receipts at the dance were large and it is believed will make up the deficit suffered on the day entertainment and probably give the Labor Council a profit of $75 or $100.

Has Bad Ankle.—J. W. Bennett, who is confined to his home with some bad ulcers on his ankle, was reported better today, but will be confined for some days yet.

Wedded Today.—Jas. R. Benn and Miss Frances Kooa were married by Justice Penneck today. They were from near Bandon. Benn is a tie-maker and is from Missouri and stated that they would return there soon.

Road Is Bad.—Flagstaff residents are complaining about the condition of the road. They say that the crush-rock put down this summer is being carried off as mud and is almost impassable, especially near the big cut. They want the rock road oiled to save it. W. J. Rust said today that a meeting would probably be called there soon to take action on it.

AMONG THE SICK

Chas. Olson's son is reported quite ill of mumps at Eastside.

DR. DIX'S DOG WINS

Captures Prizes in Seattle Kennel Contest.
The following from a Portland paper concerning the results of the big dog show at the Seattle Kennel club will be of interest here:
"The Irish setter, 'Erin Kildare,' owned by Dr. Dix of Marshfield, and shown by Cauton, won two firsts and a reserve in the winner's class."
Dr. Dix's dog has been in training at Portland and a full brother owned by H. J. McKeown succumbed to lockjaw. However, there is a question about it as Dr. McKeown thinks Dix's dog died and that the animal now claimed to be Dix's dog is really his.

COOS POLITICS.

The fall campaign is now at hand. The while each candidate rehearses with others up and down the land. His many pro and con-troversies. Alf Johnson was in Marshfield Saturday mobilizing the voters to march on the polls in November. Alf says the Germans have nothing on him when it comes to being prepared. E. H. Kern, the independent candidate for county surveyor, was in the city Saturday interviewing the voters.

MANY BUILD AT TENMILE

Wm. Eickworth Reports Death of Residences Despite Number Just Completed

Wm. Eickworth returned Saturday from Ten Mile where he has been engaged in construction work (his past summer. He reports that Ten Mile is having an unusual era of prosperity and that dwelling houses there are at premium. Rents are as high there as in Marshfield.

C. E. Baker has just finished his new bungalow at Lakeside. While in that district Mr. Eickworth assisted in remodeling the home of W. M. Wilkins, building a large addition to Ed Raymond's home, built a small cottage for Hills Short and aided in completing the top story of the new hotel.

A. Petersep, of North Bend, is figuring on putting up a two-story building in Lakeside for business purposes and it is likely that a part of it will be occupied by the Post-office.

FATHER DIES NEAR M'COY

John D. Kelty, Father of Dr. Kelty, of Marshfield, Succumbs in Polk County

The following from a Portland paper will be of interest here, as Dr. H. E. Kelty, a dentist who succeeded Dr. Hendry in Marshfield, is a son of the deceased, and was called home ten days or so ago:

John D. Kelty, who died at his home near McCoy, Oregon, September 2, was a pioneer of 1852.

Mr. Kelty was born in Davies County, Indiana, April 28, 1831. His father, James Kelty, emigrated with his family bound for Oregon Territory early in the spring of 1852. His mother and one sister died on the trip.

In September, 1855, Mr. Kelty married Sarah Harvey, daughter of Amos and Sarah Harvey, who were pioneers of Polk County.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelty at once located on a farm in Whitcomb Valley, a few miles northeast of Bethel, where they lived for several years, finally moving to Bethel, where, under the firm name of Hawley & Kelty, he engaged in the mercantile business. Mr. Kelty was appointed Postmaster of Bethel and served for many years.

In 1875 he retired from merchandising, having purchased the land of the Amos Harvey heirs. He continued to live on this old homestead until the time of his death. His wife dying in 1867, he married later Jane Harvey, who survives him.

For many years Mr. Kelty was a school director, and at the time of his death was chairman of the board of Bethel College, an educational institution founded by legislative charter in 1856.

Mr. Kelty also took great interest in the Pioneer Association, of which he was an active member and regular attendant for many years. He was a member of the Christian Church.

RACE CLASH IN FERNDALE NOW

W. V. Wright Charges Negro Drayman With Threatening To Shoot Him There

W. V. Wright, of Ferndale, who is employed on the Perham & Gidley street contract work, today entered complaint with Justice Penneck against a negro drayman who lives near the old Ferndale brewery, alleging that the negro threatened to shoot him. No formal complaint was filed, as Justice Penneck did not know just how to proceed except to possibly put the negro under bond.

Wright told Justice Penneck that he was from the South and did not associate with negroes. He said that some time ago he had to accompany a former tenant across the negro's place to get some chickens belonging to the latter and the negro then got sassy. Lately he helped get a mattress or bed, carrying it across the negro's lot and the latter claimed that they broke down a small cherry tree. There were words over this and then, Wright alleges, the negro threatened to shoot him. Mr. Wright said that in the South such words would have been sufficient ground for a white man to kill a negro, but he did not like to get into trouble here.

Justice Penneck said that Wright was very agreeable about the matter and wanted to adjust it amicably. Mr. Wright was planning to move from that vicinity, but since the trouble has decided not to lest the negro think that he drove him away.

F. S. Perry received another raft of spruce logs at his veneer plant yesterday and will be operating steadily now for some time. Mr. Perry says if he could get logs he has contracts enough to keep his plant running for ten months in the year, but that it is a hard proposition to get spruce just now, and that is the only kind of timber he uses.—Bandon Recorder.
