A MUSICAL MENU

W. J. Conrad says that while he likes music with his meals, he thinks Landlord McKeown of the Chandler would make a greater hit with his orchestra if he selected the music with more appreciation of its appropriateness to the menu. Now if "Con" were musical director he maintains he would have the tunes as follows with selections from the menu:
"Will You Love Me When I'm Old"—with the cheese.
"I Know I Am Weak and Sinful"—with the coffee.
"Old Dog Tray"—with the sausage.
"Ties That Bind Me to Naples"—with the spaghetti.
"She May Have Seen Better Days"—with the chicken.
"Silver Threads Among The Gold"—with the butter.
"I arise From Dreams of Thee"—with the Welsh rabbit.

PERSONAL MENTION

IVY CONDRON went some place with his buzz wagon Thursday, failing to report.
ROY WERNICH, of North Bend, was seen on our street Thursday evening to assimilate war news.
GEO. E. COOK made a flying trip to Front street one day this week. George is some traveler.
A. E. NEFF says he does not care who goes to war so long as Coos Bay spends its money for gymnasiums instead of guns.
ED. McKEOWN, Mayor of Coaledo, was in town Wednesday night, to join the Elks. Ed is some joiner if he isn't a carpenter.
JOHN S. MEREEN who is an admirer of Germany in the present struggle is arranging to send six chain saws to Kaiser Wilhelm to help cut down the French stand-army.
GEORGE GOODRUM returned this week from an extended trip east. George says there was great excitement in Chicago over the naval battle off Coos Bay.
BEN CHANDLER grew weary of chasing the almighty dollar in the bank and went hunting. He returned this week and says deers are about as hard to chase as dollars.
GEORGE SEELIG, chief upholder of the German defense on Central Avenue, captured the entire French army and wiped Paris off the map Wednesday much to the delight of Herr-Dorsey Kreitzer.
FRANK COHAN, our well-known druggist, has been made a member of Rice's World's Leaders Association, and he is as proud as Dr. Dix over his prize winning dog. You can't keep Central Avenue out of the spotlight.
THE HARDSHIPS OF WAR
"Gasoline is getting high," remarked Gene Crosthwaite.
"Yes, the wolf is at the door of my garage," replied Dr. Dix.

"The smoke-house"

GOOD PLACE FOR AN HOUR'S RECREATION

Since 1870

This store has been filling prescriptions. We have prescriptions on our files today that were filled for some of Marshfield's prominent people when they were children. But never in its nearly half century of existence has this store been so thoroughly equipped to fill prescriptions as it is today.

That Marshfield might have one efficiently equipped prescription pharmacy and that both doctor and patient might receive the utmost benefit, "The Owl" in addition to ITS ACCURATE AND SCIENTIFIC METHODS has completely stocked its prescription department with drugs and chemicals from the world's famous house of E. R. Squibb & Sons. This is the only stock of Squibb's chemicals in Coos County.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR.

CENTRAL AVENUE JOTTINGS.

Rain At Last—A refreshing rain fell this week. It fell alike on the just and on L. L. Thomas.

New Offices—Docs. Morrow and Hamilton have been busy fitting up their new offices in the Irving block this week.

Too Much Booze—Charley Thoms' beer wagon went into the ditch in front of The Chandler Tuesday morning. Al Glossop says that is always the result of a big load of booze. Some little joker, Al.

Breach of Peace Threatened—Two of our highly esteemed citizens engaged in a warm war of words during an altercation one day this week. Are the scenes of Europe to be repeated on Central Avenue?

Violates Neutrality—Landlord McKeown who is a British sympathizer refuses to serve German fried potatoes any more and John Meehen threatens to notify President Wilson claiming it is a violation of neutrality.

Making Things Move—J. T. Harrigan surrounded the German army and captured Berlin yesterday much to the disgust of Henry Sengstacken, who says the Kaiser is sure to win if he only has Germans enough.

Necessities of Life—Ray Ollivant is expected home from his vacation trip this week. Ray writes that way back in the hills whenever he came upon the secluded cabin of a hardy rancher he always found they had two things on the kitchen table between meals, a bible and a copy of the Booster.

Thanks Dave, Come Again—Hon. David Y. Stafford, the brilliant and talented candy manufacturer, bounteously bestowed upon our editor a box of his superb sweet meats this week. Mr. Stafford is a high minded and progressive citizen and others should adopt his methods. It looks like the high cost of living might become a serious proposition, and anyone with a ham or a sack of sugar is welcome.

OUR COFFEE

HAS MADE US MANY FRIENDS.

First of all they were Coffee Customers only. Then one day they decided to try some of our Tea.

They liked both, then they are our steady Tea and Coffee customers.

Then they noticed that our Bacon looked pretty good. Tried it. Delighted—and so it goes.

Our eatables aren't good ONLY IN SPOTS. It's our aim to have the stock faultless through and through. That's a high standard to set. Naturally once in a while we fall below it.

BUT THAT'S OUR AIM. And in attempting this we get just about as high an average of grocery goodness as any store in this country. You may as well benefit.
