Services Postponed.—The open air services planned by the Norwegian Lutheran churches of Marshfield and North Bend for this coming Sunday have been postponed on account of the unpleasant weather.

More Students.—The enrollment at the Bunker Hill School this year is ninety-seven, a decided gain over last year, and is crowding Principal Drillette. In Mrs. Kelly's room there is an enrollment of thirty-eight.

Are Ill.—Misses Lavina and Elizabeth Painter, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Painter, are quarantined for scarlet fever. Mr. Painter and Dorothy and Wayne are making their home with his mother for the time being.

Allowed Damages.—T. F. Crawford, of South Marshfield, who protested to the City Council and the Port of Coos Bay because his garden was flooded during the dredge fill last spring, has been allowed $100 damages by the Port of Coos Bay Commission.

Services Sunday.—Rev. A. F. Bassford of the Marshfield Baptist church will assist Rev. G. LeRoy Hall in holding special services on the cruiser Life Line at Kentuck Inlet next Sunday. A special chorus of Marshfield singers will accompany them.

Band to Leave.—Manager Wilson has completed arrangements for the departure of the Coos Bay Concert Band for the State Fair. They will leave next Thursday on the Geo. W. Elder for Portland, where they will stop over one day before proceeding to Salem.

Back from Portland.—Loren Hudson, a deck-hand on the steamer Albert, returned this morning from Portland, where he has been for the past week on a vacation. He came into Marshfield over the Roseburg road, making the greater part of the trip by automobile.

Moves to Bandon.—B. F. Wyatt, formerly at the Loon Lake Creamery, who has been living above the Golden and Silver Falls, came down on the boat this morning, bringing with him his family and two scows of cattle and household goods. He is expecting to go on to Bandon, where he will locate permanently.

Has Surprise Party.—More than eighteen friends of Ernest Peterson, at Haynes Inlet, held a birthday surprise party for him last evening bringing with them baskets of refreshments. The evening was enjoyably spent in games and merrymaking.

Loses Tool Kit.—Dr. L. K. Strate of North Bend, is mourning the loss of his motorcycle tool kit which was stolen off his machine yesterday when he left it for a few minutes near the dock. The outfit can be easily identified and unless it is returned the parties taking it are likely to get into serious difficulty.

Brings Deer Heads.—True Saline, who lives above Allegany near the Golden and Silver Falls, came down on the boat this morning, bringing with him two large four and five point deer heads which he has mounted. The animals were killed by local hunters during the late summer and the heads left with Mr. Saline to be mounted.

Rough Night.—Dr. Horsfall was called to Empire about 2 o'clock this morning and says that it was the roughest weather he has encountered in a long time. There was a heavy wind and rain and it was very dark. However, the road was well packed as a result of the rain and is really in better condition than it has been.

Wins Case.—Capt. C. E. Edwards returned last evening from Eugene, where he was called in the lawsuit which he started against A. N. Denny, who was in partnership with him three years ago in the Allegany-Drain auto stage line, for $84. Denny filed a cross suit claiming that Capt. Edwards owed him $150 in addition to the face of the note, but this was knocked out.

Services Resumed.—August Frizzen received notice today that steamship tickets can now be sold direct to and from American ports to Scandinavia, Belgium, France and even a German port. Mr. Frizzen is agent for the White Star line and it announces that the Red Star line vessels are now under the British flag instead of the German flag. For a long time tickets were not sold to hardly any European ports outside of England.

Western Union Line.—Capt. Edwards, who returned last evening via Drain from Eugene states that he met an engineer named Grubb who informed him that he (Grubb) had a crew of seven engineers surveying a route for a new Western Union line from Drain to Gardner. He said that Mr. Grubb informed him that this line would be in addition to the new line via Florence to Union. Manager Schetter of the Western Union here knew nothing of the plan but he is hoping that the company will hurry up and get some kind of a line in here.

Service to Florence.—V. C. Gorst, Capt. Cornwall and Barret Brothers have formed a partnership to inaugurate an auto stage between Coos Bay and the Siuslaw, beginning about October 1. The line will be a continuation of the service between the Bay and the Umpqua. Capt. Cornwall will maintain his Drain stage line, but the new line is planned to connect up with the train service on the Coos Bay-Eugene line which is to be extended to Mapleton some time next month. From Florence or Glenada, river boats will handle the traffic to Mapleton, a distance of about fifteen miles. They have a number of Ford cars for the run and plan to make the trip between the Siuslaw and Coos Bay in five hours.
