DAY'S END

Evening shadows gather
In the western sky,
The glowing lights of sunset
Glimmer far and die.

The sounds of toil grow fainter,
Lights gleam far and wide
The hedges of the twilight
The hills and valleys hide.

The king may have his palace,
The knight his castle old,
And Croesus sink to slumber
On couch of woven gold.

But he has peace as perfect
And happiness as sweet
Who at day's end finds waiting
A home where loved ones meet!

—Arthur Wallace Peach.

STYLE has an appreciable intrinsic value all its own. It is a rather elusive commodity, but there are occasions, and they are not infrequent, when it will achieve victories as surely, and in the same way, as personality can and does. It is an all-embracing possession; it affects appearance, tone and manners.

Its value today is higher than it ever was. Few people can really afford to do without it. Its influences are far-reaching, and no one can say where the end of its effect is likely to be. And yet, with it all—and it can certainly be regarded as a commercial asset nowadays—comparatively few people seem to trouble themselves about acquiring it. For it can be acquired. If it happens to be born in you so much the better, of course. But you are not in the least hopelessly handicapped if it does not happen to come about in this pleasant way.

It may have to begin with your way of walking. To walk badly is to hit at the root of style. It is so easy to walk badly if you were sure of yourself, and as if, at least, you felt you had some right to walk. A slovenly walk and a slouching gait are usually owing to sheer laziness and carelessness.

It is impossible to enjoy any style if your clothes are cut badly. Better to go to a tailor with a good and comparatively poor cloth than a tailor with good cloth and a bad cut. The bad fitting garments of the cheap tailor and dressmaker are an abomination and will spoil and one's appearance.

Shoes, hats and gloves are no less important. A hat, in fact, is one of the most difficult things to decide upon. There are so many shapes that a woman has hard work not to be tempted away from the safe shape. A hat out of sympathy with the rest of the outfit strikes a terribly jarring note. The tying of a tie and a shoelace are just as important in their way.

An absurd display of cheap jewelry, which includes rings and various chain necklaces, too much fluffiness about the neck, and a hat trimmed out of all proportion to the rest of the attire, seem to have, for some amazing reason, rather more than the attraction of a magnet for many girls. They may be dressed absolutely correct in every other particular, and then, by the adoption of one incongruity, to put it kindly, they will ruin, hopelessly, the whole effect. Everything from the smallest to the largest detail should receive equal consideration. A girl must see—and these are vital points—that her shoes are always clean and well polished; that her gloves are always in good condition and clean; that there is, at least, no visible hole in her stocking, especially above the shoe heel, and that her skirt is continually being well pressed. Style is dependent upon all these little things being attended to.

PROGRESS CLUB PARTY.

The Progress Club entertained husbands and guests Monday evening at the most charming of the year's parties. The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Nicholson was beautifully decorated with great bowls of pink and lavender sweet peas, dahlias and greens. Mrs. W. M. Blake, the president, received with Mrs. Nicholson. Five hundred was played throughout the evening, with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Maloney as winners of the pretty prize, a cornucopia of brown wicker for holding greens. Following the cards a two course supper was served by the committee, Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Schetter and Mrs. Blake. Mrs. Booth, another member of the committee, was absent. Among those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames W. M. Blake, W. F. McEldowney, C. W. Tower, J. S. Kaufman, M. C. Maloney, J. S. Henson, A. B. Gidley, Otto Schetter, Rolfe Nordrum, Hjalte Nordrum, A. L. Butz, D. E. Maloney and R. H. Corry, Mrs. Esther B. Converse, Mrs. A. E. Adelsperger, Miss Esther Silverman, Miss Graham and Miss Watson. The Progress Club meets a week from Monday with Mrs. Sengstacken, Mrs. Tiedgen, Mrs. Ben Chandler, Miss Silverman and Mrs. Adelsperger have papers on the subject "Boston." The work this year comprises the study of cities of historic literary and political interest in the United States.

W. R. C.

Saturday afternoon the W. R. C. was to have met at the home of Mrs. B. Cathcart, but owing to a misunderstanding as to the place of meeting the attendance was so small that it was decided to await the arrival of the inspector of the Grand Encampment. Mrs. McBride, before holding any further meetings.

PRISCILLA CLUB.

Mrs. H. M. Albee entertained the Priscillas and other guests at her home Wednesday with sewing and lunch. Mrs. Orr, Mrs. Butz, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Marhoffer were guests. The members entertained were Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Dodson, Mrs. Thorpe, Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Rourke, Mrs. Christenson, Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Bush. In two weeks Mrs. Brockmueller will be hostess.

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social department. Telephone 133. Notices of club meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

MARSHFIELD BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. W. S. Chandler entertained the Bridge Club Wednesday at her beautiful bungalow on South Coos River. The Alice H. was chartered for the guests, who arrived in time for luncheon preceding the afternoon at cards. The house and porch were decorated extensively with lavender asters and evergreen. Mrs. W. S. Turpen won card honors. Among the guests and club members attending were Mesdames Wm. Horsfall, Jr., W. A. Toye, E. G. Perham, J. S. Coke, E. K. Jones, E. G. Flanagan, J. H. Flanagan, Herbert Lockhart, W. T. Merchant, J. Albert Matson, Wilson Kaufman, W. G. Chandler, W. S. Turpen, J. W. Bennett and C. M. Byler. Mrs. Perham will entertain the club in two weeks Wednesday.

AT GUILD HALL.

The Episcopal Guild met at Guild Hall Tuesday, with Mrs. J. S. Coke and Miss Evelyn Anderson serving. Hereafter meetings will begin at 2:30 sharp, instead of 3 o'clock as heretofore. Two visitors were present this week, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Ebbecka. The members out were Mrs. Perham, Mrs. Forty, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Robert Browning, Mrs. Toye, Miss Hutchison, Mrs. Hazard, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Schetter, Mrs. Herbert Lockhart, Mrs. McKnight, Mrs. Harry Nasburg, Mrs. Coke and Miss Anderson.

A. N. W.

The A. N. W. were delightfully entertained Thursday by Mrs. Chas. Stauff at the first of this year's meetings. Almost the entire membership roll was represented. Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Stauff's mother, and Mrs. Mary Marks, were visitors. The club was served with delicious refreshments after a pleasant afternoon of needlework. Mrs. Hyde will be hostess next week. Those out were Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Squires, Mrs. Edman, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Murch, Mrs. Quist, Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Hazard, Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. O'Connell.

CATHOLIC LADIES.

The North Bend Catholic Ladies met Wednesday of this week with Mrs. Robt. Gebhardt as hostess. Miss Elizabeth Hoben of Portland was the guest of honor and the hostess was assisted in receiving and in serving dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon by Mrs. Chas. Kaiser. The ladies decided that the society's permanent name should be the Catholic Altar Society of North Bend. It was decided to hold a card party for the purpose of raising funds to assist in church work on October 6 at Taylor's Hall. The next meeting of the society will be held Tuesday September 29, when Mrs. Nell Banks will be hostess. The ladies present Tuesday were Mrs. Chas. Kaiser, Mrs. W. Gebhardt, Mrs. Geo. Trueman, Mrs. Dan McDonald, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. Hoelling, Mrs. G. J. Lemanski, Mrs. Nell Banks, Mrs. Robt. Banks and Miss Elizabeth Hoben of Portland.

NARCISSUS CLUB.

The Narcissus girls were entertained this week by Miss Nellie Olson, who had as guests, Mrs. Ingvad Pederson, Mrs. Carl West and Misses Esther Byerly, Blanche and Elizabeth Tellefson, Thora and Anna Lund, Hilcup West, Stella Pederson, Maggie Robertson and Ethel Anderson. Sewing occupied the afternoon. In two weeks Miss Blanche Tellefson will be hostess.

DANCING PARTY.

The Marshfield Dancing Club has issued invitations for the second of a series of dances which will be held Tuesday evening, Sept. 22, at the Finnish Hall. The committee in charge is composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bultman, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kinney and A. O. Peterson.

MONDAY PARTY.

Mrs. W. E. Dean and Mrs. A. H. Dennison, mother and sister of Mrs. T. S. Harvey, were guests of honor at a farewell card party given Monday by Mrs. Harvey prior to their departure Thursday for their homes in Grants Pass. Mrs. Dean has been spending the summer with her daughter, while Mrs. Dennison has been here only for a short visit. Three tables of guests were seated at cards and refreshments.

EASTSIDE GAME AND DANCE.

Next Wednesday night the Eastside basketball club plans to have a game followed by a dance and supper at the club room in Eastside.

THIMBLE CLUB

The North Bend Thimble Club enjoyed a delightful session yesterday with Mrs. R. F. Gebhart, Dahlias and hanging baskets of greens predominated in the decoration scene. It was decided that at the future meetings, a subject should be assigned in advance, so that the members could come prepared to discuss it. The subject chosen for the next meeting, which will be held with Mrs. V. E. Watters two weeks from yesterday was "Winter Gardening." It was also arranged to have a "Hallowe'en Party," at which the husbands of the members should be entertained, but the place was not selected. At the conclusion of yesterday's meeting, refreshments were served, Mrs. Nell Banks assisting in serving. Those present yesterday were Mrs. A. H. Derbyshire, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Ira B. Bartle,

Mrs. H. E. Burmester, Mrs. M. E. Everett, Mrs. Gothro, Mrs. R. B. Hazer, Mrs. Fred Kruse, Mrs. H. J. Linden and Mrs. J. G. Mullen, with Mrs. Nell Banks as a special guest.

PAST MATRONS

Mrs. Ora McCarty was hostess to the Past Matrons Club yesterday at her home in West Marshfield. Plans were made to hold the annual banquet at The Chandler the latter part of October. It will be for the Past Matrons and their husbands and the November meeting of the club will be with Mrs. G. F. Murch. Those enjoying Mrs. McCarty's hospitality yesterday were Mrs. Wolcott, Mrs. C. H. Dungan, Mrs. E. S. Burdett, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mrs. F. A. Hazard, Mrs. J. T. Hall with Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Mary McKnight as special guests.

SURPRISE PARTY

Last Wednesday evening, Mrs. Ira B. Bartle, of North Bend, was hostess at a surprise party on her husband in honor of his birthday. The surprise was most complete and not until the guests came in on him did he recall that it was his birthday anniversary. Bridge and dancing were enjoyed and refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Linden had the high score at bridge. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Mara, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Linden, Mr. and
