To Buy Goods.—E. M. Frazier, of a local second hand firm, went out to Beaver Hill this morning, where he intends to buy a stock of store goods which he will transfer back to Marshfield.

To Meet Friends.—J. Thomas Hall is expecting to leave in the morning for Myrtle Point, where he will spend the day renewing acquaintances, visiting the county fair and also appearing in the interests of his campaign for representative.

Attends Druggist Meeting.—F. D. Coban, manager of the Owl Drug Store left this morning for Coquille, where he went to attend a meeting of the Coos County Druggists' Association, which meets in the county seat to perfect its organization. He expects to return some time this evening.

Here from East.—Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Moss, of Grand Junction, Colo., arrived in Marshfield on the boat yesterday morning and today they left for Coquille, where they are intending to make their home. Mrs. Moss is a niece of Mrs. E. M. Elliott of Marshfield.

Likes the Country.—Because he liked southwestern Oregon, N. L. Maney, of Kambah, Idaho, recently sold off his property there and yesterday came down on the boat from Portland, accompanied by his family, and this morning left for Lakeport, where he intends to settle permanently. There he is expecting to purchase a small farm and go into the dairy business.

Finds Watch.—The Times again proved its value as a clearing house of lost and found articles yesterday when A. V. Bowhay recovered a valuable watch from the medium of The Times. The fob was found by little Edwin Labowitz, who brought it to The Times office and a found adv. was inserted. Before The Times was issued Mr. Bowhay came to The Times office to insert a lost adv. He was given the information and was soon in possession of his fob.

Receives Sad News.—Mrs. C. M. Conner received the sad news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Geo. Battey, at Salem last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Conner was unable to attend the funeral, having just returned from her bedside, where she had been for three weeks. When she left last week her mother seemed much improved and it was thought she might recover. Mrs. Battey visited her daughter four years ago and made many friends who will regret to hear of her death and extend their sympathy to the sorrowing family.

Should Make Deposit.—C. L. Pennock, Justice of the Peace, is gradually beginning to believe that he will have to force a deposit of all couples who come to him for information in regard to getting married. Twice in the last few days he has been seriously interviewed by prospective Benedict and twice he has answered appointments for the purpose of tying the legal knot of matrimony, and each time he has been disappointed, a fact which now makes him almost of the opinion that inquiring swains should leave a deposit to insure their return.

Comrades-in-Arms.—D. A. Jones, of the Fixup, was given a pleasant surprise when two apparent strangers stepped into the store with the grand hailing sign and grip of Spanish War Veterans. After several minutes talk the introductions disclosed that one of the "vets" was Al Hutchins, a member of Mr. Jones' company during the war, but Mr. Jones did not recognize him. This was their first meeting since the company was mustered out at the close of the war fifteen years ago and it is the first one of his former comrades that Mr. Jones has seen in fifteen years. Mr. Hutchins, who is a timberman, was accompanied by a Mr. Aldrich, a druggist. Both men are on their way to the new town of Brookings, where they are seeking a location, for which place they left after their pleasant reunion here.

City Registration.—City Recorder Butler has started in registering voters for the city election in November. Everybody has to register again.

Workman Hurt.—Angelus Papos, a workman on the Smith-Powers line was brought to Mercy Hospital suffering from a fractured skull and other injuries as a result of a fall from a bridge.

To Serve Supper.—The Young Ladies' Class of the Marshfield Baptist church, under the supervision of Miss Eva Dresser, are planning to serve a supper at the Lutheran Hall on Commercial avenue next Saturday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Finds Stolen Goods.—According to parties from Ten Mile, considerable of the loot stolen from Milo Pierson's store at Lakeside last week has been found hidden under a porch of the hotel there. Nearly all of the missing razors, watches, etc., were recovered. The identity of the thief may be established later.

DRIVE MACHINES TOO FAST

On the charge that they had exceeded the speed limit with their automobiles within the city limits, Tom Goodale and Roy Ruffner this afternoon appeared before City Recorder Butler where they told their stories.

Goodale claimed that he was preparing to ascend the steep hill on Commercial avenue near Eleventh street and that as the hill was slippery on account of the wet weather, he needed the extra speed at the bottom. This being his first offense he was fined $10 which was suspended and he will appear before the City Council next Monday evening.

Roy Ruffner, also up for the first time for driving over the lawful limit, was fined $5 which he promptly paid and the men were dismissed.

Are Sent on Way.—Found on the streets with about four sheets in the wind, T. M. Scott and V. V. Oliver were this morning placed in the city bastle by Chief of Police Carter and given plenty of time to think over their sins. Both the men had money. They made their usual
