BORN.

COKE—To Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Coke, at their home, 3905 Bernice avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., Monday, Sept. 28, a nine pound girl. Everyone is doing fine, including the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Coke of Los Angeles, and the aunt, Mrs. Ira B. Bartle, of North Bend, although the joy of all is a severe test.

FRANSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Franon of North Bend, Sunday, Sept. 27, a girl, their first child.

Joins Sorority—Miss Lucy Powers, who is attending the University of Oregon, has joined the Delta Gamma Sorority.

Oil Lower—The price of gasoline has dropped a half a cent and it is now retailing for nineteen cents here.

Change Place—The A. N. W. Club meets next Thursday with Mrs. E. Mingus instead of with Mrs. C. F. McKnight as previously announced.

Road work—N. Moon came in yesterday from McKinley, where he and Mr. Barclay have the contract for improving two miles of highway on Cherry Creek. He reports that they are getting along in good shape and will finish the work in about three weeks.

Petty Thieves—It is reported that considerable petty thieving is taking place along the waterfront, milk, fruit and vegetables which are brought in by the small boats being taken before the consignees get them. Yesterday Rev. G. LeRoy Hall's gallon of milk was taken and others report similar thefts.

Cranberry Crop—R. H. Pinkerton was in from his North Inlet ranch Saturday with the first of this year's cranberry crop which the Indians have lately picked. The crop was not as good this season as was expected early in the year, some kind of blight affecting them. E. L. Robinson has not yet gathered his crop. The McFarlin ranch crop was very poor.

Against Inspector—Dr. E. Mingus, while at Roseburg recently was informed by Contractor Bernard that he had received notice that the through mail service on the old Coos Bay Wagon Road was to be abolished. Mr. Bernard said that Inspector Vail had informed him that he (Vail) would never consent to an indirect routing of the Coos Bay mail which would delay it.

Plenty of Life Insurance—Because it is claimed that he took out three life insurance policies, giving his note each time for payment after a certain date, and because it is alleged that he did not pay these policies, Frank E. Willard is being sued for $74.90 in the justice court by L. D. Walrath. The first note was made out for $24.90, the second for $25 and the third for a like amount. The notes have been drawing eight per cent interest since early in 1912.

Sends Big Potatoes—Oscar Carlson a prominent farmer living on North Coos River, sent a box of extra large potatoes to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning to be used for exhibition purposes. Two of the potatoes are freaks and weigh eight pounds and the remainder in the box all of them weigh close to two and three pounds. They were packed in some of the black loam in which they were grown.
