GOOD EVENING.

Refuse to let disappointment shadow your heart or your face. It does not do to give up because one's cherished plan has made shipwreck.

ADDRESS TO THE UNCO GUID.

O ye who are sae guld yourself, Sae pious and sae holy, Ye've nought to do but mark and tell your neebor's fauts and folly!

SPACE ALLOTTED FOR BIG FAIR

Coos and Curry Counties Given Privilege of Wide Selection for Displays.

A definite selection of space for the Coos and Curry county products in the Oregon building at the Panama Pacific Exposition was asked for today in a letter received by the Chamber of Commerce from George M. Hyland, managing secretary of the Oregon Commission in charge of the state exhibit at San Francisco next year.

Already the counties of Southern Oregon have been assigned their spaces, with the exception of these two counties, a selection which has been delayed on account of a misunderstanding as to the size needed.

"We are perfectly willing to give you all the space you can profitably fill," declares the letter. "I believe that a stand with the dimensions of 12x30 feet, 10x50 feet or 14x40 feet would make abundant display of your great resources."

ROBBERY CASE BEFORE COURT AT COQUILLE

Jimmy Ross, in Jail Since Last May Has Hearing in Circuit Court Today. As witnesses for the State, Chief of Police Carter left yesterday for Coquille where he will appear to give evidence in the case of Jimmy Ross versus the state of Oregon, in which Ross is charged with stealing a watch from Emil Erickson on the thirteenth of last May.

SKIN SOOTHED AND HEALED BY D. D. D.

Itching skin, ugly eruptions, scaly scalp, Eczema and its allied diseases all yield instantly to the soothing influence of the mild, simple wash, the D. D. D. Prescription for Eczema. From our experience with skin sufferers, we are convinced that skin disease is caused by germs beneath the outer skin that spread and multiply until they become a mass of gnawing animals. D. D. D., a penetrating liquid, destroys these germs

AMERICAN SHIP LOST BY FIRE

Foxton Hall Burned off Wetlings Island and All but Two of the Crew Escape.

(By Associated Press in Coos Bay Times.) NASSAU, Bahama Islands, Sept. 29.—The American steamer Foxton Hall was burned off Wetlings Island September 23. The members of the crew, with the exception of two men who are missing, arrived here. The Foxton Hall was among the first vessels to take out American register. She was originally a British steamer.

FRENCH REPORT VICTORIES

(By Associated Press in Coos Bay Times.) PARIS, Sept. 29.—Following an official communication given out yesterday: "Nothing new to report in general situation. Relative calm prevails along the northern portion of front. Nevertheless at certain points, notably between the rivers Aisne and Argonne further the enemy delivered further violent attacks which were repulsed."

SERVIANS CLAIM VICTORY.

(By Associated Press in Coos Bay Times.) PARIS, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from Nish says the Servian troops advancing in Bosnia have occupied Romania mountain near Sarajevo. The Austrians are redoubting their efforts to the north to cross the Save and Danube rivers. The last attempt to pass into Servia near Belgrade cost them many dead.

KAISER IN PRUSSIA.

(By Associated Press in Coos Bay Times.) LONDON, Sept. 29.—Emperor William is reported in East Prussia and the German offensive, probably under his eyes, have recommenced against General Rennenkampf. The Australian lines continue to retire on Cracow. Besides having taken some of the forts around Przemysl, the Russian cavalry is said to be pouring through the defiles of the Carpathian mountains onto the plains of Hungary. Although the success of this latter movement is officially denied from Budapest, which announced that repeated attempts of Russian cavalry to enter the country failed, hurried efforts are being made along the Austrian frontier to strengthen the Garrisons of the fortresses.

TROUBLES NEVER COME SINGLY

Mrs. Fannie O'Donnell Has Judgment Against Her and a Second Pending.

Mrs. Fannie O'Donnell, now in the toils of the law at Coquille, is again in the limelight. This time she has a judgment rendered against her by a creditor. There is a second suit pending. Brought up before Justice of the Peace C. L. Penneck, in the Justice Court, a suit of the George L. Sherman Company was granted with a judgment of $47.75, an amount due on a set of 12 books which were bought several months ago for the O'Donnell household. Because the books were later burned, Mrs. O'Donnell believed that she could not be held liable for the amount. In addition to this there is a second suit pending, that of W. K. Wiseman, a local second-hand dealer, for $27.90 which he claims is due on a note he holds. This has not yet been decided in the Justice Court.

PIANO RECITAL BIG SUCCESS

Fine Program Given at Dr. Horsfall Residence by Hugh A. Kelso for Life-Line.

The piano recital given Saturday evening by Mr. Hugh A. Kelso of Chicago, at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall was an artistic achievement. The evening proved to be a unique event in that the entire program was composed of numbers played only by artists and never before publicly on Coos Bay. The music loving audience appreciated everything Mr. Kelso did.

The following program was given, each number which was illustrated by descriptive musical analysis, in this Mr. Kelso was most original and interesting. Especially were his "Home brewed" selections, as he termed his own numbers, enjoyed.

- Programme Impromptu in C Sharp minor... Chopin Romance in F Sharp... Schumann Bouncing Bet... Hugh A. Kelso Waltz from "Faust"... Gounod-Listz Serenade... Kelso La Campanella... Paganini-Listz Kelso Magic Fire... Wagner-Brassin Tremolo... Gotschalk Bereuse... Chopin March from "Tannhauser" Wagner-Lisztz

Mr. Kelso is widely known as teacher, pianist and author, having published several works on musical subjects. These have been endorsed by such men as Dr. Wm. Mason, the foremost music instructor of America, B. J. Lang, of Boston and W. S. B. Matthews.

The audience showed marked appreciation for the numbers of which Mr. Kelso was himself the author. The Chopin numbers elicited great praise and his playing La Campanella by Paganini-Listz was considered wonderful.

Mr. Kelso demonstrated great individuality of expression and interpretation that gave new beauty to all his numbers. Every technical difficulty in each number seemed to be overcome with the greatest of ease.

During his short stay on Coos Bay Mrs. Horsfall has had the pleasure of studying with Mr. Kelso and received much benefit from his advanced ideas on his "Psychology of Memory" and his "Interpretation of Technic."

Mr. Kelso met Rev. G. L. Hall of the chapel cruiser Life-Line and became greatly interested in his work. He was aboard among the musicians when the vessel ran aground in attempting to enter Ketchikan Inlet. At Mr. Kelso's request the audience laid a very substantial silver offering on the plate for the Life-Line work. This is one of Mr. Kelso's habits, that of helping out in such work when he is convinced the cause is worthy.

ADD NEW EQUIPMENT TO LOCAL WEATHER BUREAU

Hereafter B. B. Ostlund, the local weather man, will be able to tell exactly what the velocity of the wind is or has been at any period during the 24 hours of the day, for Assistant District Forecaster Drake, of Portland, is here and is installing an anemometer, a machine by which wind velocity is accurately measured. Heretofore the velocity of the wind has merely been estimated without the use of any instrument, a practice which has very often left the official forecaster in Portland very much "at sea" in making his storm prediction for Coos Bay. With the anemometer it is believed a greater degree of accuracy will be reached.

With this new instrument every mile of wind that blows on Coos Bay will be measured. This is done automatically and the anemometer placed on the top of a building, registers the velocity in the office below, where it may be seen at a glance. Sending two predictions daily to the Portland office, very often the northwest forecaster there has been at a loss to know what the velocity of the wind has been between these reports, a fact that is extremely important in making out his predictions of the storm areas. A weather vane, also installed at this time, will show the direction of every breath of wind that blows.

LAPP CASE ARGUED.

City Attorney Goss Returns from Capital—Decision Not Yet Public. City Attorney John D. Goss has returned from Salem, where he has been the past week appearing before the state Supreme Court in the case of Lapp vs. the City of Marshfield. No decision has yet been handed down by the court and it is not believed that their final word will be delivered until at least next week. In some cases the decision pends for several weeks.

This case has been decided in favor of the city in the circuit court. It involves the tract of land on North Broadway near Birch and is not only a question as to ownership but also for assessments and improvements as well.

BOOSTS COOS BAY.

N. C. Hatfield, of Portland, arrived here on Friday from Marshfield enroute to his home. Mr. Hatfield has spent considerable time in Coos and Douglas counties and is enthusiastic over the prospects of securing railroad connections between the two localities. Mr. Hatfield says there is no doubt but that the railroad would be a dividend producer from the very day it began operations. A railroad from Roseburg to Coos Bay would do more to develop Douglas and Coos counties than any other one thing.—Roseburg Review.

PRESCRIPTION CAUSED GRIEF

Dr. L. G. Johnson Enters Plea of Guilty and Explains Circumstances—Other Cases.

(Special to The Times.) COQUILLE, Or., Sept. 29.—Dr. L. G. Johnson, of Myrtle Point, one of those indicted in connection with the Myrtle Point liquor prescription trouble, yesterday appeared before Judge Coke, pleaded guilty and was given the minimum fine of $50, which the court later remitted. Dr. Johnson was indicted on a technical charge, that of having written a prescription blank instead of on a certified blank prepared by the state.

Following Dr. Johnson's plea, District Attorney Liljeqvist made a statement to the court that Dr. Johnson's offense had been a technical one and that he had not been writing liquor prescriptions promiscuously, in fact that he had written only one since April 1. He urged that leniency be shown by the court.

In Dr. Johnson's behalf the circumstances of the issuing of the one prescription was stated. It seems that a well known Myrtle Point man rushed up to him on the street and stated that his wife, who had been ill of heart trouble, had suffered another sinking spell and he wanted some brandy at once. Dr. Johnson protested until told that she was very weak, and knowing that she was ill, he gave the man a prescription for a pint of brandy.

Attorney Goss for Dr. Johnson pointed out that the conviction of Dr. Johnson in one way was a travesty on justice. He said that Mrs. Barker for whom the prescription was issued, was a church member and a highly respected citizen of Myrtle Point. While District Attorney Liljeqvist would not recommend that Dr. Johnson's fine be remitted, he urged the clemency of the court. However, Mr. Goss insisted that in fairness, the fine should be remitted.

Judge Coke said in passing sentence that the case against Dr. Johnson was purely a technical one and that under the circumstances of the sole offense he would remit the minimum fine.

It seems that all of the liquor prescriptions from both drug stores in Myrtle Point were taken before the grand jury and the indictments were based on these.

Dr. J. L. Masson has not yet entered his plea, but it is understood that he will do the same as Dr. Johnson.

His offense is similar, being of a technical nature in not using the regular certified blanks for four or five prescriptions for sick horses that he issued.

Other Two Cases.

N. G. W. Perkins yesterday appeared before Judge Coke and entered a plea of guilty and asked that the minimum fine be imposed. District Attorney Liljeqvist protested against Mr. Perkins, who conducts a Myrtle Point drug store, escaping with the minimum fine and Judge Coke deferred passing sentence until Thursday.

Dr. Stemmler, the fourth one indicted, will be arraigned on the charge Thursday afternoon and it is understood that he will fight the case.

Maginnis Case.

The divorce case of Mrs. Tom Maginnis is also scheduled for trial soon. Mr. Maginnis is fighting it, and Tom Bennett, who represents him, insists that Mr. and Mrs. Maginnis have been living together since she started the suit. Mrs. Maginnis denies this.

BUY MANY SHEEP.

H. B. Smith, the northern county sheep buyer, passed through town Friday with something more than 500 head of sheep. He has about 1000 more to turn into the band north of the river, which he will drive to Oakland, Ore., for Young & Company.

The Beckley Brothers, of Roseburg, are now south of here gathering up sheep which they had previously contracted for. They have their own cook wagon at Wedderburn and expect to drive from Curry in the neighborhood of 3000 head.—Gold Beach Globe.

NORTH BEND NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. George Heglie have sold their home and will leave this week for San Diego where they will reside. Through an error it was stated that Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sells, instead of Mr. and Mrs. Heglie, were going south.
