

THE COOS BAY TIMES. MARSHFIELD, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1914-EVENING EDITION

MRS. J. HAMMEL of Albany return-ed to the Bay today for an extend-und a $20 bill Upon rising Mostman who Upon rising Mosiman, who is a ed stay, looking after the new hotel Swiss and has been here taking medPortland Postoffice

(By Associated Press to those Bay Times.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. I.-Seattle and added Portland were today to the list of cities which will killing their leaders and ruining the receive the "farm-to-table" service of the parcel post. Farmers and truck growers may furnish to Postmasters lists of articles which they can send to customers by parcel The Postmasters in turn, will post. print lists of the farmers and the articles they can supply. These will distributed to prospective cus-projects in North Bend and Ban- ical treatment, at once told don in which she and Mr. Hammel are interested.

MAYOR F. E. ALLEN returned to- no clew in the day from Portland, where he has ber or robbers. been attending the annual M. E. Conference as the lay from Marshfield. All of the Coos county M. E. pastors were reap-pointed to their old charges.

CLARENCE HARRIS left yesterday the pocketbook, from which the silof the logging camps. With the close of the summer season there for the time being.

Coquille yesterday, said that busi-ness was picking up. He said that and are of the bellef that these it was remarkable how the intense interest in the war prevailed in all circles and continued to be practically the sole topic of conversation. Meet Tonight.—There will be a KAISER LOYAL meeting of the vestry of the Epis-copal Church Thursday at 7:30 at the Rector's study.

SCHROEDER & HILDENBRAND

Phone 177.

the proprietor of the theft and the police were notified, but the evidence was so faint as to afford absolutely no clew in the search for the rob-A chair placed before Mosiman's delegate door had been shoved aside and it is supposed that the robber had only to reach his arm inside to get the A small wallet contained trousers, tomers. the $20 which was overlooked and for Gardiner, where he will take a ver was taken, contained a second position as donkey engineer in one pocket in which $5 was untouched. Mosiman declared that before he was up this morning two strangers. was little business for his launch, lodgers in the same bullding, came the Pronto, and she will be tied up, to his door and inquired of Mosiman if he had lost anything during the night, declaring that they had J. E. NORTON, who was here from been "touched" for $20. The police men may be responsible for the act.

> Notifies Roumania That Any Act Against Ally Will be be Affront to Germany

IU AUISIRIA

[By Associated Press to Cous Bay Times.] BERLIN (via The Hague) Oct. 1. In a long conference with the Roumanian cabinet, the German minister at Bucharest is said to have given warning that any declaration of war or hostile act against Austria-Hungary will be considered by the Kaiser as directed against himself, and that he would act accordingly.

The expulsion of all press correspondents from Turkish territory is announced. It is naturally taken here as a step toward hostilities hetwen those countries.

FIREBUG CONFESSES.

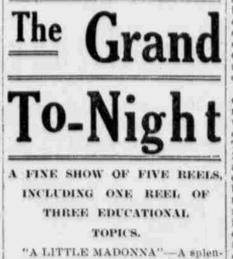

Ernest W. Mills Admits Starting Two Fires in Portland.

TBy Ass nciated Press to Coos Bay Times.] PORTLAND. Oct. 1 .- Ernest W. Mills, an alleged firebug, broke down under the fire of District Attorney Evans' examination and Confessed to starting fires in the Hotel D'Moy and the Powers Furniture Store in July. His confession followed his identification by a negro watchman. He denied specifically the responsibility for the dock fires.

DR. HORSFALL has MOVED to ROOMS 112-14-15, IRVING BLOCK.

State Colleges Start New Movement

IRF Associated Press to Cons Hay Times.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1. the formation of the apple clubs in various parts of the country are being planned by the Department of Agriculture in co-operation with the agricultural colleges, it was announced today, with a view of in-teresting boys and girls in apple culture. Oregon and Washington are included, in the plan.

did Vitagraph drama.

"THE WATER RAT"-A two-reel mystery detective story.

"HIS CODE OF HONOR"-A Lub-

in drama full of heart interest.

Coming Tuesday and Wednesday -"MR. BARNES OF NEW YORK." era France, thitry-two miles north-

Protestant party. It is estimated 50,-600 were massacred in the whole of France

CLERMONT-DE-L'OISE .- A town of northern France with about 7000 population, eigateen miles west of Complegne, on the Breche, a tributary of the Oise. Its ancient castle is now used as a prison for women. In the middle ages, so the legend goes, two Irish girls, Maura and Bridget, suffered martyrdom nearby, and were burned in the cemetery of Nogent, in Clermont. Toward the end of the twelfth century, a peasant lost cow that passed the night lying on the tomh of the virgins. When the cow was found one side had turned The fame of the miracle white. spread through all France and thousands of people came to see the cow and be cured. Nogent became hence-forth Nogent-les-Vierges and the relics of the two virgin saints were Department of Agriculture and placed in a shrine within the church where they may be seen to this day BAZEILLES .- A village of northern France about three miles southeast of the battlefield of Sedan. Near the beginning of the village is a small tavern whose name recalls the fact that this was the last French position in the village, desperately defended before the retirement to Sedan, where $3,000 men, 10,000 horses, 4000 cannons and an enor mous quantity of stores fell into. the hands of the Germans. The inn. the only house in the village-not burned, now contains a museum of relics of the battle, and one room is still preserved in the same state as is depicted in de Neuville's painting of "The Last Cartridge," the scene of which is laid in the house. The emetery nearby contains the bones of 2035 French and German soldiers removed from their temporary graves on the battlefield.

CRECY-EN-PONTHIEU .--- A town of northern France, twelve miles north of Abbeyville, famous for the victory of Edward III of England over Philip, King of France, in 1346. The English forces were estimated at 25,000 while the French army had about 100,000. The first division of the former army was commanded the Prince of Wales, and during the fighting he was hard pressed. message was sent to Edward III, asking for help. "Is my son hurt, or dead, or on the earth felled," asked the king. "No sire, but he has need of your aid." was the reply. them that sent you," replied Edward. 'that they send no more to me for any adventure that falleth, as long as my son is alive; and also that they suffer him this day to win his spurs. The French finally gave way and fled. A tradition, probably erronfled. cous, says that this was the first battle in which cannons were used (on whole breadth of the valley. Its in- burg instead of about midnight a habitants, about 27,000 in number. including a garrison of over 2000, Postoffice here until 6:30 each es speak Italian only. The city lives ning will be sent out the same d rather on its historical souvenirs than on its industries. In 774 Trent be- the Southern Pacific, has record came a part of Italy, but was trans- no advices concerning the mail so ferred to Germany in 1027. It pass- vice. He says that if the mail is the says that if the says ed to Austria in 1803 and was fors changed to the Myrtle Point route mally annexed in 1814.

TRIESTE .- The principal seaport of Austria on the Gulf of Venice, 367 miles southwest of Vienna by rafl. It may be said nearly to monopolize then the parcel post has been added the trade of the Adriatic, and has to them. In consequence, he des long eclipsed its ancient rival, Ven- not think the company can put ice, which fies scarcely more than 70 a special train to get the mail a miles across the gulf. It had a pop- here early in the morning when in ulation of 229,475 in 1910. Trieste comes via Myrele Point. was made the center of a large emigration from Austria to America by the inauguration of a direct emigrant service to New York in 1904. The town was captured by Venice in 1203. The harbor was blockaded by an Italian fleet from May until August, 1848. At the head of its industrial establishments are two ship-building yards, the largest of their kind in Austria, employing more than 5000 workmen. It also has petroleum refineries, fron foundries and chemical, soap, silk spinning and machine factories.

Martin's Orchestra, Phone 315'J. Times Want Ads bring results.

Supt. Miller of the local line d He says that if the mail is they will not receive any additional remuneration for carrying I, the new four-year contract being had on the weights of last year. She In consequence, he dow

AMONG THE SICK.

Mrs. Lloyd Cutlip, of Coes River, came down to the city today for the purpose of getting medical treat ment.

Mrs. Ed Robertsen was in the city from Coquille today receiving and ical treatment.

Jack McDonald, of the McDonald Vaughn logging concern, is in the city for several days to receive me ical attention to his leg, which was injured a few days ago on Daniels Creek.

Mr. Metcalf, employed at Simpson logging camp on Tarber Point, came to the city today site run several a sore hand, having run sen strands of a wire cable into it

